

Good Mechanics and Modern Machinery at Your Service.

The Mount Joy Bulletin

Money Spent in Newspaper Advertising Is A Good Investment.

VOL. XXXVI NO. 13

MOUNT JOY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 26th, 1936

$1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

Bids For Salunga Highway Changes Rejected By State

The Department of Highways rejected Saturday all bids opened July 31 for reconstruction of U. S. Route 230—including correction of the Salunga crossing hazard—between Mt. Joy and Landisville, Lancaster county. No reason was given for the action.

4-H Food And Health Club Meets Today

LADIES WILL ENTERTAIN THEIR MOTHERS AT LUNCHEON—LADIES QUARTET WILL SING—PERFECT ATTENDANCE LIST

At the last meeting of the Mastersonville 4-H Food and Health Club the girls made further plans for entertaining their mothers at a luncheon today.

The club elected Bellerma Spangler secretary. An entertainment committee, composed of Cordelia Singer, Ruth Foreman and Martha Haldeman was named to entertain the mothers at the luncheon.

A ladies quartet composed of Norma Heffly, Theora Ginder, Deborah Singer and Martha Haldeman was organized to sing at future events.

Perfect Attendance

The following girls had perfect attendance during the summer months Ruth Miller, Anna Mae Miller, Anne Risser, Deborah Singer, Mary Sheaffer, Theda Ruhl, Martha Haldeman, Arlene Shenk, Arlene Shelly, Ruth Foreman and Theora Ginder.

Those Present:

The following were present: Miss Anne Forbes, Bellerma Spangler, Anna Shelly, Ruth Miller, Anna Mae Miller, Norman Heffly, Anne Risser, Deborah Singer, Cordelia Singer, Mary Sheaffer, Theda Ruhl, Ruth Brubaker, Martha Haldeman, Arlene Shenk, Arlene Shelly, Ruth Foreman and Theora Ginder.

VIOLATE MOTOR LAWS

These motorists were taken before Burgess Keener by Officer Zerphey for immediate hearings: Harwood B. Catlin, Hampton, Va., for failing to stop for stop sign. He pleaded guilty.

William H. Krug, Upper Darby, Pa., reckless driving. He also pleaded guilty.

THAT'S THIS EVENING

The Honorable David L. Lawrence, secretary of the Commonwealth and Democratic state chairman, will be the guest this evening of the Democratic County and committeewomen in the ballroom of the Hotel Brunswick, Lancaster.

EIGHT LOSE LICENSES

Last week the state suspended eight motorists' drivers licenses. Among them was O. B. Hoover, Florin.

Central Manor Camp Registration Is High

The forty-fourth Central Manor Camp meeting and Bible Conference opened at Central Manor on Saturday with the largest number of registrations in history and a number of improvements on the grounds.

One hundred and fifteen tents and cottages were occupied when the camp opened, as compared with 113 last year, and members of the Church of God, which sponsors the Details of the project: 2.07 miles, dual type pavement consisting of two outer lanes of reinforced concrete each 10 feet wide and a center lane of crushed aggregate base with a bituminous surface 10 feet wide, reinforced concrete flares variable in width, reinforced concrete pavement 44 feet wide, reinforced concrete bridge, fabrication and erection of a highway underpass, a reinforced concrete structure, and bituminous surface.

TWO YOUNG MEN INJURED WHEN DRIVER FELL ASLEEP

At about 1:30 this morning Officer Zerphey was called to the Marietta pike about 1 1/2 miles from town to investigate an accident.

A Ford coupe driven by Richard Hawthorne, aged 18, of town, ran off the road and overturned when he fell asleep. He was badly cut about the head.

George Wall, age 19, injured his right shoulder and head.

Roy Mateer, 19, was not injured. They were riding with Hawthorne. The injured were taken to the office of Dr. Kendig here.

Hawthorne was removed to the St. Joseph Hospital at Lancaster. The car was badly damaged.

A BIG SUCCESS

Friendship Fire Company No. 1 held its annual outing and picnic at Cove Park on Saturday. The attendance was exceptionally large and everybody just had a dandy time. The firemen indulged in all kinds of amusements. Refreshments were served.

