

OWL LAFFS

BY A WISE OWL

That was a wicked party on Sunday. Such harmony in song. Wouldja believe it, there wasn't a headache in the crowd—'til Monday.

Gene, that Harrisburg slicker, who's come to the farm for the summer, just won't believe the stories they tell him about the size of the carp in the Little Chiquies creek.

Ab Weaver told him that on Monday when he was in the creek he swam under a carp that was so big he thought it was a canoe.... Canoe believe it?

Joe Habecker says he won a clock over at Lebelzter's Grove that runs fine—it actually does an hour in 45 minutes—it's a fast one.

A little tike remarked: "I just saw a watermelon in a window eight feet high and nine feet wide. A grownup overhearing this reprimanded him saying: "Now, now, there isn't any watermelon that big." And the little fellow replied: "Who said the watermelon was that big? I said the window was."

A proud family man was boasting to a friend. "Billy's mother is the sunshine of my home." The friend answered: "That's right. I saw her giving Billy a good tanning when I passed your house—just a good case of son tan."

During an oral quiz the last week of school a grade school teacher said: "Bobby, locate the Red Sea." Bobby hesitated and then said: "In the middle of my report card."

A Florin man purchased an alarm clock at Trimmer's. Saturday when he was in the store Milly asked: "Do you find your alarm clock satisfactory?" And the man answered: "You bet! It rings and wakes the parrot; the parrot whistles to the dog and the dog barks and wakes me up—it works."

At a patent medicine show near Manheim the Doctor (?) spoke to the crowd saying:—and now ladies and gentlemen I have been selling this medicine for 20 years and have never had a complaint. What does that prove to you? And a voice from the crowd, that sounded like Firpy, called: "Dead men tell no tales."

Last night a frightened lady woke her husband about 3 A. M. saying: "I'm sure I heard a mouse squealing." And her hubby drowsily asked: "Well, what do you want me to do—get up and oil it?"

Here's a telephone conversation I heard on a party line when the wires got crossed: "Hello." "Who's speaking?" "Watt." "What's your name?" "Watt's my name." "Yeh, what's your name." "My name is John Watt." "John what?" "Oh, never mind. I'll be around to see you this afternoon." "All right. Who are you—Jones?" "No, I'm Knott." "Well, will you please tell me who you are, then?" "Will Knott." "Why not?" "My name is Knott!" "Not what?".....And then they both got sore!—What not.

ELECTRIC SERVICE COMES TO MANY RURAL CHURCHES

Probably at no other place along a rural electric line extension is electric service more fully appreciated for lighting than in the churches. In Pennsylvania, particularly, the countryside is dotted with church edifices many of which were erected as long ago as when the kerosene lamp was a novelty and tallow dips were in general use in rural homes. Transportation was a much bigger problem in

Pa. Sportsman's Assoc'n Met At Shamokin

ALL OFFICERS WERE RE-ELECTED—NEXT YEAR'S CONVENTION AND SHOOT GOES TO BRINTON LAKE CLUB AT CONCORDVILLE

The forty-seventh annual convention and shoot of the Pennsylvania State Sportsmen's Association was held at the Valley Gun and Country Club, Shamokin, last week opening Wednesday and closing Saturday afternoon.

Wednesday was preliminary day and the main events opened Thursday. Even though the shooting was very difficult that day, with continuous rain and strong wind, many good scores were made in the 150 singles and 100 doubles races.

Mr. Miess, Hazleton, won the latter with 96 out of 100 in class A. In class B, doubles, John E. Schroll, of town, tied for the championship and lost by one target in the shootout. Mr. Schroll won this championship at Bradford last year.

In class C John H. Keener, of Maytown tied for second with 139 out of 150 on Thursday.

Friday was class day and some wonderful scores were made. Hemmig, of Reading, won class A with 200 straight. While four others tied for second with 199 out of 200. Saturday Mulhaupt won with 100 straight and in the handicap in the afternoon Baldwin and Vernon tied with 95 out of 100 but the latter won the shootout.

Mr. Harry Hostetter, of Lancaster won the 20-21 yardage trophy with a 92 score. John E. Schroll, of town was second with 91.

The Meeting The Association held its annual meeting at the American Legion Home Thursday evening. A turkey banquet preceded the meeting. At the business session these officers were re-elected:

President—C. D. Henline, Bradford. Vice President—J. W. Eshelman, Lancaster. Secretary—John E. Schroll, Mt. Joy.

Treasurer—Dr. A. W. Vernon, Bradford. Rep. to A. T. A.—John W. Eshelman, Lancaster.

Next year's convention will be held at Concordville with Brinton Lake Club as hosts.

HELP PLANTS TO GROW

Garden seedlings must come up after the seeds have germinated in order to produce good and uniform stands of plants. The surface soil must be soft and moist to let the little seedlings through, says Penn State vegetable gardeners.

those times than in the present stream lined age and trips to the stores for the purchase of supplies were infrequent at best.

