

Sixteeners Held The 51st Reunion Here

FORTY-THREE WERE PRESENT - D. A. HULL, OF UPPER DARBY, RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT

The fifty-first annual reunion of the Mount Joy Sixteeners association was held Saturday at the American Legion Home.

The number of members is gradually diminishing but they show plenty of enthusiasm to make up for their deteriorating group.

D. A. Hull of Upper Darby was reelected president of the association at the afternoon business session. Other officers elected were: Mayme Miller, first vice president; Gertrude Luft, second vice president; Charles Keener, corresponding secretary; J. W. Armstrong, financial secretary; Charles Gerhart, treasurer; and Sadie Wyant, chaplain.

Miss Ethel Weaver of York led the group singing of songs used in (Turn to page 3)

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER COMMITTED SUICIDE

Unemployed and penniless, Mrs. Alice Forrey, 39, and her daughter, Alice June, 16, both of Columbia, died together after taking chloroform. They were found in a garage.

Dr. Taylor said it was a double suicide.

Witness Tree Trust Fund By Donegal Soc'y

FUND ESTABLISHED FOR CARE OF TREE AT ANNUAL MEETING OF THE SOCIETY HELD LAST THURSDAY

Establishment of a trust fund for the care of the Witness Tree and other trees in the nearby grove at Donegal Presbyterian church was announced Thursday at the 30th annual reunion of the Donegal Society.

S. C. Slaymaker, chairman of the committee on trees and grounds, said the plan was developed jointly by the executive committee of the society and the trustees of the church, and enough money was sought so that the fund would provide $400 a year.

"Witness Tree" Healthy "The Witness Tree, which we feared was dying three years ago," Slaymaker said, "is healthy beyond question." The age of the historic oak, beneath which Revolutionary (Turn to page 2)

SPORTSMEN'S CARNIVAL

The Mount Joy Sportsmen's Association will hold a carnival in the boro park Saturday, July 30th. Be a sport and attend the Sportsmen's Carnival.

Affairs At Florin For The Week

Master Jacob Hamilton is ill at this writing.

Joyce E. Will is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Will.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Becker entertained guests at their home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith announce the birth of a daughter on Monday morning.

Mrs. Mary Vogel, of Lancaster, spent Wednesday with George Vogel and family.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Kiehl, of Lancaster, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wittel.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Strickler and Mrs. C. A. Melhorn spent a few days in York county.

Mr. Leo Smith and daughter, Elaine, of Columbia, were Sunday guests of Mr. Al Fike and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brinser entertained a number of guests on Sunday in celebration of their wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Myers (Turn to page 5)

MOST UP-TO-THE-MINUTE WEEKLY IN LANCASTER COUNTY

The Mount Joy Bulletin

VOL. XXXVIII NO. 4

MOUNT JOY, PA., THURSDAY, JUNE 23rd, 1938

$1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

Geo. Althouse Former Agent Was Retired

FORMER FREIGHT AND PASSENGER AGENT HERE IS PENSIONED AFTER FORTY-THREE YEARS OF DUTY

Mr. George Althouse freight and passenger agent of this place, just received official notice from the Railroad Retirement Board, at Washington, D. C., that he was retired as of June 14th, 1937, and in due course of business a check will be mailed for the amount of annuity due him.

Retirement is appreciated after spending forty-three years in the harness. He entered the service as a student at New Providence, Pa., in 1892 and in April 1898 was appointed agent at West King and Water Streets, Lancaster, Pa., which was then the northern terminus of the Quarryville Branch. While agent there the Branch Line pas- (Continued on page 2)

WOMAN'S WRIST INJURED

Mrs. Carl Perkins, sixty-four, of this place, was treated at St. Joseph's hospital Saturday for an injury of the right wrist suffered in a fall.