REPRESENTED MAYTOWN, W. LAMPETER AND EAST COCALICO HIGH SCHOOLS—ALSO THEIR AGRICULTURAL TEACHERS

Twenty-eight agricultural students, representing Maytown, West Lampeter, and East Coccalico High Schools, together with the respective agriculture teachers of these schools, returned last Friday, Aug. 21, at 9:30 P. M. from a two-day educational tour to Philadelphia and parts of New Jersey. The tour was sponsored by the Garden Spot Chapter of Future Farmers of America at Lampeter.

The following representatives of Maytown High School made the trip: Paul Brubaker, Jay Gible, David L. Hess, Jr., Lester Roland, and Mr. S. F. Simmons, the agricultural supervisor at Maytown.

Mr. Frank W. Twining, Treasurer of Interstate Milk Producers Association, directed the tour in the (Turn to page two)

Philip Green, 9, colored, of Rock Run, was killed when he stepped into a swimming hole where a high tension wire had charged the water.

A new amplifying system with eight loud speakers, the gift of the Rev. Harvey Bickel, of Brunswick, Md., and Ivan Herr, of Columbia, was installed a few weeks ago. A 48-foot addition to the main auditorium, also made this year, will give it a seating capacity of 1,500 as compared with 1,100 last year. One new cottage was built this year.

JNO. B. REIST REUNION AT OLD HOMESTEAD FARM

A reunion was held Sunday, August 16 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Nissley, the old homestead farm of the Reist family. Those present were: John B. Reist, Clara F. Reist, Litzitz; Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Bomberger, Litzitz; Mr. and Mrs. Amos B. Nissley, Mt. Joy; Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Reist, Robert, Eleanor Reist, Mrs. Maurice Finley, Betty Finley, Falfurrias, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Nissly Rohrer, Mark and Paul Rohrer, Lancaster; Mr. and Mrs. Christian Bomberger, Litzitz; Mr. and Mrs. Roy R. Nissley, Mountville; Arthur, Esther, Ruth and Helen Nissley, Mt. Joy; Ruth Metzler, Harry Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Nissley, John, Joan and Reba Nissley Litzitz.

CHARGED WITH SPEEDING

John B. Kantz, Philadelphia, was prosecuted by Officer Zerphey before Justice of the Peace Zeller for speeding.

Wolgemuth Clan To Hold Reunion Sat.

THE SIXTH ANNUAL EVENT OF THIS LARGE FAMILY WILL BE HELD AT CASSELL'S PARK IN EAST DONEGAL TOWNSHIP

The sixth annual reunion of the Wolgemuth Clan will be held Saturday, August 29th, in Cassel's Park one mile north of Marietta.

The Program

The programme follows: 9:30 a. m. Registration and acquaintance; 11:30 a. m. lunch; 12:30 p. m. song service; 12:35 p. m. devotional services, E. E. Wolgemuth; reading minutes; 1:00 p. m. address of welcome, Lester Wolgemuth; 1:15 p. m. music, Longenecker quartette; talk, Lancaster and York County folks; 3:00 p. m. music, duet, Mildred Wolgemuth and Miriam Wolgemuth; offering; 3:05 p. m. business period; closing song; benediction, Rev. Herbert Wolgemuth. The program will be rendered on Standard Time.

The Officers

The officers are: President J. Earl Martin, Mount Joy; vice-president, George Wolgemuth, Dillsburg; secretary, Martha Wolgemuth, Mt. Joy; assistant secretary, Mary E. Wolgemuth, Lawn; treasurer, Eli M. Wolgemuth, Florin; historian Mrs. Abram Wolgemuth, 52 W. Charlotte street, Manheim; assistant historian, Mrs. Wm. D. Wolgemuth, Dover. Programme committee—Daniel M. Wolgemuth, John S. Wolgemuth, H. C. Eisenhour, Menno G. Wolgemuth, O. S. Hoffman.

Gave Birthday Party For Miss Irene Smeltzer

A most delightful birthday party was held last Thursday in honor of Irene Smeltzer, at the home of her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Newpher Smeltzer, on East Main Street.

This little lady, who was visiting here during the summer holidays, celebrated her eighth birthday.

Delicious refreshments, with an eight canded birthday cake as the main feature, were served to the guests, who had a most enjoyable time.

The little ladies who attended were: Margaret Zeller, Florence Pennell, Marie Clemens, Elizabeth Mummaw and the busy hostess Irene Smeltzer.

Saturday, Irene was accompanied by her grandparents to Huntingdon on her return to Portage where she attends school.

126 lives were taken as the nation's auto toll over the weekend. The Albino crow seen frequently at Hershey was shot near Union Deposit.

