

OWL LAFFS

A WISE OWL

Be it ever so rare as a day in June
Then if ever come perfect days
Um-m-m, I'm getting slightly rusty on my poetry. But it is June and that's what I'm trying to get over to you.

Sonny Metzler, a bright young pupil looked long and thoughtfully at the second examination question, which read: "State the number of tons of coal shipped out of the United States in any given year." Then his brow cleared and he wrote: "1492—none.".....He's right at that—or is he?

The "boys" were sitting outside the Fire house. Red sighed: "Gee, this is a funny world to live in." And Ray exclaimed: "Yeah, and so few of us get out of it alive.".....That's food for thought.

A young country minister, noted for his jollity, was dining at a farmhouse along the Back Run on Sunday. When his plate of roast chicken was passed to him, he remarked facetiously:

"Well, here's where that chicken enters the ministry."
"Hope it does better there than it did in lay work," rejoined the hired boy of the family.

While boating in the middle of the river at Harrisburg on Sunday, we were rowing along side of a fellow and girl, when he started to rock the canoe and she started to scream. He said: "Don't be afraid; we're only ten feet from land." Shankingly looking around, she asked: "Where is it?" And he replied: "Underneath us!"..... Help! Help!

Heagy says the best exercise for reducing is to "just move the head slowly from left to right when offered a second helping.

Down at the Acme yesterday Alpheus Rye asked: "Is the grapefruit juicy?" Davey Hetrick didn't answer, but just looked at him, and "Alphy" read the answer in his eye.".....Just another squirt.

During a final oral exam in our grade school, a teacher called for sentences using the word beans. Charles Piersol answered: "My father grows beans." Norman Garber said: "My mother cooks beans." And up pops Johnny Newcomer with: "We are all human beans." Nice goin' John, beans is beans.

The merchants at Lancaster are complaining about the present business conditions. In fact one of them figured business was so poor he'd put on a special sale, so he called his assistant and said: "Take that line of $5 shoes and mark them down from $10 to $8.50.... What? No profit?"

Charley Eby tells this one. He was sitting inside a screened window when in flew two mosquitoes. The one settled on the window sill but the other kept buzzing around. Finally the quiet one asked: "Why are you making such a fuss?" And the flitty one answered: "Whee! I just passed the screen test."

Here's a charming piece of poetry I stole from a year book recently published. Hope you like it..... I don't.

Inside Outside
He killed the noble Mudjokivis, Of the skin he made him mittens, Made them with the fur side inside Made them with the skin side outside.
He, to get the warm side inside, Put the inside skin side outside; He, to get the cold side outside, Put the warm side fur side inside.
That's why he put the fur side inside, Why he put the skin side outside, Why he turned them inside outside.

day afternoon by defeating Miss Almada Fager, of Harrisburg, in three sets. Miss Wise eliminated Miss Emily Long, of Harrisburg, in the semi-final match played Saturday morning. Both winner and runner-up in this tourney have automatically qualified for the girls national championships to be played at Philadelphia in August.

Boys Monopolize
Mount Joy had a complete monopoly on the boys division finals, with Franklin Zink defeating Clarence Newcomer by scores of 6-0 and 6-2. Both of these boys are sophomores at the Mount Joy High School next year. Zink entered the finals by defeating Herbert Bowman of Harrisburg Saturday morning, 6-1, 6-0. Newcomer defeated W. Minster Kunkel, Jr., in the other semi-final match by scores of 6-3 and 6-2.

In the junior division, Eugene Cridel of Mount Joy, advanced to the semi-finals by defeating Brown of Harrisburg Academy, 6-2, 7-5. Paul Rork, of Patton Trade School, advanced to the semi-finals Friday by defeating Robert Bare, of Lancaster. Other semi-finalists in the tourney are Jack Minogue, of Allentown, and J. D. Meyers, of Harrisburg Academy.

Crider met and defeated Meyers in the one semi-final match Sunday afternoon. The division of the tournament is scheduled to be completed this week. Winners in this tourney will automatically qualify for the national tournament to be played this summer.

GRETNA PLAYERS OPEN SEASON THURSDAY, JUNE 16TH

Miss Margaret Mansfield and Richard Rankin have arrived at Mt. Gretna, Pa., where they are busy making preparations for the twelfth great season for A. E. Scott's Gretna Players. The Gretna Theatre will open this year on Thursday, June 16th, at 8:30 P. M., daylight saving time. Contrary to their usual custom of presenting the first performance of the new weekly show on Monday it will now be given on Thursday. This is a new policy and it is hoped that it will meet with the hearty approval of theatregoers.

Miss Mansfield returns in her capacity as business manager, and Mr. Rankin will again be stage manager and director.

Familiar faces as well as new ones will be greeted by the audiences this year. Returning for their second season are: Miss Jean Arden, Louis Tanno, Ralph Chambers and Phil Tead. Henry Richards, who was here a few seasons ago is returning also. Miss Diane Gibson, lovely blonde motion picture actress from Hollywood will play the ingenue leading roles, and Miss Claire Meade is the new character woman.

Other surprises are in store. Among the possible productions which will be seen during the summer weeks are: "Three Men on a Horse," "Roosty," "Personal Appearance," "Love in a Mist," and others.

Here's a little piece of poetry I especially liked. See what you think of it.

"Here lies the remains of a radio fan,
Now mourned by his many relations.
He went to a powder mill, smoking his pipe,
And was picked up by twenty-one stations."

Notes from school papers collected from near and far:
The principal parts of the eye are the mote and the beam.
The hardships of the Puritans were what they came over in.
The American government finally decided to put all the Indians in reservations.
In order to keep milk from turning sour it should be kept in the cow.
Fiction are books which are fixed on the shelves and cannot be removed.
Chicago is almost at the bottom of Lake Michigan.
A millennium is an insect with many more legs than a centennial.
With television just around the corner, it will soon be a question of "Call me up and see me sometime."

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

By IZZY WISE

A congressman, he may be lacking in some ways, but when it comes to listening, he takes no back seat—he is a super-champion—he knows listening.

And voters who have been sitting around and let the Govt. take the roof off their house, they are walking up and sending messages and letters—and talking turkey.

And if congress will now get up some steam and start in and do away with some of the comedy already on the book, and omit any more new laws, we can stop wondering every night about what tomorrow will bring forth.

And if we just had the 10 commandments to go by, and nothing else, it would be great. And to study law, you would just read Deuteronomy. And pardon, you don't need a lawyer to explain it, like with the 3 A, where even a Philadelphia lawyer cannot figure it out.

And Deuteronomy, it is a book in the Bible, and is not some country in Africa or something to do with your appendix.

of their separation.
In featured roles are Binnie Barnes, Alan Dinehart, Harry Davenport, Nydia Westman, E. E. Olive, Torben Meyer, Bodil Rosing and Irving Bacon. Norman Krasna, who produced the picture, wrote the original story. Richard Thorpe directed.
