Holmes: "I see by the papers."

$2,500,000 of Taxpayers' Money 'Sunk' in Creek

EAST ST. LOUIS, ILL.—"Vote Republican" says a sign forty feet long which spans the city-owned viaduct over Old Cahokia creek here. "Cahokia creek," the sign explains, "is still here—$2,500,000 taxpayers' money is gone." That is the amount the PWA spent to divert the channel of the stream, which is an open sewer. Another sign on the viaduct says, "Smell it."

Tells How Women Lost Jobs Under New Deal

CHICAGO.—Appointment of four women to positions of importance in the Roosevelt administration was only a "smoke screen" to cover the discharge of hundreds of others under Section 213 of the National Economy act, said Judge Grace A. Miles of Independence, Kas., in a speech before a group of women here.

Judge Grace A. Miles

She cited one case which she said was typical of the way women civil service workers were replaced by political appointees.

"A married woman earning $1,200 a year, whose husband was also working for the government at a salary of $1,500 a year—supporting both parents—was discharged under the provisions of the law," she said. "Her position was filled, not by a single woman or the head of a family—but by the wife of a railroad official making $10,000 a year."