William H. Street, of Steelton Elected Music Teacher Here

There was a special meeting of the Mount Joy Boro School Board Monday evening for the purpose of filling several vacancies which existed in the teaching corps on the eve of the opening of the Fall term.

Mr. A. H. Douple, supervisor of art, resigned, having accepted a similar position elsewhere. This vacancy still exists.

Registration Of Beginners And New Students Here

An error concerning the date of registration for beginners in public school appeared in last week's Bulletin. The correct date is Monday, September 3rd.

Beginners and new students will be registered for the 1936-37 school term in the Grade School Building on Marietta Street on September 3, 1936 between the hours of 9:00 A. M. and 3:00 P. M. Only those beginners who are six years of age and those who will be six years of age on or before January 1, 1937 will be registered. No beginner will be registered who does

News of The Day From The Dailies

BUSY FOLKS CAN KEEP POSTED BY GLANCING AT THIS COLUMN OF CONDENSED NEWS ITEMS

After a hail storm at Seymour, Ill., a farmer counted 560 dead sparrows.

Mrs. Philip Speichinger, Mendon, Mo., gave birth to sextuplets, only one of which lived.

The Calvin Boeshore dairy barn, valued at $15,000, near Fredericksburg, was destroyed by fire.

Judith McClelland, 14, of Scanlon Hill, Cambria Co. was killed when an auto and a National Guard truck collided at Grantville.

Thomas Frances, 22, was killed and five others hurt when two autos collided near Reading Sunday.

"Doc" MacKenzie, noted Philadelphia race driver, was killed at Milwaukee when his car turned over four times.

Ten carloads of tomatoes, approximately 10,000 baskets were shipped from Lancaster yesterday for the Campbell Soup Co.

Six occupants of a motor boat were rescued on the river at Middletown Sunday after the boat capsized during a storm.

The people of Forth Worth, Texas are eating so many watermelons that the garbage collector was compelled to add three large additional trucks to haul the rind away.

Over 100 persons applied for $250,000 mortgage assistance from the FHA at Lancaster the first two days.

About 800 At The Groff, Graeff, Grove Reunion

Peter Graf, III, of Worthington, a member of the State Senate, was elected president of the family association at the annual reunion of the Groff, Graf, Grove and Graeff families at Landisville camping grounds Thursday afternoon. About eight hundred persons were in attendance. Mr. Graf succeeds Fred F. Groff, of this city, who was made first vice president.

A BAINBRIDGE MAN IS CHARGED WITH LARCENY

Amos Brandt, of Bainbridge, was arrested Thursday afternoon by Chief of Police Clyde Coble, Elizabethtown, on a charge of larceny preferred by Ralph Alwine, of Elizabethtown R. D. He posted $500 bail for a hearing before Justice of the Peace Elwood S. Grimm, Elizabethtown.

Alwine, farmer at the State Hospital for Crippled Children, at Elizabethtown, alleges that Brandt took two tons of hay from a barn at the hospital.

Brandt, according to Justice of the Peace Grimm, said when arrested that he took the hay in payment for wages due him by Alwine.

COUNTY MAN LOW BIDDER

J. Miller Eshleman, Landisville, has submitted the low bid for the construction of .19 of a mile of reinforced concrete road on U. S. Route 22 in Lehigh county, the State Department of Highways announced today. His bid was $10,707.85.

The Affairs In General Briefly Told

INTERESTING HAPPENINGS FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTRY FOR THE BENEFIT OF THOSE WHO HAVE LITTLE TIME TO READ

The public schools at Columbia opened Monday.

The dog training season opened in Pennsylvania last Thursday.

The New Holland Gun Club will erect a cabin in its woods 18x24.

Mrs. George Campbell, Columbia, was arrested for scalding her husband.

Two new oil burners will be installed in the Lancaster County Prison.

Charles Bowman, Litzitz, made a lucky escape when a drum of pitch exploded.

Only three persons were injured in auto mishaps in the county over the week-end.

Harry Dinkelberger, 59, a P. R. R. car painter, fell off a bridge at Washingtonboro.

The estate of the late M. T. Garmon (Turn to page 6)

WORKMAN INJURED

Lue Anthony, fifty, Elizabethtown, Pa., who is working on the P. R. R. project at Chickies, was admitted to the Columbia hospital Friday morning suffering from several fractured ribs and possible internal injury. He was struck by a bucket of one of the cranes being used to dump stone, and was knocked against a car.

