

Everyday Cooking Miracles

BY FRANCES WEEDMAN
Director Hotpoint Electric Cookery Institute

Almost as indispensable as the salt and flour on your shelf is the neatly sliced bacon in your refrigerator. Bacon is one of those tri-personalities. It is hale and hearty as a main dish attraction, it's a friendly sharer of honors with other dishes, and it's simply grand for the garnishing touch. So, perhaps this is reason enough that this streak-of-lean, streak-of-fat food receives an excellent work-out in every household. Perhaps this fact, too, warrants a few words and thoughts in regard to bacon broiling—a scrumptious, easy cookery touch. What! Get the house so very smoky and the broiler all greasy-spattered for a few slices of charred, tough bacon...? Why bring up any broiler complications! And some folks really feel that way, about broiling, and justified they are, too!

Bacon is delicious when broiled in the miracle broiler of a modern electric range.

Smokeless Broiling
But, now, the automatic range has come along to conquer all of the trials and tribulations connected with out-dated cookery methods. The modern electric range "cooks up" nothing short of real cooking miracles, which make cooking easy and sure; miracles which make cooking safe and scientific. By the turn of a switch, with the turn of a dial, this magic servant bows to madame's latest whims and fancies. And this miracle range has more than one piece to play. Whether it's a cake, lamb stew or broiled bacon you want, you may have it in its most tantalizing mood. Concerning broiled bacon, however, you may be interested in knowing how the miracle broiler performs. The broiler is shelved in the electric oven and it slides out to

MARTIN GERBER'S CELEBRATE 55TH ANNIVERSARY

Neighbors and friends very pleasantly surprised Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gerber, at their New Haven Street home, on Tuesday evening, in celebration of their 55th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerber were presented with 55 very beautiful dark red carnations, one for each year of wedding bliss.

About eighteen people called on the Gerbers during the evening, bringing gifts of candy, cake, etc. and their good wishes for many more years of happiness.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served after which everyone gathered around the table and played Bingo.

A very cheerful evening was greatly enjoyed by Mrs. Jacob Brubaker and son, Charles and Miss Naomi Peters, all of Enola; Mr. and Mrs. James Gerber, and three sons, James Jr., Jerwyn and Jay, of Elizabethtown; Mr. and Mrs. Perry Bates and daughters, Helen and Beatrice; and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bates and son Ronny, who called later in the evening.

Mount Joy township, and Kathryn A., wife of Earl Rudy, of St. Louis, Mo. Also one half-brother, John Lincoln, of Lancaster. He is also survived by six grandchildren. Also the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. C. S. Rutt, Elizabethtown; Mrs. Christian Gerber, Mt. Joy; George Kline, Florin; Paris Kline, Elizabethtown; Mrs. Phares Shenk, Rapho township, and Mrs. Fannie Shaffer, Lancaster.

Services were held from the home, in Florin, at 2 P. M. on Tuesday. Interment in the Mount Joy cemetery.

Flotsam and Jetsam
Flotsam denotes goods lost by shipwreck and found floating on the sea; jetsam means the goods thrown overboard to lighten the vessel, also called jetsom and jetsom from the verb to jettison, meaning to throw overboard. We talk of homeless waifs and strays as "human flotsam and jetsam." A third word in this group is ligan, denoting goods sunk at sea with a float attached for their later recovery.
