Evangelical Congregational Church

On this Sunday afternoon at four o'clock the Evangelical Sunday School will have their Christmas program. It is a service of worship for all ages, written by Edna M. Baxter, and titled "O Come Let Us Adore Him." It is both simple and beautiful, and therefore ought to bring us something of the real Christmas. For the most part it is made up of the familiar Christmas music, which will be sung by three choirs, the Senior, Junior, and Beginners. Special lighting and costuming will help to make the program effective. The program in brief outline is herewith included.

Camels Perform Philatelic Stunt

Philatelists especially were interested in the stunt performed by these two circus camels the other day. They carried the mail from Fort Tejon to Los Angeles, Calif., as did the camels of Gen. Edward Beale in the 1850's, the trip being a feature of philatelic week. The letters carried special souvenir stamps or labels and cachets. At Los Angeles they were transferred to trains and planes. The photograph shows the camels getting their loads.

Christmas Musical

The Mount Joy Grade School will present on Friday, December 20, 1935, at 8 o'clock its Christmas Musical. The outstanding feature of this program will be the Grade School Choir of 96 voices. Due to the outstanding success of the Choir last year, the entire program will be centered about it.

An especially attractive feature of the Choir will be its first appearance in attire that will bring to mind somewhat the appearance of the famed Russian Symphonic Choir.

Another feature will be the accompaniment of the Choir by the new Electric Pipe Organ.

No admission will be charged, but an offering will be asked; consequently no tickets will be sold, and no seats will be specially reserved.

We especially wish to remind the parents that because of the limited seating capacity of the High School Auditorium, children unaccompanied by parents or adults will not be admitted.

The program will be entirely informal, and will be interspersed at intervals with community singing by the audience and the Choir.

Recipes Tried & True

Another very nice way to serve clams is to Devil them. Don't misunderstand that we are advocating any cruel treatment for the lowly bivalve, rather, a "dressing up" and a very popular addition to the table. Here is the treatment.

DEVILED CLAMS

- 1 dozen large clams
- 1 cup of milk
- 2 tablespoons of butter
- 1 egg
- 1 tablespoon of grated onion
- 1 teaspoon parsley
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 2 cups bread crumbs
- Salt, pepper and paprika.

METHOD

Drain and rinse the clams. Chop and add onion and bring to a boil. Add one cup of boiling milk. Rub butter and flour together and add the clams and milk and season. Mix well and cool. Fill clam shells with the mixture. Dust with bread crumbs. Brush with egg beaten in a little milk then sprinkle with crumbs again. Fry in deep fat or bake in the oven. If shells are not used, form into cakes and fry. These are good! Try them.