Local Garage Was Robbed Tuesday Nite

HASSINGER & RISSER'S PLACE OF BUSINESS LOOTED - TOOLS, RADIO, CIGARS, CIGARETTES STOLEN - ENTRANCE A MYSTERY

After ten o'clock, closing time, the garage of Hassinger & Risser, Main and New Haven streets, here, was robbed Tuesday night. Just how they gained admission is as yet unsolved. The presumption is they entered before closing time and remained in seclusion until the employees departed. They left thru a rear door.

The Loot

Tools to the amount of $60, a table radio, cigars and cigarettes to the value of $35 were stolen. The hoods on a number of cars were raised and some wires torn loose. Drawers in the office opened and the contents strewn about the floor.

The robbery was not discovered until Mr. Sheaffer, a mechanic, reported for duty next morning.

Office Zerphey is working on the case.

NEW RESTAURANT

Mr. Benjamin Horst has opened a restaurant at 124 Mount Joy St., the former Brand Bros. stand, and solicits a share of your patronage. He will sell sandwiches, soft drinks, tobacco, cigars, cigarettes etc.

Mortuary Record For Past Week

MANY OF OUR BEST KNOWN PEOPLE HAVE PASSED TO THAT GREAT BEYOND WITHIN THE PAST WEEK

Hugh McCall, 77, died at Columbia.

Elizabeth, wife of Edward Aston, died at Columbia aged 35 years.

Mrs. Maud Layman, 59, widow of Charles Layman, died at Marietta.

Charles S. Yeager, 74, veteran publisher of the Ephrata Review, died Tuesday at the Lancaster General Hospital. He was a publisher for the past 55 years.

CLAYTON BRANDT

Clayton Brandt, fifty-seven of Elizabethtown, died at 10:30 o'clock Saturday night of pneumonia at the Lancaster General hospital.

MISS EDITH AMANDA EICHLER

Miss Edith Amanda Eichler, twenty, daughter of John and Edith Inners Eichler, of Florin, died of complications at her home.

Besides her parents, she is survived by one brother, Thomas W., (Turn to page 6)

Graduates As Dr. of Vet Med.

Charles B. Frank son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Frank, of near town, received a degree as Doctor of Veterinary Medicine at the annual commencement exercises of the University of Pennsylvania held at the Municipal Auditorium in Philadelphia Wednesday, June 15.

While in School Charles was an active member of the Ornego San Signia Fraternity and also a member of the Junior American Veterinary Medical Association.

He has been appointed Senior Field Veterinarian, in the Bureau of Animal Industry, for the ratification of Tuberculosis. He will be stationed at Easton, Pa., and will resume his duties July 5th.

Charles was a graduate of the class of 1933 of Mount Joy High School.

SEVERAL LOCAL RELIEF VISITORS ARE LISTED

Persons eligible for appointments as visitors for the Assistance Boards of eight counties were certified to local boards by the Employment Board of the Department of Public Assistance.

Those from this locality are: Mary Brunner Graybill, East Petersburg; Esther E. Lindemuth, Mount Joy R. 1; Sara Brandt Hershey, Florin; Earl B. Walters, Mt. Joy R. 1; Florence R. Vaughan, Mt. Joy; Glenn Neim Gainer, Elizabethtown; Marguerite S. Kelly, Marietta.

ELIZABETHTOWN WOMAN COMMITTED SUICIDE

Mrs. Martha McCloud, fifty-eight, was found dead at 5:30 p. m. Tuesday in the kitchen of her home, 58 Park Street, Elizabethtown. The room was filled with gas from three open stove jets, according to Frank S. Miller, deputy coroner, who issued a verdict of suicide by gas.

LADIES WILL PICNIC

The ladies of the First Presbyterian church of Mount Joy will hold their annual picnic at the Cove near town, Saturday afternoon, June 25, at three o'clock. The committee arranging the affair includes Mrs. Paul Stoner, Mrs. Elwin March, Mrs. Frank Walters and Mrs. Simon P. Nissley.