The lighting of the interiors of these old churches in which generations of a family have occupied the same pews and which have witnessed the baptism, confirmation, marriage and burial services of members, has completely revolutionized the aspect of the services.

How important an epoch in the life of the country church is the coming of electric lighting is attested by the fact that dedicatory services are held to mark the event and the occasion made one of general celebration.

A. E. SCOTT'S GREINA PLAYERS PRESENT "SATURDAY NIGHT"

Many personal hits are being scored in the opening comedy of the eleventh season at the Greina Theatre, Mount Gretna, where A. E. Scott's Greina Players are appearing every night this week in "Saturday Night," the gay, modern comedy by Owen Davis. Miss Margaret Mansfield, who has been known to Greina Theatre patrons as the leading lady, is creating an astounding sensation and many expressions of regret by her announcement that her post this year will be manager instead of leading lady. Maybe the popular, petite Margaret might be persuaded to do at least one role in the course of the season. Who knows?

Appearing in leading roles are two attractive newcomers to the Greina scene, Miss Joan Arden, a brunette of striking beauty, and Louis Tanno who is sure to make the hearts of the gala flutter like mad, for his dark handsomeness is attractive indeed. Presented in supporting roles are Miss Beth Marion, blonde-blue eyed beauty who came to Greina directly from Hollywood, and Jack Easton who came to Greina for the first time last season and played never-to-be-forgotten roles in "Ah, Wilderness," and "Charlie's Aunt."

Uniontown, Pa., has an interesting role. He is noted for his splendid singing voice as well as for his acting ability. Melba Palmer, character woman, with a wee bit of "Sat- urday" in her twinkling eyes is pleasing the audiences mightily. Phil Tead is directing.

Next week, the Players will present another famous Broadway comedy, "The Easy Mark," in which Walter Huston starred upon its original presentation in New York.

Four persons were hurt when their auto crashed into a culvert on the highway near the Eagles' Summer home near Klinesville Sunday.

Sixteeners Held Fiftieth Annivers'ry

A. E. Rudy, eighty-one years old read a poem of his own composition on this fiftieth anniversary.

Mrs. Sally Kulp Young talked of her experiences in Mount Joy and recited a poem. Pauline and Dorothy Edwards, who now live in the building which houses the old Soldiers' Orphan school, sang. Sadie Waynt, Sunbury, recited a humorous selection and Mrs. D. A. Hull, Upper Darby, gave a comic impersonation. Jeannette Booth, Harrisburg, entertained with toe and tap dancing. Harvey Shaar, Lancaster, read some of his famous recipes for bean soup, molasses sandwich and hominy. Charles C. Lean, Pittsburgh, gave a number of baritone selections and Ethel Weaver and her mother, Mrs. Addie Weigelt, York, sang a duet.

Lorenzo McCracken, Lancaster, an old Grand Army man, appeared on the platform and sang a song. The program was in charge of Ethel Weaver and Harvey Shaar. Those attending from this vicinity were Mrs. Mary Beamesdorfer, Mrs. Edna Stirk, Walter Powell, Mrs. Lizzie Bair, Mrs. Elsch, Francis Deyer, Charles E. Hedricks, Mr. and Mrs. John Johns, Jackson Stokes, Miss Gertrude Stokes, Lizzie Runkel, Penrose Vanaulen, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey W. Shaar and Harriet Walton, Lancaster; Mrs. Pauline Siller, Mount Joy; George Hambricht, Millersville; Martha Bradigan, Mrs. Lillian Frazen and Mrs. Irene Hopkins, Akron; Mrs. James Peter, Lebanon; and Mamie Miller, Reading.

Mrs. Fanny Morris Grace, 83, Philadelphia, Jackson Stokes, 81, Lancaster, and A. E. Rudy, 81, Harrisburg, were the oldest pupils of the school present.

A Vote of Thanks At the business meeting the following resolution was passed: "We wish to extend to the Mt. Joy Bulletin our sincere thanks for the interest it has taken to promote the success of our reunions in the past and especially so for our 50th anniversary. We feel that Mr. Schroll deserves our personal thanks for his part in the successful outcome of our birthday party. Also the Mount Joy School Board for the use of the auditorium."

ARE YOU ONLY A THREE-QUARTER WIFE? MEN, because they are men, can never understand a three-quarter wife—a wife who is all love and kindness three weeks in a month and a hell cat the rest of the time. No matter how your back aches—how your nerves scream—don't take it out on your husband. For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system; thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three ordeals of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age."

HOW OFTEN CAN YOU KISS AND MAKE UP? FEW husbands can understand why a wife should turn from a pleasant companion into a shrew for one whole week in every month. You can say "I'm sorry" and kiss and make up easier before marriage than after. Bewise. If you want to hold your husband, you won't be a three-quarter wife.
