

Congratulating County's Corn Husking Champion

"Nice going, Demas," seems to be the comment of J. Hansell French, state secretary of agriculture, as he congratulates Lancaster county's first corn husking champion, Demas Roland, Elizabethtown R. D. 1. Roland was crowned at the Mount Joy farm show Friday afternoon. In the group, left to right, are: F. S. Bucher, county farm agent, Roland, shaking hands with Secretary French, Stanley Stauffer, Quarryville, who finished second, and J. D. Roland, Mount Joy, chairman of the event.

Exhibit of Dolls

One of the outstanding displays was the doll exhibit at Garber's Drug store, where 125 dolls, representing 25 different countries were shown. They ranged in size from a fraction of an inch to two feet and the exhibit was the largest of the kind ever held here. Mrs. J. G. Eichlerly was in charge. A German doll, included in the display, was brought to this country 70 years ago.

15 Schools Completed

Fifteen schools were included in the school exhibit, with the industrial arts and arts projects featuring. A series of masks provide an unusual touch. The Mastersonville secondary school entered a model "Plymouth Colony," while the Washington secondary school, East Donegal township showed an unusual exhibit of leaves.

A number of patrol projects were shown in the Boy Scout booth and the Sportsman's Association of Mt. Joy had a large section in Ream's garage, with live animals and fowl on display.

Friday's Attractions

The farm of Roy Hoffman, at the southern boro limits, was the scene of the first corn husking championship ever held in Lancaster county.

The Preliminary

During the elimination contest held in the forenoon, eight minutes of husking, eleven competitors were eliminated. They were: Paul Van-cleve, Lancaster R. D. 4; John K. Fisher, Mount Joy P. D. 2; Paul Dresher, Landisville; W. H. Neff, Marietta R. D. 1; Oscar Frey, Mount Joy; A. H. Martin, Marietta R. D. 1; Harold Esell, Mount Joy R. D. 1; Norman S. Miller, Salunga; Dewey Kunkle, Mount Joy; Clyde Meyers, Quarryville, and Mirvin Shireman, Mount Joy R. D. 2.

The Finals

The finals were held in the afternoon when Demas Roland, Elizabethtown, R. 1, 38-year-old-farmer, won the championship. Working "a little bit faster than my regular gait," Demas husked 21.68 bushels of corn. Stanley Stauffer, Quarryville, finished second, with 21.17 bushels, and P. M. Kreider, of Mount Joy, was third, with 20.89 bushels. The other finalists in the order of the finish were: Lewis Bixler, Marietta R. D. 1, 20.29 bushels; Thomas Michener, Mount Joy R. D. 1, 19.95 bushels; Homer Ginder, Elizabethtown R. D. 3, 19.20 bushels; Joseph Bixler, Marietta R. D. 1, 19.19 bushels; Carl Stonesifer, Elizabethtown R. D. 1, 18.71 bushels; Norman Herr, Marietta, 18.61 bushels; E. S. Walters, Mt. Joy, 18.56 bushels; Roy G. Kopp, Mt. Joy R. D. 1, 18.29 bushels; Clarence Graham, Marietta, 18.22 bushels; Norman Greiner, Elizabethtown, 17.05 bushels, and Morris Bishel, Elizabethtown, 17 bushels.

2,000 Spectators

A crowd estimated at 2,000 to watch the fifteen finalists "get away" in the championship event. For eighty minutes the huskers worked along double rows of corn in a field nearly 1,000 feet long. Down one side they went, and back along the other side, and when the gun sounded the end of the contest, Roland had 1,545 pounds of corn in his wagon. Less deductions in penalties imposed for husks found among the corn, and unpicked corn found in his rows, the net weight was 1,518 pounds.

State Secretary Here

J. Hansell French, state secretary of agriculture, an unexpected spectator at the contest, congratulated the Mount Joy Farm Show association for holding the contest and said that Roland and winners of similar contests elsewhere in the state may be invited to participate in a proposed championship event at the State Farm Show this winter.

A Slight Mishap

George Weber, York county farm agent suffered burns of the right hand when a shotgun he used to signal the start of the finals spread over him. He was treated by Dr. H. C. Kendig, of town.

Deserves Great Credit

John Roland, vice president of our association and chairman of the event, deserves great credit for the success of the contest. Mr. Roland left nothing undone to make the event fair and complete in every way. He was ably assisted by County Farm agent F. S. Bucher.