DRIVER PROSECUTED

Pauline Brown, of Harrisburg, was prosecuted Tuesday by Chief of Police Elmer Zerphey, before Justice of the Peace Arthur R. Hendrix, on a charge of improper passing.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Brubaker Tendered Wedding Reception

A wedding reception was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome H. Brubaker, Saturday June 18, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abram G. Brubaker near Erisman's Church.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jerome H. Brubaker, Miss Floy Royer, Mrs. Robert Eshleman, Mr. and Mrs. Alpheus Ginder, Mr. and Mrs. Abram Brubaker, Misses Rachel and Anna Grace Ginder, Rev. and Mr. John D. Brubaker, Mrs. Lizzie Risser, Paul Risser, Mayme Risser, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weidman, Mr. Reuben Shearer, Mr.

OUR LEGION AUXILIARY ENTERTAINED GIRL SCOUTS

On Monday afternoon the local Girl Scout Troop, were entertained by the American Legion Auxiliary, when they visited the Wheatland and then enjoyed a picnic luncheon at Long's Park.

Members of the troop who enjoyed the trip were: Misses Elizabeth Heilig and Mildred Zink; Leaders, Nancy Joanne Brown, Anita Warta, Sara Fellenbaum, Mary Resch, Patsy Groff, Vera Eby, Justine Darrenkamp, Janice Zink, Joan Bailey, Betty Jane Gemberling, Joan Schneider, Nancy Ellis, Frances Reed, Jean Zimmerman, Christine Weidman and Mary Lou Ellis.

Auxiliary Members: Mrs. Clarence Newcomer, Mrs. Albert Myers, Mrs. Fanny Zeller, Mrs. Clyde Eshleman, Mrs. Sara Morris, Mrs. John Longenecker, Mrs. Rae Brown and Miss Esther Henry.

Many Steers Exhibited At Annual Show

130 BABY BEEVES ON DISPLAY AT LANCASTER STOCK YARDS WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY

About 130 head of steers are being exhibited at the Lancaster Stock Yards yesterday and today.

Forty-seven girls and 73 youths have registered for the show to date. Gold wrist watches will be awarded the boy and girl whose steers are judged best in their respective divisions.

Members of the club from this immediate neighborhood are as follows: Richard H. Kauffman, Robert H. Kauffman, J. Harold Kauffman, Jr., Erna H. Kauffman, all of Manheim R. D. 2; Walter Good, Rohrerstown; D. Virginia Nissley, M. Irene Nissley, Hiram W. Nissley, all of Manheim, R. D. 1.

Irvin White, Melvin Peifer, of (Turn to page 3)

CHURCH OF THE BRETHREN BIBLE SCHOOL, JULY 18 TO 30

The Bible School Committee of the Church of the Brethren wish to announce that detailed preparations have been made for our Bible School to be held the last two weeks in July, the 18th to the 30th. The School will convene five days a week, open at 9:00 o'clock and close at 11:30 Daylight Saving Time. All children, 4 years old and older, all young people, and adults are cordially invited to come and enjoy the school with us.

THE LOCAL DELEGATES

The First Presbyterian church here sent nine representatives to the Westminster Bible Conference at Chestnut Level from June 18 to 26. The delegates are: Mary Belle Potter, Mabel Detwiler, Arlene Milligan, Mary Hostetter, Eleanor Stoner, Jeannette Potter, Frank Walter, William Workman and James Workman.

CAUGHT 149 FISH

Mr. Harry Beamesderfer enjoyed a fishing trip to Bowers Beach recently. The catch included 149 fish.

Court Proceedings During Past Week

THE MUMMAS WANT JUDGMENT STRICKEN OFF - RUSSELL SCHATZ GETS FOURTEEN MONTHS - AUTOIST PLEADS GUILTY

Appended are various court matters of local interest:

Rule Made Absolute

A rule for more specific statement was made absolute in the case of Robert Solomon, Harrisburg, who sued David Y. Stauffer, Elizabethtown R. D. 1, for $15,000 as the result of an automobile accident July 18, 1937. Solomon claimed, among other injuries, loss of vision.

