Mt. Joy's Community Exhibit Will Be Bigger And Better This Year

MOST UP-TO-THE-MINUTE WEEKLY IN LANCASTER COUNTY

The Mount Joy Bulletin

VOL. XXXVIII NO. 18 | MOUNT JOY, PA., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 29th, 1938 | $1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

Thirty Persons Attend Faculty Corn Roast

Members of the faculty of the Grade School and the High School held a corn roast at the Eli Hostetter Banquet Room, Thursday evening thirty persons were present.

Those in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nitrauer, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stauffer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Hostetter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gladfelter, Mrs. Elizabeth Humphreys, Miss Edna Martin, Miss Dorothy Seldomridge, Miss Martha Swartz, Miss Elizabeth Patterson, Miss Isobel Cox, Miss Elizabeth Heilig, Miss Mildred Zink, Miss Irene Ibach, Miss Ruth Shellenberger, Miss Miriam Butzer, Miss Helen Phillips, C. Casper Kreider, Josef Krasley, Miss Evelyn Kraybill, Earl Kochenour, Miss Ethel Moore, Miss Edna Charles and W. G. Diffenderfer.

Florin Man Is Arrested In An Auto Crash

W. S. Eichler, of Florin, was arrested by Chief of Police Elmer Zerphy, of town on a charge of failing to stop after an accident on West Main street, at 4:30 a.m. Sunday.

According to Chief Zerphy, a car operated by Eichler collided with a milk truck operated by John J. Herr, of town, and failed to stop. Clarence Paules, of Mt. Joy R. D. 1, who was riding with him, suffered a leg injury and was treated at the office of Dr. D. C. Stoner, Chief Zerphey said Herr obtained the license number of the Eichler auto as it sped away.

Eichler posted bail for a hearing before Justice of the Peace Arthur R. Hendrix.

ROBBERY AT IRONVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Musser, of Ironville, reported that thieves entered their home sometime Sunday evening while they were away and ransacked the house. Several dollars, a gold watch and a number of check and bank books were stolen. Entrance is believed to have been gained with a skeleton key.

Many Realty Sales During Past Week

Nauman Farm Sold

A 32-acre farm located two miles north of Manheim sold for $133 an acre and was purchased by William Saylor, of that vicinity. The place was sold for the widow and heirs of Milton Nauman, deceased. E. V. Spahr was auctioneer.

Besides 2-story house and barn equipped with tobacco cellar and stripping room, the place contains some fruit trees, meadow and woodland.

Farm Brings $16,506

A 62-acre farm along the road leading from East Petersburg to the Harrisburg pike was sold Thursday by John R. Cassel, trustee of the estate of the late Harry R. Cassel, at a price of $263 an acre. John J. Landis, of near East Petersburg, the purchaser, paid approximately $16,506 for the property, which contains a two-story dwelling house, a frame barn, a tobacco shed and other buildings. Elmer Spahr was the auctioneer, and Zimmerman, Myers and Kready the attorneys

A two and one-half story dwelling house in East Petersburg, was sold from the same estate to Clyde Weaver, of East Petersburg, for $3,965.

LANDISVILLE MAN JAILED

James Schopf, twenty-six, Landisville, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct by Constable Cunningham, was jailed for thirty days following a hearing before Justice of the Peace Steigerwalt Tuesday. He was arrested after causing a disturbance Monday.

CONFERENCE IN SESSION

The annual conference of the United Brethren churches is being held at Annville. It closes today.

A Modern Cold Storage Locker Plant For Boro

It's The Modern Way Of Preserving Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Etc.

S. A. Horton Conceived The Idea And Is Instrumental In Getting Enterprise Established

After considering several locations in this vicinity, the Consumer's Ice and Coal Company, of Lancaster, is going to build a modern cold storage Locker Plant in Mount Joy.

Mr. S. A. Horton, of the Mount Joy Farmers Dairy, conceived the initial idea of introducing the individual cold storage lockers to Mount Joy and is most active in the accomplishment of this enterprise at the present time.

