

Good Mechanics and Modern Machinery at Your Service.

The Mount Joy Bulletin

Money Spent in Newspaper Advertising Is A Good Investment.

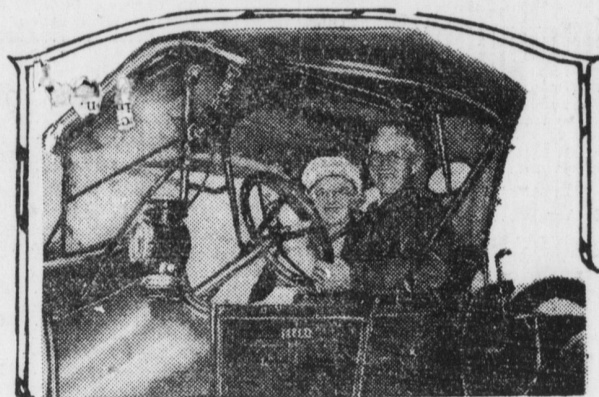

VOL. XXXV NO. 43

MOUNT JOY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 25th, 1936

$1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

Mt. Joy Contributes Over $1000 For Flood Sufferers

A 22-Year Old "Chevy" Man, Sixty, Is Injured At Florin

Hiram and Mary Dohner

Clarence Newcomer, local Chevrolet dealer, says: "Drive a Chevrolet long enough and you'll get a new one for it for nothing."

A sixty-year-old itinerant was critically injured when struck by an automobile while walking along the Harrisburg pike in Florin at 11:45 A. M. Saturday.

Man, Sixty, Is Injured At Florin

STRUCK BY AN AUTOMOBILE AND CRITICALLY INJURED WHILE WALKING ALONG THE HARRISBURG PIKE SATURDAY

The victim is Mike Hummel, said to have been living with farmers in the vicinity of Elizabethtown.

He was admitted to St. Joseph's hospital suffering a compound fracture of the leg, a fractured skull and a broken arm.

PRIZE WINNERS AT THE UNION SQUARE'S BIG BEE

A spelling bee was held at the Union Square school on Wednesday evening.

The prize winners were: First spelling class open to pupils of fourteen years and under; Samuel Hollinger, Rothsville; Warren Geib, Mastersonville; Sara Frey, Elizabethtown; Anna Grace Nissley, Union Square.

The N. Y. A. Assists The Blind Asso.

EFFORTS TO AID YOUNG PEOPLE BETWEEN THE AGES OF EIGHTEEN AND TWENTY-FIVE UNDER E. W. FORD'S DIRECTION

The National Youth Administration directed in Lancaster by E. W. Ford has provided the Blind Association with Seeing Eyes in its efforts to aid young people between the ages of eighteen and twenty-five.

SENT TO JAIL FOR THEFTS COLUMBIAN AMONG THIRY

George Miltenberger, twenty-three, Columbia; Maynard McFarland, twenty-five, Harrisburg, and Glenn Carter, twenty-six, Camp Hill, who police say confessed to a series of robberies in Central Pennsylvania, including seven in Lancaster county, were sentenced to long terms in the Eastern Penitentiary when they pleaded guilty in the Cumberland County Court Tuesday.

$557.73 Collected Monday Also Made Contributions of Food and Clothing to Harrisburg

No matter whether it's Hospitals, Red Cross, or any other "help the needy" call, our townspeople always respond nobly.

March 24, 1936 The Bulletin Mt. Joy, Pa. Att: Mr. John E. Schroll

Dear Sirs: For a news item the writer gives the following facts in connection with the Red Cross Flood Relief collection.

and asked that a committee be hurriedly formed to take charge of a Red Cross collection for Mount Joy Borough.

Solon Barr, Thomas J. Brown, Clyde E. Gerberich, O. G. Longenecker, W. E. Nitrauer, Elvin March, Clarence Schock, W. L. Shoop, H. M. Stauffer, Paul Stoner.

A circular was prepared Monday morning and distributed at noon throughout the town.

Judgment Entered; New Trial Denied

UNION NATIONAL BANK HERE WINS ITS CASE IN H. B. ENDSLOW MATTER—JUDGE REFUSED NEW TRIAL FOR HARRY KAEGEL, OF ANCHOR

The county courts disposed of the following cases of local interest during the past week:

Judgment Entered Judge Allee entered a judgment in favor of the Union National Mount Joy Bank, defendant in an action brought by J. Barr Spangler, Marietta, trustee in bankruptcy of Harold B. Endslow, owner of a farm in Rapho township.

