Mortuary Record For Past Week

the home of her parents.
Besides her parents, she is survived by a sister, Ruth and a brother, Chester Jr., both at home; her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Effie May Boyer, of Wrightsville, and her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Edith Runkle, of Bainbridge.
Services were held Wednesday at the home, with interment in Falmouth cemetery.

EDWIN F. HOLLISTER
Edwin F. Hollister, 13 year old son of Edwin C. Hollister and Mae Walker Zipp, died Tuesday evening, at the General Hospital, at Lancaster, from a complication of diseases. Funeral services will be held on Saturday morning at nine o'clock at the St. Mary's Catholic Church, at Marietta, with interment in the Eberle cemetery.
Friends may call on Thursday evening at the home of the grandparents, Adam Walkers, Mount Joy, from 7 to 9 and on Friday evening at the home of the parents in Marietta from 7 to 9.

MRS. HATTIE K. HOFFMAN
Mrs. Hattie Keller Hoffman, 78, widow of Henry Hoffman, was found dead in bed Saturday morning at the home of her son, Roy Hoffman, near town, where she resided. Dr. William M. Workman, deputy coroner issued a verdict of death from a heart attack.
She was a member of St. Mark's United Brethren church. She is survived by two sons, Roy, with whom she resided, and Clayton, St. John's, N. D.; also a sister, Mrs. John Bausman of York, and a number of grandchildren.
Services were held Tuesday at the Nissley funeral home with interment in the Mount Joy cemetery.

MRS. ANNA A. GIBBLE
Mrs. Anna A. Gibble, eighty-six, widow of Henry B. Gibble, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jacob Henny, Sporting Hill, of a complication of diseases after an illness of six weeks. She was a member of the Church of the Brethren. She is survived by four children: Phares, of Hershey; Eli, of Manheim, R. D. 1; Harry, Manheim, R. D. 2; and Mrs. Henny, with whom she resided; also eighteen grandchildren, twenty-seven great grandchildren; four great grand-children and a sister, Mrs. Daniel Wolgemuth, Manheim.
Services will be held at the home Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock and at the East Fairview Church of the Brethren at 2 o'clock. Interment in the adjoining cemetery.

MRS. ESTHER E. COEN
Most treasured memento of her husband who was killed eighteen months ago, her wedding ring caused the death Tuesday of Mrs. Esther E. Coen, thirty-seven, of this borough.
Mrs. Coen, mother of four, died at 6:30 a. m. in St. Joseph's hospital of blood poisoning, which hospital authorities said began in an infection of her finger caused by the wedding ring.
Her late husband, Arthur Coen, was fatally injured a year ago in an accident while answering a call with Friendship Fire company engine.
Mrs. Coen was a member of the Auxiliary of American Legion Post No. 185, and the Auxiliary of the Friendship Fire company.
She was a daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth and the late Frank Zeager, of this borough. Besides her mother, she is survived by the following children: Arthur F., Anna E., Carl N., and Clyde C., all at home, and a sister, Margaret, wife of Oliver Funk, and two brothers, Carl and John Zeager, all of Mount Joy.
Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Friday from the Sheetz funeral home, with interment in the Mount Joy cemetery. Friends may call at the home on West Donegal street from 7 to 9 p. m. today.

Edwin F. Hollister, 12, died at Marietta.