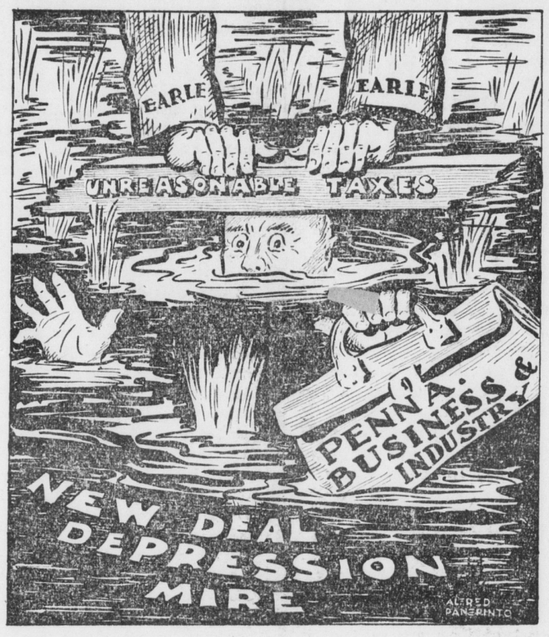
The plant will be located on the same plot as the Mount Joy Farmers Dairy.

Plans are nearly completed and construction will be started in the near future.

The building 50x32 feet will contain 535 individual storage lockers, 18"x20"x30." These lockers will be placed five high in rows. There will also be a meat processing room, office, a holding room, quick freeze room to freeze meat, fruits and vegetables rapidly before

(Turn to page 6)

HELP!



The Loss At Our Recent Fire Was Nearly $60,000

Seven Fire Companies Pumped Water Over Fifteen Hours

They Used 105 Gals. Of Gas, 560 Gals. Chemical And Laid 6,850 Feet Of Hose

Chief Ray Myers, Friendship Fire Company No. 1, has prepared the following report on the big fire here two weeks ago when Mr. Clarence Schock's lumber yard, planning mill and two dwellings were completely destroyed by fire. This report will be presented to the Company and Boro Council at their next meetings and also sent to the State Department.

Report of lumber yard fire, Sept. 3, 1938:

Lumber yard and buildings	$33,764.00
Contents of lumber yard	18,700.00
Schocks double house	1,700.00
Henry King loss to contents	1,000.00
Theodore Jackson loss to contents	300.00
U. B. Church loss to building	600.00
Penna. Railroad loss to car	200.00
Penna. Railroad loss to contents	1,568.20
I. D. Stehman loss to buildings	275.00

(Turn to page 2)

Mrs. Musser Hostess T... Farm Women

Farm Women's Society No. 8, met on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Musser, Mt. Joy R. D., with twenty persons present. Devotions were in charge of Mrs. Warren Chapman. A nominating committee consisting of Miss Fannie Heisey, chairman, Mrs. Nathan Greiner and Mrs. Clarence Reist, was named. Miss Anna Keller gave a brief report on the flower show held recently at Lancaster by the Iris club.

The Longenecker trio sang several selections. Three reels of motion pictures sent out by the Speakers Bureau were shown, "A Day With the Visiting Nurse," "A Broken Home," and "Work In a City Hospital."

Miss Iva Godshalk, of Landisville, representing the Society For the Prevention of Cancer, gave a talk on cancer.

The next meeting will be held at the home of the Misses Anna Mae and Ruth Eby, of Mt. Joy, R. D., on Saturday, October 15.

Ladies Bible Class Held Its Reg. Meeting

The Ladies Bible Class of the Evangelical Church held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Morton, on New Haven St., last Thursday night.

The meeting opened with the Scripture by Mrs. Nevin Bachman; Prayer—Mrs. George Myers; Song by the Class; Secretary's Report followed by the business meeting. A dainty luncheon was then served by the hostess.

Those present were: Mrs. Nevin Bachman, Mrs. Katie Workman, Mrs. Earl Kaylor, Mrs. Harry Weidman and daughter, Miss Ellie Eshleman, Mrs. Harry Kaylor, Mrs. Harry Walters, Mrs. Haug, Mrs. Fred Leiberher, Mrs. George Heiseman, Mrs. Alex Kramer, Mrs. George Myers, Mrs. Boyd Bishop, Mrs. Leggo, Beverly Ann Myers and Mrs. Charles Morton.

The Class decided to hold their annual banquet tonight (Thursday) at Diff's Place, west of Elizabethtown. A sumptous chicken dinner will be served. It is expected that approximately thirty ladies will attend.

Dr. H. K. Ober Figures In Auto Mishap

HIS CAR ROLLED OVER SEVERAL TIMES BUT FORTUNATELY HE ESCAPED INJURY—AUTO WAS BADLY WRECKED

Dr. H. K. Ober, president of Elizabethtown College and Anthony Alonzo, sixteen, of Youngstown, Ohio, a member of the Premier Octet which presented a concert in Lancaster Thursday night, suffered minor injuries and shock when a car operated by Dr. Ober rolled over several times following a collision on the road between Mastersonville and Elstonville at 5:30 p. m. Saturday.