Referees assigned to each of the finalists were: Emerson Rohrer, Manheim R. D. 2; D. C. Witmer, Mt. Joy R. D. 1; John A. Fox, Columbia R. D. 3; Elmer Walters, Marietta R. D. 4; Ammon Bucher, Manheim R. D. 5; Abner Risser, Bainbridge R. D. 6; C. A. Riceford, Elizabethtown R. D. 7; John M. Kreider, Lancaster R. D. 4; S. L. Sheaffer, Quarryville; Victor Longenecker, Elizabethtown; C. E. Charles, Marietta; Dewey Kunkle, Mount Joy; S. M. Bosh-naugle, Lancaster R. D.; M. M.

Strickler, Mount Joy, and A. H. Martin, Marietta.

A Clean Show

Mount Joy does not permit fairs or a midway, giving a clean show at all its exhibits.

Friday evening entertainment was furnished by a roving "little German band" from Anville.

car, which was traveling west. The officer said from information he received he believes the man became confused at the sight of the approaching machine.

Mast told the officer that he did not notice Smith until his car was within a few feet of him. Mast said he vainly tried to avoid hitting the man but the left front fender and headlight struck and hurled him approximately forty-feet forward.

Smith was bleeding from two deep gashes in the scalp when carried off the highway and brought to the office of Dr. John S. Gates here. The physician gave him emergency treatment and then ordered him removed to the hospital in the ambulance.

Relatives of the man said he had been residing with his daughter, Mrs. Sheaffer, for the past seven years. He conducted a farm in Juniata county until his retirement about ten years ago. He was a member of the Reformed church.

In addition to the daughter with whom he resided, he is also survived by the following children: Carrie, wife of Elmer Snyder, St. Paul, Pa.; Maggie, wife of Joseph Redman, Newport; Edith, wife of John Mitten, Newport; Dorothy, wife of Brady Bachman, Shermansdale; Ralsh, of Kistler; and William, of Grantville. Two brothers, William, of Stony Point; and John of Loysville, also survive as do a number of grandchildren and several half-brothers.

Funeral services were held in the Reformed church at Loysville Perry Co. with interment in the adjoining cemetery.

PERSONS WITH MONEY AT INTEREST TO BE TAXED

The books for the county, boro and township assessors are now ready, and these officials will be on duty within a few days listing both old and new properties for taxable purposes for 1938 assessments. They will also list all occupants of these properties who are twenty-one years of age or over, for occupation tax purposes.

Those who have money at interest will also be listed for the four-mill tax for county purposes. The local assessor requests citizens to be prepared to impart the information at this time, due to recent changes in the laws governing the assessor's duties.

PARTY, BY ERGATAN CLASS

The Ergatan Class, of the Church of God, will hold a Halloween Party on Friday, October 29, at 7:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Phillip Shireman, 48 East Main Street. All members are requested to be present.

There is no better way to boost your business than by local newspaper advertising.

Mrs. Earl Miller, Mrs. Jack Hornasius, both of Elizabethtown, and Miss Ethel Moore and George Broske, of town. About seventy-five entries were in the parade.

Prizes for the best arranged or most beautiful booth were awarded as follows: First, Tyndall's Store, displaying Evening in Paris beauty products; second, Ehleman Bros., displaying men's furnishings; third, Schick Independent Oil, displaying their products.

NEW DEVELOPMENTS IN EDUCATION FIELD

New developments are taking place in the state-wide program for high schools in the fields of agricultural education, industrial education, social studies and home economics, Dr. Lester K. Ade, Superintendent of Public Instruction, said today.

In Vocational Agriculture Education some thirty-seven new departments have been organized at the beginning of the present school term, and twelve county vocational supervisors have been placed to assist in developing the program.

The Division of Industrial Education in the Department of Public Instruction has been devoting a considerable time to the preparation of the State Plan for Vocational Education.

The Division of Secondary Education has been developing tentative plans for a new social studies program which will incorporate the modern theories and practices in this field.

In the field of Home Economics Education there has been completed a course of study for grades nine to twelve inclusive. The program is intended to present in some detail a well-round program in home-making.

Wise Advertisers Advertise In A Paper That Has Reader Interest

The Bulletin is ever conscious of the fact that an advertiser, in order to realize the maximum of return from the money invested, must buy something more than just type and white space. No ad can be effective unless the paper in which it appears has READER INTEREST.

In order to add interest to advertisements, the Bulletin publishes all the local news, church matters, owl luffs, dutch letters, markets and what not. People read one or more of the above subjects, lay the Bulletin aside and along comes the next member of the family and reads his or her article of interest and so on down the family. During all that time your advertisement may have been seen and read by one or half a dozen people.

How many of you read the average circular dropped at your door? You can best and most truthfully answer that.

If you want good returns for money expended, put your ad in a newspaper that is read by thousands of careful, scrutinizing readers.

Because of the latter fact, WISE ADVERTISERS ADVERTISE IN ITS COLUMNS.