Autoist Plead Guilty

W. J. Nelson, sixty-four, Salunga, arrested by State Motor Policeman Klatt for drunken driving on May 21 following a minor collision, offered no defense. He plead guilty in court and paid a fine of $200 and costs.

J. M. Peifer's Story

Jacob M. Peifer, Salunga, arrested by State Motor Policeman Earl

FIRE COMPANY AUXILIARY MET THURSDAY EVENING

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of Friendship Fire Company, was held on Thursday evening in the Fire House with twenty-six members and three visitors present.

The Ladies will participate in a parade on July 16th, at Middletown, in celebration of an anniversary of one of the Fire Companies. Mrs. Anna Mumper was appointed by the president to succeed the late Mrs. Cohen on the Memorial Committee.

Mrs. Anna Geib, introduced death assessments, but the Ladies decided not to take action until a later date.

The Ladies purchased a white banner with Maroon and gold letters for the Firemen.

Mrs. D. H. S. Derr, gave a report on the Churchtown Auxiliary meeting which she visited recently.

A motion was passed to purchase a few more uniforms. After the meeting adjourned a "dutch luncheon" was enjoyed by the attendance.

MRS. J. J. HERR ENTERTAINED THE MARIETTA GARDEN CLUB

Mrs. John J. Herr, Columbia Ave. entertained the Marietta Garden Club at her home Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. B. Scott Fritz, president, presided with Mrs. Addie Parker as Secretary. The June Flower Show held by the club was discussed as well as plans for the Fall Flower Show. An informal discussion followed of annuals, perennials and bi-annuals for our own gardens in which all present took part. After the business meeting refreshments were served by the hostess. Guests who were present were: Mrs. Brown, of Lancaster; Miss Esther Henry of Mount Joy and Miss Alice Everett, of Philadelphia. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Mary Shank, Rowenna, July 14.

4-H LAMB MEMBERS VISIT BAINBRIDGE FARM

Red Rose 4-H Lamb Club members will attend a demonstration on drenching and blocking by William B. Connell, State livestock specialist, at Abner K. Risser's farm in Bainbridge, Friday evening.

Feeding and management of lambs also was discussed. The club is raising lambs for exhibit for sale at the Mount Joy Community Show next October.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Paul F. Zerphey and Virginia Miller, both of Mt. Joy.

Another counterfeit bill turned up at a Lancaster bank.

Keller following with a car driven by S. Kenneth McElroy, Wrightsville, at Silver Springs on May 12, told Inspector John H. Millard that he sent his operator's cards to Harrisburg in reply to summons from the State authorities. He said he paid a fine of $200 and costs on charges of drunken driving before Judge Atlee.

Man Fined; Woman Jailed

Norman Bemesderfer, of town, charged with fornication, and Ellen Dodenhoef Zink, charged with adultery, were found guilty by a jury which heard their joint trial before Judge Atlee. Bemesderfer was ordered to pay a fine of $100 and costs, and Mrs. Zink was sent to the county prison for six months and fined $25 and costs.

Prosecution was brought by Irvin Zink, who said he and Ellen Dodenhoef were married March 23, 1921, and separated in November, 1937. Mrs. Zink said she visited "Squire Hollobush's office at Mount Joy November 12, 1920, to obtain (Turn to page 3)

173 Enrolled In Community Bible School

VARIOUS DEPARTMENT PICNICS WILL CONCLUDE TWO WEEKS OF WORK HERE FOR STUDENTS FROM OUR VARIOUS CHURCHES

Tomorrow (Friday) is the last day of the Community Vacation Bible School, being conducted in our Grade School building the past two weeks, with an enrollment of one hundred seventy-three.