State Motor Policeman C. J. Beaver, of the sub-station, said he learned that Dr. Ober and the youth were enroute to Reading where the latter was scheduled to appear. Dr. Ober's auto collided with an auto operated by James E. Rohrer, of Manheim R. D. 3, the officer said.

Dr. Ober, Private Beaver said, immediately left for Reading after leaving his identification cards on the scene. Police said his auto was wrecked but the Rohrer car was only slightly damaged.

Dr. Ober was prosecuted by State Motor Policeman Beaver on a charge of reckless driving.

REPOINTING THE TOWER

The Lutheran Church on West Main Street is undergoing extensive repairs to the exterior. Scaffolding has been built from the ground to the top of the tower by Hoffer Brothers, of Elizabethtown, for the purpose of repointing the same.

The roof is being repaired by Mr. Elson, of Lancaster.

NOW HE'S A SOLDIER

George Wahl, of town, left for New York City, Wednesday, where he will board a boat for Hawaii as a soldier in the United States Army.

FRIENDS AND MEMBERS ENJOY FELLOWSHIP SUPPER

On Wednesday evening, September 28, the friends and members of the Methodist Episcopal Church enjoyed a fellowship supper. The purpose of this gathering was to provide a social time for all those interested in this Church.

The highlight of the evening was the moving pictures of Mr. J. I. Hoffman, of Coatesville. The pictures included a thrilling ride up in the bucket at Mt. Rushmore, battles of the wasps, rodeos, round-ups, branding and many beautiful pictures in natural color.

Mrs. Helen Horton was in charge of the dinner.

MR. BRANDT SPOKE

Mervin W. Brandt, principal of the Grade school, addressed the Rotary club, Tuesday noon on the topic, "The Present European Crisis." Twenty-seven members and four visitors were present. Visitors present were: Frank Sener and L. J. Vandergrift of Lancaster, Harry Revare of Harrisburg, and B. S. Reed.

ADJUDICATIONS FILED

These adjudications were filed in local estates:

Eli Brubaker, late of West Donegal township, $2,841.54.

Henry M. Shelly, late of Mt. Joy township, $591.59.

11th ANNUAL REUNION

The eleventh annual reunion of the Elm Tree school will be held there Thursday evening, Oct. 13 at 7:15. A very interesting program which we will publish later, is now being arranged.

SAUER KRAUT SUPPER

The Needle Guild of Trinity Lutheran Church will hold a Sauer Kraut supper in the Church House, on Saturday, Oct. 15th from five to nine P. M.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Miss Emma Ellis returned to her home on East Main Street, on Tuesday, from the Lancaster General Hospital where she underwent an appendectomy.

Sentence Is Delayed For Anoth'r Week

C. Earl Newcomer, thirty, Salunga, convicted at the September term of court on charges of involuntary manslaughter and failure to stop and render assistance, through his attorney, W. Hensel Brown, asked the Lancaster Co. Court for another week to decide whether motions for a new trial will be filed.

Judge Schaeffer consented, but at the request of District Attorney Charles W. Eaby ordered Newcomer to post new bail in the amount of $2,000. The defendant's father, Mervin Newcomer, signed the bond.

Newcomer was convicted on charges brought by Chief of Police Charles Hollinger, of Manheim, in the hit-run death of C. Raymond Geib, Manheim, a pedestrian who was injured fatally in the Manheim public square on March 11.

In asking for another week's delay, Attorney Brown said: "We wish to have another week to study whether we will file reasons for a new trial. We will file reasons for a new trial at the beginning of next week or not at all. If we do not file a motion, we will have Newcomer in court for sentence next Friday."

Brief News Of The Day From Local Dailies

BUSY FOLKS CAN KEEP POSTED BY GLANCING AT THIS COLUMN OF CONDENSED NEWS ITEMS

At Wickford, R. I., a man ate 48 eggs on a bet.

The Reading R. R. closed its passenger station at Middletown.

A hosiery mill to employ 125 people will locate at Middletown.

At Adamstown a jet black cat gave birth to a litter of pure white kittens.

A guest thrown by a riding horse at Hershey, has sued the Hershey Estates for $50,000 damages.

There were 5301 poultry entries at the Allentown fair last week, the largest on record. Many were refused.