Picked From Community Card Basket

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Batzel spent Sunday at Hershey.

Mr. and Mrs. William Beamesderfer and family, Columbia ave., spent Sunday with Mr. John Landis and family near Litzitz.

Mr. John Dellinger, Miss Grace Henderson and Miss Mary Strickler motored to Easton and Delaware Water Gap, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Brubaker and children, Alice, Richard and Jay spent Sunday to Tuesday at Camp Mt. Joy, in Perry County.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gerber and two Mr. and Mrs. James Gerbe and two sons spent Sunday at Mount Gretzina as the guests of Mrs. Anna Baker. (Turn to page 6)

A FRACTURED ELBOW

On the day she planned to leave for her home at Newman, Calif., after a month's stay here with relatives, Mrs. Daniel Shroy was badly injured and her automobile was damaged beyond repair when the car crashed into a culvert near the Conewago Inn Saturday. Mrs. Shroy suffered a fracture of the elbow. She was riding alone at the time of the crash.

A Colorful Parade By Fifty Of Our Co. 4-H Club Girls Mon.

MASTERTONVILLE CLUB WON THE CUP AT THE ANNUAL ROUND-UP HELD MONDAY—THE LOCAL PRIZE WINNERS

A colorful "dress review," participated in by 50 girls, each wearing a garment made in connection with her program of 4-H Club work this summer was the final feature of the annual Round-up of the 4-H Girls of Lancaster County held at Williamson Park on Monday.

All 26 clubs in food, clothing and room improvement conducted by the Agricultural Extension Association in this county were represented in the exhibit. Approximately 250 persons, including a number of local leaders and mothers, attended the affair.

Mastersonville Wins Cup The silver cup, awarded annually by the Farm Women of Lancaster County to the club attaining the highest score was captured by the Mastersonville 4-H Club. The trophy will become the permanent possession of the group that wins it three different years. The scoring is based on attendance, largest percentage of exhibits, cooperative spirit, points won in games and number of prize awards for work done by individuals and the club as a unit.

Mrs. Morris Ginder is the local leader, and Theora Ginder, president of the Mastersonville club, this year's winner.

A playlet, "Glimpse Into The Future," was presented by the Columbia Foods club. Miss Jean Robertson, of the 4-H Club Department of State College, the principal speaker, discussed "Good grooming as an asset to per-

(Turn to page 2)

LOCAL FOLKS ATTENDED REUNION AT MONTEREY

Over three hundred persons attended the fourth annual reunion of the descendants of the late Elder Joseph Myer held on Sunday at the Monterey Church of the Brethren.

Folks from this vicinity who registered were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Wolgemuth and children Harriet, Ruth and Carl, of near Mount Joy; Kathryn Gibbel, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy M. Wenger, Miriam Wenger, Dorothy Wenger, all of Mt. Joy.

CONVERTED INTO A LAWN Another step forward in the beautifying of the grounds surrounding our new post office occurred last week when nursery men sowed grass seed on the four plots of ground immediately adjoining the building.

JOHN BRANDT

John Brandt, seventy-three, died (Turn to page 6)

LEEDOM REUNION

The tenth annual Leedom family reunion was held at Shultz Park at Elizabethtown last Sunday.

Leedom family reunion, is treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Miller of Mount Joy were awarded a prize for being the youngest married couple there.

There were 136 people attended the reunion.

HEARD LANDON SPEAK

Prof. Mervin W. Brandt, local grade school principal, was at New Castle and heard Gov. Alf M. Landon, Republican nominee for president, make an address. The candidate made a very favorable impression.

Two Cars Collided No One Was Hurt

Wednesday morning, at the Main and Manheim street intersection, a car, with a trailer hauling tomatoes, and a passenger car were proceeding east on Main when the one made a left hand turn. At the same time the car following decided to pass and they collided.

The trailer was owned by Garth Snyder near town while the passenger car bore a Pennsylvania license and the people in it were returning from a trip to Texas.

No one was injured. The Ford sedan was driven by Frances R. Keeler, of Trucksville, Pa., who was prosecuted by officer Zerphey before Squire Zeller, for improper passing.

KOLB-KULP REUNION

The 13th annual reunion of the Kolb-Kulp family will be held at East Greenville Park Sunday, Sept. 13. Rev. H. Stover Kulp, a missionary in West Africa the past 14 years, will speak.