Personality

"The fellows razz me because my photograph won a prize, but it wasn't any beauty contest and I am sure I can use the money," emphatically declared Eugene Novik of Woodbridge, N. J., awarded the Parents' Magazine grand national prize of $250 in the Children's National Photograph contest. This thirteen-year-old boy's photograph of all the 30,000 coast to coast entrants was chosen as best reflecting personality and character.

"FEME SOLE TRADER" ORDER NOW HUSBAND CAN'T SHARE

Mrs. Cora May Stern, 128 East High street, Elizabethtown, was granted the right to function "feme sole trader" after a hearing before the Court.

In her petition, Mrs. Stern stated that her husband, Harvey H. Stern, Lancaster, deserted her in April 1920, and that she has been forced to support herself.

The order of the court prevents her husband from interfering with her affairs or acquiring any of her property.

ON COLLEGE FACULTY

This is Aunt Molly Jackson, Kentucky mountain ballad-singer of English-Irish-Scotch-Cherokee Indian descent, who is assistant in New York university courses in American folk-song and American folklore. She is considered the first hill-billy ever on a college faculty.

Rugged Individualism "What you call rugged individualism," said Hi Ho, the sage of Chinatown, "cannot be suppressed. A private toothache is always more important than any public policy."

Soft Shell Crabs Soft shell crabs are those that have cast off their old hard shell by the natural process of growth. The soft shell crabs on the market are caught soon after moulting.