The Government will pay $1,560.00 per month rent for a building at Reading until the new postoffice is completed.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Jacob Nelson Weidman, Elizabethtown, and Hazel Irene Kaylor of this boro.

Paul N. Herneisen and Vivian G. Berntheizel, both of Rapho, were granted a marriage license.

Activities At East Donegal High School

The classes of East Donegal Twp. High School have organized and the Seniors have elected Arthur Wolgemuth, president; David L. Hess, vice president; Mary Geibe, secretary; and Anna Landis, treasurer. They have a membership of 47.

The Jolly Juniors have not yet organized, but they have a nice sized class of 51.

The Sophomores beat the Juniors by having one more pupil. Wilmer Heisey was chosen president, Martin Barr, vice president, Raphael Nies, secretary, and Mary Heisey, treasurer.

The Freshman can boast of the

(Turn to page 4)

A COVERED DISH SOCIAL HELD AT FRANK SCHOCK'S

The Needle Guild of Trinity Lutheran Church, held a covered Dish Social on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schock.

After a delicious supper, games were played and prizes won by Elizabeth Heilig and Clyde Eshleman.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Batzel, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Harcelroth, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Eshleman, Mr. and Mrs. Lesley Rice, Rev. and Mrs. Koder and son, Peter, Mrs. Jay Nissly, Mrs. Howard Barnhart, Mrs. Irvin Smith, Mrs. Grant Marshall, Mr. Wm. Heilig and daughters, Pauline and Elizabeth, Miss Mildred Zink, Miss Dorothy Schock, Mr. and Mrs. Franck Schock.

MR. AND MRS. G. SPITLER ENTERTAIN MANY GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gerber were the oldest folks and Mrs. Martha Sauders, was the next to the eldest guest present recently, when Mr. and Mrs. Christ Gerber and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Spittler entertained at their home near Hosslers Church.

The folks who were so pleasantly entertained were: Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gerber, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Eaby and son, Bennie, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Eby, Mrs. Martha Sauders, Lillie Sauders, Mrs. Luella Witmer, Harold Eaby, Evelyn Gerber, Mrs. Amos Sipling and daughter, Alice, all of Mt. Joy.

MANY ENTRIES BOOKED

Mr. Ammon Bucher, chairman of the Horse Show committee, reports that already thiry entries are booked for the show at Manheim Saturday, Oct. 1. There are fifteen head from Rapho. Stallions, brood mares, colts foaled in 1937 representing Percheron, Belgian and Suffolk breeds are represented. Judging will start at 10 A. M.

HELD A FITTING AND SHOWING DEMONSTRATION

M. M. Smith, assistant county agent, conducted a "fitting and showing" demonstration at a combined meeting of the Red Rose 4-H Pig and Lamb clubs at the farm of H. B. Endslow, Marietta RD 1, Tuesday evening.

This was the last meeting before the clubs stage their final round-up during the community farm show at Mount Joy.

POULTRYMEN ON TOUR

Thursday a large number of poultrymen made a tour of inspection thru this section of the county. Among the farms visited were Masonic Homes, Elizabethtown; A. M. Wolgemuth and Alvin Reist, near town; Ammon H. Bucher, Sporting Hill and Harvey D. Sheaffer near Bellaire.

Mortuary Record For Past Week

MANY OF OUR BEST KNOWN PEOPLE HAVE PASSED TO THAT GREAT BEYOND WITHIN THE PAST WEEK

Charles E. Hull, 70, of Columbia, died Saturday.

Clara R. Eisenberger, 73, formerly of Marietta, died at Gettysburg.

Mrs. Annie E. Hartman, 77, wife of John H. Hartman, died at Columbia.

Adam M. Stark, 70, Lancaster band and orchestra leader, died Thursday.

Mrs. Barbara Peifer, 62, of Elizabethtown, died at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Mary Wilhelm, 22 was found dead on the bed room floor at her home in Lancaster.

Mrs. Fannie Taylor Metzgar, 78,

(Turn to page 6)

P. P. & L's NEW CLERK

Miss Helen Dillinger accepted a position in the office of the Pennsylvania Power and Light Company, West Main Street.

Court Matters Around Here For The Week

Walter K. Young, agreed to pay $5 a week to his wife, Violet Young, 322 South Prince street, for the support of four children.

Joseph F. McKonly, Hatboro, Pa., agreed to pay $2.50 a week to his wife, Mary E. McKonly, Elizabethtown.