$7,800 on his farm to the bank, and in addition he owed a judgment note of $2,000 and promissory notes amounting to $4,695.

Endslow became bankrupt and his trustee sought to collect the $751.56 on the grounds that the bank could not recover from the insurance companies on the proceeds from the personal property.

TWO TOWNSHIP PUPILS TRAINING FOR SONG FEST

Sixty pupils from the Lincoln, Pleasant Place, Mt. Vernon and McKinley schools of Rapho township, and forty pupils from the Pleasant View and Fairland schools of Penn township, are rehearsing for the annual spring song fest at Neffsville.

The Affairs In General Briefly Told

INTERESTING HAPPENINGS FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTY FOR THE BENEFIT OF THOSE WHO HAVE LITTLE TIME TO READ

Manheim's farm show will be held Sept. 24, 25 and 26. 200 chicks were burned to death in a brooder house fire at Ephrata.

At the Frank Peters sale, at Bausman, Thursday a pair of mules sold for $576.

Our Fire Company was called out Sunday to extinguish a grass patch fire east of town.

COUNTY FIREMEN WILL MEET AT MAYTOWN FRIDAY

The Lancaster County Firemen's Association will meet in the Maytown High School Friday night for the purpose of holding their monthly meeting.

There was a sixty-day cattle retest in three districts and in Rapho township and out of 356 head there were only nine reactors.

In the North District 131 head of cattle were retested with R. H. Moyer as clerk and not a single reactor.

In the South District 65 head were retested with D. H. Derr as clerk and no reactors.

In the Middle District 160 head were retested with N. R. Oberst (Turn to page 2)

The Cattle Retests In 3 Districts

THERE WERE NO REACTIONS IN TWO OF THE DISTRICTS AND ONLY NINE IN THE THIRD—YEAR'S FINANCIAL STATEMENT

There was a sixty-day cattle retest in three districts and in Rapho township and out of 356 head there were only nine reactors.

In the North District 131 head of cattle were retested with R. H. Moyer as clerk and not a single reactor.

In the South District 65 head were retested with D. H. Derr as clerk and no reactors.

In the Middle District 160 head were retested with N. R. Oberst (Turn to page 2)

ENTERTAINED GUESTS AT WEDDING DINNER HERE

A wedding dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Alexander, in honor of her Mother. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Riley, Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Bachman and children Jane, Robert and Gary; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Franklin, all of Lancaster; Miss Maggie and Abram Haines, Wanda and Nelson Alexander and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander. The latter were also celebrating their Wedding anniversary—the fourteenth.

EXECUTION ISSUED

The First National Bank and Trust Company here has issued an execution against F. H. Baker, local coal dealer for $3,700.

NUMBER OF LOCAL FOLKS ATTENDED FLOWER SHOW

Last week a number of people from this section attended the International Flower Show in the Armory at Baltimore, Md.

Last Wednesday the editor visited the show and among the local folks in attendance that afternoon were: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Eshleman and his brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hess, of Akron; Miss Esther Henry, Mrs. George Brown, 2nd; Mrs. Elmer Brown, Mrs. Harry Brown, Dr. and Mrs. O. C. Longenecker and daughter Miss Alice, and Miss Mary Keck, of town, and Mr. and Mrs. David Lutz, of Harrisburg.

This is the week of the annual Flower Show in Convention Hall at Philadelphia and in the writer's judgement it is the most wonderful display of nature's work ever exhibited in the City of Brotherly Love and is well worth the trip to all lovers of flowers.

HAD SLIGHT STROKE

Mr. Charles Berrier, a farmer of near Kinderhook, but who formerly resided on a farm one mile north of town, is recovering from the effects of a slight stroke suffered several weeks ago while driving out the lane at his farm.

BOUGHT BANK BUILDING

Ex-Postmaster A. D. Garber, at Florin, has purchased at private sale and on private terms the former Florin Trust Company building. Just what he contemplates doing with it is as yet undecided.

BEE AT GRANDVIEW

A spelling bee will be held at Grandview School, Friday evening, March 27, 1936 at 7:30 P. M. Everybody come! Miss Dora Kraybill is the teacher.