On Tuesday afternoon the Intermediate Department held their picnic at the Cove, while on Wednesday afternoon the Kindergarten picniced on the lawn of Evangelical Congregational Church. The Primary Depts 1 and 2 and Junior Depts 1 and 2 will picnic at the Cove Friday afternoon.

Friday evening at seven o'clock will mark the end of the splendid session of the Bible School, at (Continued on page 2)

SUNBEAM CLASS ENJOYED PICNIC AT COVE LAST THURS.

The Sunbeam class of the U. B. Church, enjoyed a picnic at the Cove last Thursday.

Prizes were won by Romaine Brown in Cupid Says; Ella Mae Zink, Treasurer Hunt; Mildred Barrick and Anna Rohrer in Running Race and Irene Kuhn, Guessing Contest. The games were planned by Dorothy Schatz.

A picnic luncheon was greatly enjoyed by the following: Betsy Bigler, Loretta Wittle, Romaine Brown, Mary Zerphey, Ella Mae Zink, Dorothy Schatz, Mildred Barrick, Florence Pennell, Anna Rohrer, Jean Neiss, Irene Kuhn, Vera Eby; Teacher, Anna Mae Eby.

BIBLE SCHOOL DEMONSTRATION

The Community Vacation Bible School of Landisville will present their demonstration program in the Church of God on Sunday evening, June 26, at 7 o'clock S. T.

Miss Maud Parsons, an outgoing Missionary to China will be the guest speaker.

IMPROPER PASS

Pauline Brown, of Harrisburg, was prosecuted by Officer Elmer Zerphey before Justice of the Peace Hendrix for improper passing.

Nevin Conklin died and was buried at Lancaster. He was well known here as he was employed as a baker for many years by the late Christ Eby, of town.

BRIDAL PARTY SUPPER - BAIRD - FITZKEE ENTERTAINED

Miss Joyce L. Hawthorne, of Bainbridge, Pa., entertained the bridal party of Miss Janet M. Fitzkee, bride elect and Charles B. Baird, of Philadelphia, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Hawthorne at a candle-light supper on Friday evening at 9 o'clock. The table decorations were pink roses, babies breath and white tapers. The guests were: Miss Fitzkee, Mr. Baird, Miss Mary Baird, Earl Baird, Kenneth Baird, of Philadelphia; Rev. Wm. J. Coulter, Neal Bachman and Edward Fitzkee of Bainbridge; Miss Hawthorne was matron of honor and Kenneth Baird was best man at the wedding ceremony performed in the Methodist Episcopal Church (the following day) on Saturday afternoon, The Rev. Coulter officiating.

Longenecker - Chambers Wedding

NUPTIAL KNOT TIED IN ST. LUKE'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH BY RECTOR REV. WATTS

Miss Mary Alice Longenecker daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Oliver G. Longenecker, on Marietta st., and Francis S. Chambers, Jr., of Woodbury, New Jersey, son of Dr. and Mrs. Francis S. Chambers, of 446 North Duke street, Lancaster were married Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock at St. Luke's Episcopal church, here, with the Rev. William J. Watts, rector, officiating. The bride was attended by Mrs. Robert W. Baker of Tulsa, Oklahoma, who was her college roommate as matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Hause, of Philadelphia, Miss Virginia (Turn to page 4)

LOCAL FISHERMEN CAUGHT 300 AT BOWERS BEACH

A very enjoyable and successful fishing trip to Bowers Beach Delaware was enjoyed by a party from town Sunday, June 20th. The party caught 300 fish even though the weaker sex was in majority and the water rough. In the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kunkel, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Eshleman, Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Newcomer, Miss Katharine Everett and Miss Elizabeth Rowe, graduate nurses for University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia. Surprising to Bob Kunkel was the fact that his wife did not get sea sick and caught more fish than he did.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Warta attended the commencement exercises at Temple University, Philadelphia, last Thursday. Their daughter, Miss Gloria was a member of the graduating class. Miss Warta will teach in the Upper Leacock Consolidated School in the Fall.

BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. James Snyder, announce the birth of a daughter Joan Dolores on Tuesday, June 14th.

Forty-one 10-gallon cans of milk were spilled when a truck ran into a pole near the Bareville grade.

Local Plant Piped Dye Water To The Little Chickies Creek

That same old story about George Brown Sons dumping their dye water into the Little Chickies creek, has been made an issue for the past months.

M. A. Rollman, who owns land on both sides of the creek, made a complaint at Harrisburg for numerous reasons.

The Browns were before the State Sanitary Water Board several times in a supposedly effort to correct the violation. This firm pours its dye water into the Penna. Railroad Company's surface drain-

Former Grads Meet Thursd'y Ann'l Session

HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION PROGRAM INCLUDES BANQUET, BUSINESS MEETING AND OTHER ENTERTAINMENT

The Mount Joy High School Alumni Association will hold its annual reunion and banquet at the high school, this evening at 7:45 o'clock. A short business meeting will precede the banquet, which is scheduled for 8 o'clock.

Will Extend Greetings

J. Harold Backenstoe, president of the association, will extend greetings to the group. The graduating class will be presented to the association by W. E. Nitrauer, supervising principal of the Mount Joy schools. Catharine Zeller will speak for this year's class at the banquet.

Geo. Brown To Preside George Brown, II, will preside at (Turn to page 2)

SLIGHT FIRE MONDAY

Fire, believed to have been started by children at play, swept across about a quarter of an acre of dried grass and weeds at the rear of the Eli Ament garage, here, at noon Monday.

The field, owned by Harry Hossler, Mount Joy, R. D. 1, was not under cultivation. The Friendship Fire company extinguished the blaze.

ESTATES ADJUDICATED

Hosea Givler, late of Manheim, balance $6,376.06. George S. Rhoads, Lizzie E. Rhoads, Susanna S. Brandt and Anna L. Rhoads, late of East Donegal township balance $9,454.47.

The Affairs In General Briefly Told

INTERESTING HAPPENINGS FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTRY FOR THE BENEFIT OF THOSE WHO HAVE LITTLE TIME TO READ

Summer began Tuesday.

A man at Neffsville caught two weasels in a trap. A pair of twin tables sold at $40 each at a sale at Lancaster Saturday.

The offices of Gilliland laboratories at Marietta were looted but little was obtained.

Robbers got only $1.00 for their trouble of breaking into the post-office at Rothsville.

After he made good Roy Shissler, Elizabethtown R. 3 was discharged for passing a bad check.

Miss Dorothy Kaylor has enrolled for the summer session at Millersville State Teachers College.

Joseph Jacobs, 26, Lancaster, went on a rampage there and completely demolished the interior of Sheetz's candy store.

Wm. H. Zoller, Brickerville, was killed and his wife hurt while sitting on their porch when an auto ran through the fence and across their porch.

Robbers got only $1.00 for their trouble of breaking into the post-office at Rothsville. After he made good Roy Shissler, Elizabethtown R. 3 was discharged for passing a bad check. Miss Dorothy Kaylor has enrolled for the summer session at Millersville State Teachers College. Joseph Jacobs, 26, Lancaster, went on a rampage there and completely demolished the interior of Sheetz's candy store. Wm. H. Zoller, Brickerville, was killed and his wife hurt while sitting on their porch when an auto ran through the fence and across their porch.

That same old story about George Brown Sons dumping their dye water into the Little Chickies creek, has been made an issue for the past months.

M. A. Rollman, who owns land on both sides of the creek, made a complaint at Harrisburg for numerous reasons.

The Browns were before the State Sanitary Water Board several times in a supposedly effort to correct the violation. This firm pours its dye water into the Penna. Railroad Company's surface drain-