The Public Is Invited To Attend Meeting Friday

STATE SECRETARY OF HIGHWAYS WARREN VAN DYKE WILL OUTLINE STATES ROAD CONSTRUCTION AND MAINTENANCE PROGRAM

Coming at the start of the 1936 road building season, and at the close of a winter that has played havoc with highways through Lancaster county and all of Pennsylvania as well, the visit to Lancaster this week of Warren Van Dyke, State Secretary of Highways is most timely.

Mr. Van Dyke will be the speaker at the annual meeting of the Lancaster Automobile Club in Odd Fellows Hall, West Chestnut St., Lancaster, on Friday evening, Mar. 20. He is expected to outline the State's road construction and maintenance program for this year, to give his views on moves to divert motor funds to other than highway uses, and to discuss other phases of the State's road problem. His talk, which will attract Statewide attention, is of vital interest to every motorist.

S. Edward Gable, president of the Automobile Club, announces that the meeting will be open to the public. Admission will be free, without card or ticket, and all motorists are cordially invited to attend, and to bring their families and friends.

The musical feature will be a concert by the Lancaster Senior High School Marimba Ensemble, Miss Dorothy E. Rosenberger, director. This group of more than a dozen musicians was on the program of the recent School Patrol Convention held at West Junior High School, Lancaster and has appeared before the public on several other occasions.

LANCASTER DOCTOR ACQUITTED BY JURY

Dr. Joshua Sherman, Lancaster physician, and Ammon Haldeman, of Mastersonville, were acquitted by a jury in county court Thursday of an abortion charge. The case went to the jury at noon yesterday and they reached a decision at 5:45 o'clock. Four ballots were taken by the jurors.

Sherman was charged with performing an illegal operation on Ada Haldeman, seventeen-year-old daughter of Ammon Haldeman. The defense counsel headed by Sumner T. Hosterman made a dramatic plea for Dr. Sherman and Haldeman while Assistant District Attorney K. L. Shirk was the prosecuting attorney.
