EDITORIAL

AMPLE PREPAREDNESS

There was never a more general sentiment against war than exists today yet there was never a time in the history of the world when there was more preparation for war in progress or nations were more prepared.

READY FOR SPRING

The earth, we are told, is rolling on toward spring at the rate of 18 miles a second. As far as we are concerned we would like to see the old world speed up a little—say get into intermediate or high and get spring here sooner.

STORIES DON'T FIT

Several years ago there was too much tobacco and the acreage was greatly reduced in order to create a shortage and boost the price. Last year the packers would have paid the farmer a better price but for the tax. Later the tax was removed and this year the universal price for the 1935 crop, ever though it was the best grown here in many years, was thirteen cents, about the same as last year.

These crop shortage, tax and other excuses, don't coincide.

LET 'EM FARM

Under a new plan the Government proposes paying farmers $10 per acre for land left idle during this year. This is to replace the AAA plan. That proposition may sound and be okay for some of the farm land throughout the United States but it certainly will not appeal to Lancaster County farmers.

Why not let the farmers grow all the crops possible? If the people around here can't consume the products there are ample markets elsewhere.

MANY MORE LIKE HER

Mrs. Anna Sage, of Rumania, an alien in the United States, got into trouble and faced an order of the Courts to be deported. In the meantime she became John Dillinger's "sweetie" and lead the country's bad man into the trap where he was shot and killed. Now it develops that she was "promised" her freedom here in the United States if she double-crossed Dillinger. She made good the promise but the one made to her was only a blind. The "woman in red" must leave the United States because she is an undesirable alien and rightfully she should. There are too many of her kind.

WATCHFUL WAITING

Depression hit the durable goods industries—steel, cement, etc.—hardest of all. And it has stayed with them longest. When the recovery movement started a year or so ago, it was restricted almost entirely to consumer—goods industries.

This winter and spring the first real sign of a revival in the durable goods industries is appearing, largely due to heavy railroad purchasing. Railroad after railroad has gone into the market for new cars, rails and locomotives. The railroads are showing increased, though not sensational earnings, are getting more traffic. Their expansion and improvement budgets naturally reflect such betterment.

The farm equipment companies constitute another member of the durable goods group which finds times more encouraging. According to Business Week, their experience during January marked a 400 per cent advance over their abysmal 1932 low.

Durable goods makers are keeping watchful eyes on the utility industry. If this industry goes in for expansion and improvement on a big scale, all heavy industry is going to feel the good effects.

LEARN ABOUT FIRE

The best friend fire has is ignorance. Its most dreaded enemy is knowledge.

No one, aside from a pyromaniac, purposely starts destructive fires. No one purposely creates fire hazards or allows them to grow and increase in dangerousness. No one wants to imperil the lives of his loved ones.

Yet millions of ordinarily intelligent citizens do those things unknowingly every day. The bulk of them get away with it—for a month, a year, perhaps forever. Many of them don't—and the dreaded fire demon strikes. And it strikes so often that, in spite of the fact that substantial progress in reducing fire loss has been made during recent years, the total annual waste comes to several hundred million dollars.

Ignorance is one of the prime causes of uncontrolled fire—ignorance that is totally unnecessary and entirely inexcusable. There is nothing mysterious about fire prevention. There is nothing difficult about it. Any fire marshal can give you the fundamentals in a half-hour's conversation. Various organizations, such as the National Board of Fire Underwriters, after a wealth of literature on the subject which may be had for the asking. Each year Fire Prevention Week is observed, and every possible opportunity is offered the citizen to learn how he may do his part to prevent fire.

It is a duty and a privilege to do that. And it will save us actual dollars—every one must help pay for the other fellow's fire. Perhaps it will save the lives of those close to us. Give a little of your time to learning how easily fire hazards may be eliminated—then put in a little more time doing the job.

The N. Y. A. Assists The Blind Asso.

Directress of the Association has taught this worker the functions of the business of the Association. Such experience will be invaluable in the search for a permanent job. One worker has been learning simple book-keeping. At the present time she is proficient enough to handle the book-keeping required at the Blind Association. Besides this work she assists the blind by cutting materials for them to sew and by being generally helpful.

A youth doing carpentering work has built a book-case capable of holding all the Braille library owned by the Blind Association. This field of Social Work is only one of many being given assistance by the National Youth Administration. Over two hundred young people are employed on various projects at the present time.

New Trial Denied

A new trial and judgment for Harry Kegel, Elizabethtown, was refused by Judge Schaeffer, in the suit brought by Harold M. Page, undertaker, of Williamsport, as the result of a collision near Mount Joy on July 7, 1935.

Page sued to recover damages for a wrecked hearse. In the trial of the case last November, the jury awarded a verdict of $2,071.78 against Kegel. Loren P. Somer, Mt. Joy, whose car hit Kegel's after the other collision, was named an additional defendant but the verdict did not affect him.

In a second suit resulting from the same accident, Judge Schaeffer refused a new trial and judgment to Kegel in the suit brought by Harry N. Yoder, Williamsport, driver of the hearse. Yoder was injured and was awarded damages of $750.

LOCAL FOLKS CONTRIBUTE FOR FLOOD SUFFERERS

As this is the best medium to reach all who so generously contributed, making it possible for Messrs John Dillinger and Joseph Schaeffer to visit the flooded sections of Harrisburg, last Thursday night when they delivered all the food and clothing they could load into a car. Because of their mission they had no difficulty in getting into the city, and the supplies were delivered to the American Legion Home on Front Street.

Again on Saturday afternoon contributions were asked for and also through Mrs. William Weldon, of New Street, who collected in that section and in less than an hour, Mr. Sheaffer, was taking all he could load into his car, for a second trip into Harrisburg, and again to the American Legion Home on Front Street.

Many thanks to all local contributors for their generosity for this needy cause.