Mortuary Record For Past Week

MANY OF OUR BEST KNOWN PEOPLE HAVE PASSED TO THAT GREAT BEYOND WITHIN THE PAST WEEK

George G. Bigler, 55, died at Columbia. Abram Green Markley, 65, died at Columbia. Benjamin H. Lefevre, 69, of Columbia died Saturday.

Harry W. Wolf, 76, a former resident of Marietta, died at Quebec, Tenn. Howard S. Johns, 44, well known Columbia iron-worker, died in the hospital there.

MRS. EMMA REIST

Services for Mrs. Emma Holstein Reist, widow of John B. Reist, who died Tuesday at her home in Schaefferstown. Irving L. Reist, of Elizabethtown, is one of three sons who survive.

MRS. E. S. YAHN

Mrs. Elizabeth S. Yahn, sixty-three, Elizabethtown, died at her home, of a complication of diseases. She is survived by a daughter, Elizabeth.

LOCAL PROPERTY SOLD

Mr. Mahlon Foreman has purchased the John Orth property, now tenanted by John Saylor, on David Street this boro.

The transaction was consummated by Jno. E. Schroll, local realtor. The terms of sale were private.

Conference Is Planned At E'town

EASTERN AND SOUTHERN DISTRICTS OF THE CHURCH OF THE BROTHERN WILL CONVENE THERE AUGUST 2 TO 22

The annual conference of the Eastern and Southern districts of the Brethren, to be held at the Elizabethtown College, from August 2 until August 22 respectively, will be enlarged this year.

The conference, which will be conducted by the Board of Christian Education of the Church of the Brethren in Eastern and Southern Pennsylvania, and known as Camp (turn to page 2)

SALES POSTPONED

The public sale of household goods of Mrs. Joseph Steiner, at Washingtonboro, scheduled for Saturday, April 4, has been postponed.

The public sale of household goods of John Saylor, on David street, this boro, scheduled to be held last Saturday, was postponed.

FOR FLOOD SUFFERERS

The Mount Joy Welfare Association will forward to the Lancaster Red Cross, any contributions presented to Carl Krall at the Union National Bank or Jos. T. M. Breneman, at the First National Bank and Trust Company, or any other Welfare Association member.

This is a worthy cause and we should contribute generously to our neighbors.

LANCASTER COUNTY FIREMEN HELD VERY SUCCESSFUL ANNUAL EVENT AT LANCASTER SATURDAY EVENING

More than 400 members and friends of the Lancaster County Firemen's Association attended the 12th Annual Banquet in the Odd Fellows Hall, Lancaster, Saturday night, the most important social event of the year in fire company circles.

Rev. W. R. Kneer, chaplain of the association, offered the invocation. Guy K. Bard, Esq., the genial solicitor of the association, was toastmaster and presided as only Guy Bard could.

Following the banquet artists from a Philadelphia booking agency entertained with a number of musical and dance acts, a premier show in every respect.

LOCAL ARRESTS

Chief Zerphey made these arrests for violations of our boro traffic laws the past week: Samuel W. Lockard, Columbia, for not heeding a stop sign.

EXECUTION ISSUED

Lancaster Trust Co., now to the use of the First National Bank and Trust Co., Mount Joy, substituted fiduciary, vs Lizzie H. and Abram E. Binkley, and H. Melvin Binkley, et al. $10,120 real estate debt in Manheim township.

LOCAL HENS SCORE

A pen entered by A. M. Wolgemuth, of town, was second in the state egg-laying contest scoring for February, with 262.75 points and 245 eggs, the State Department of Agriculture announced Friday.

FOR THE HEIRS

These local estates were adjudicated in the Orphans' Court: John L. Jacobs, East Donegal township, $18,694.71. Wein A. Ensminger, Manheim, $45,964.98.

LOST HIS LICENSE

Four autoists had their operators cards withdrawn by the Bureau of Motor Vehicles at Harrisburg last week. Among them was Harold R. Hoffman, of Salunga.

TOWN LAD COMMITTED

Benjamin Waltz, aged 12 years, of this place, was committed to the Rotary Home by Judge Atlee in Juvenile Court Thursday.

AUXILIARY EXECUTIVES MEET

The executive meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held Monday evening, March 30, at the home of Mrs. Clyde Eshleman.