ONE CASE CLEARED UP; HELD FOR COURT IN OTHER

Ervin Max, proprietor of the Lincoln Bowling alley, East Main street, who was arrested last week, was given a hearing Tuesday before Justice Hendrix.

He plead guilty on the charge of operating a bowling alley on Sunday and paid a fine of $10.00 and cost of prosecution.

On the charge of operating a pool room without a license, he was held under bail until the next term of Quarter Sessons Court.

CO. FIREMEN'S ASSOCIATION AT ROTHSVILLE FRIDAY NITE

The regular monthly meeting of the Lancaster County Firemen's Association will be held in the Rothsville Church, at Rothsville, Friday, September 30th at 8 P. M. The address of welcome will be delivered by F. F. Bailey of Rothsville. The address of the evening will be delivered by Rev. Elmer Truchses, Pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Church, Lititz. A program of entertainment has also been arranged.

Lester Koser Has Fractured Skull

While returning to his home on the Benjamin Garber farm Tuesday, Lester Koser met with an accident. A team of horses ran away and he was badly injured. He is unconscious in the hospital at Lancaster and is in a serious condition, suffering from a fractured skull.

Local Affairs In General Briefly Told

INTERESTING HAPPENINGS FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTRY FOR THE BENEFIT OF THOSE WHO HAVE LITTLE TIME TO READ

Mrs. Harry Charles, is on the sick list.

This is the week of Columbia's sesquicentennial.

The women at Bainbridge have formed a G. O. P. club.

Five cases of chicken-pox developed at Lancaster last week.

Farm shows are being held at Manheim and Millersville this week.

Thieves stole a barrel and three cases of beer from the Columbia Cafe.

Cyrus Hinkle, Columbia, stepped out of the bathtub, fell and broke his arm.

Seventy-five chickens were stolen from Edward Miller, farmer near Gap.

The Marietta Garden Club will hold its fall flower show next Tuesday, Oct. 4.

Elmer Waughtel, 44, Lancaster, was arrested for chiseling $277.60 out of the relief.

(Turn to page 6)

BEING "DOLLED UP"

That "busy store around the corner", D. B. Brubaker's Department Store, is being beautified by a new paint job.

Newcomer's Hardware Store is likewise receiving a painting on the exterior.

MEETING AT ANNVILLE

The annual convention of the United Brethren in Christ, the 139th, is being held at Annville this week.

The U. B. Good Cheer Class Entertained Tuesday Evening

Mrs. Robert Hostetter, Mrs. Paris Hostetter, and Mrs. Alvin Bigler entertained the Good Cheer class of the United Brethren Church on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Robert Hostetter. Scripture was read by Mrs. Russel Geiss, followed by prayer by Mrs. Harmon. Two readings were given by Mrs. Joseph Habecker and Mrs. Forest Rarick. During the business session the class decided to hold their Hallowe'en party at the home of Mrs. Russell Geiss. Refreshments were served to the following: Mrs. Joseph Habecker, Mrs. Paul Frey, Mrs. Margaret Harmon, Mrs. Curtis Reisch, Mrs. Paul Alexander, Mrs. Russell Geiss, Mrs. Frank Germer, Mrs. Dewey Hornafius, Mrs. Paul Hawthorne, Mrs. Warren Bentzel, Mrs. Albert Brandt, Mrs. Bruce Pennell, Mrs. Norman Sprecher, Mrs. John Schroll, Mrs. Arthur Mumma, Mrs. Ivin Bigler, Mrs. Charles Eby, Mrs. Clinton Eby, Mrs. Robert Hostetter, Mrs. Forrest Rarick, Mrs. Paris Hostetter, Misses Anna Mae Eby, Anna Barto, Alice Marie Nissly, Martha Fitzkee, Maud Schneider, Hilda Stoner, Ruth Derr.

Two Local Asbestos Victims Heard Before Referee Young

Two local employes who claim to be victims of the occupational diseases, asbestosis and pneumocomosis, appeared before Workmen's Compensation Referee A. H. Young Tuesday.

In the case of Irvin Showers, Manheim, who said he quit work last Christmas day at the Asbestos plant, at Manheim, the insurance carrier protested that he did not come under the provisions of the Occupational Diseases act because it was not effective until January 1, 1938. The other claimant, John H. Siller, of this boro, said he was forced to quit on February 16 of this year. He was also employed at the Manheim plant.

Anna C. Shearer, also of town, who also entered a claim under the Occupational Diseases act, failed to appear for her hearing. Young said he was told she was back at work.