MRS. D. C. WITMER HOSTESS TO FARM WOMEN SOCIETY

Farm Women Society No. 8 met at the home of Mrs. D. C. Witmer, Mount Joy, R. D., Saturday afternoon, at which thirty-five members were present.

The devotions were in charge of Miss Fannie Ruth Heisey, Rheims after which a quartet, composed of Mrs. R. H. Forney, Ruth C. Kraybill, Mrs. Elmer Snyder and Bertha Erb rendered several selections.

During the business session plans were made to hold the annual spring flower show on Friday and Saturday, June 5 and 6, at the State hospital for Crippled Children.

The next meeting will be held April 18, at the home of Miss Mary Strickler, Mount Joy R. D.

LOCAL AUXILIARY ENTERTAINED AT GAVEL PARTY

The American Legion Auxiliary held a gavel party in the Legion Home on Thursday evening. The local unit entertained the Marietta and Elizabethtown units, but due to the flood conditions Marietta was not able to attend.

Chief of Police Elmer Zerphey, reported that thieves entered the Tydol gas station, located on the Harrisburg pike between Mount Joy and Florin, Sunday night.

The intruders attempted to force a side window and tore off the entire lower frame according to Zerphey. A checkup revealed nothing stolen but the money compartment of a marble game was broken open.

Zerphey said the robbers apparently were frightened off before they had a chance to take the money.

FIRM REGISTERED

Hazel Shireman Crankshaw, of Maytown, trading as "Guide Publishing Service," weekly publications, has registered with the state to do business at 18-20 West Orange Street, Lancaster.

DIVORCE GRANTED

Ruth M. Gingrich, 124 East Main street, this boro, from Nelson W. Gingrich, East Petersburg, married December 10, 1921, separated June 1, 1928, desertion.

TWIN DAUGHTERS

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Mayers, of Maytown, announce the birth of twin daughters at their home last Tuesday.

178 Are Dead Damage Is 300 Million

WATERS OF THE WORST FLOODS ON RECORD HAVE RECEEDED AND CONDITIONS ARE GETTING BACK TO NORMAL

The highest flood waters and the most destructive on record, have receded and people along most of the larger streams through the eastern states are now busy digging things out of the mud and enumerate the damage.

The death toll to date is 178 and the damage is estimated at $300,000,000.

Along our own river, the Susquehanna, the water height exceeded all former records by four feet.

At Columbia everything along (Turn to page 3)

THIEVES ENTER GAS STATION ONLY MARBLE MONEY TAKEN

Chief of Police Elmer Zerphey, reported that thieves entered the Tydol gas station, located on the Harrisburg pike between Mount Joy and Florin, Sunday night.

The intruders attempted to force a side window and tore off the entire lower frame according to Zerphey. A checkup revealed nothing stolen but the money compartment of a marble game was broken open.

Zerphey said the robbers apparently were frightened off before they had a chance to take the money.

FIRM REGISTERED

Hazel Shireman Crankshaw, of Maytown, trading as "Guide Publishing Service," weekly publications, has registered with the state to do business at 18-20 West Orange Street, Lancaster.

DIVORCE GRANTED

Ruth M. Gingrich, 124 East Main street, this boro, from Nelson W. Gingrich, East Petersburg, married December 10, 1921, separated June 1, 1928, desertion.

TWIN DAUGHTERS

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Mayers, of Maytown, announce the birth of twin daughters at their home last Tuesday.

Held Farewell Dinner For East Donegal Folks

A farewell supper was given on Saturday evening to Mrs. Theodore Petersen, of Donegal Springs, by the congregation of Donegal church.

The following attended: Mrs. Petersen, children Helen, Mary, Jacob and John, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Zook, Mrs. Susan G. Heisey, Miss Fanny Ruth Heisey, Mrs. John Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Witmer, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Gish, Mr. and Mrs. Abner Risser, children Allen, Harold, William and John; Miss Anna Keller, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heisey and children, William, Mary and Shirley Anne, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Zook and son Richard; Mr. and Mrs. George Enslow, Miss Blanche Wakefield, J. W. Heisey, Miss Mary Strickler, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Garber and children Peggy, Rachel and Norman; Mary and Jay Geib, A. Paul Rohman, Bobby Stoner and Harold Etsell.