Activities At East Donegal High School

East Donegal High School has organized its clubs in which membership is only compulsory to the junior high students.

Some of the clubs are: Hi-Y, Camera, Home Economics, Dramatics and Art. The Hi-Y is under the supervision of Mr. Robert L. Adams. This club's purpose is to maintain high standards of Christian character throughout the school and community. The officers of this club are: George Keener, president; Lloyd Stoner, vice-president; Luke Weaver, secretary; Ray Sumpman, treasurer.

Mr. Samuel F. Simmons sponsors the Camera Club whose purpose is to teach the art of developing and printing pictures. Officers of the club include: Herald Garber, president; Louisa Kopp, vice-president; Henry Haines, secretary; Jack Frank, treasurer.

Forty-six junior high girls are members of the Home Economics Club under the direction of Miss Harriette Klippel. These girls learn how to be good housekeepers and the officers are: Anna Mary Hawthorne, president; Kathryn Seifert, vice-president; Jean Hess, secretary; Betty Hawthorne, treasurer.

Miss Nancy Hendrian and Miss Margaret Campbell supervise the Dramatics Club whose name expresses the purpose of its members. Those in charge are: Esther Katharine Nies, secretary.

The Art Club is instructed by Miss Grace Henderson whose plan is to do pencil sketching, painting and charcoal work. The members doing outstanding paintings are Ralph Wittle, Ruth Wilkinson, and George Reich, who is doing a painting of the Madonna.

Hallowe'en Party
The annual Hallowe'en Party for the East Donegal High School students and faculty was held on Wednesday, in the auditorium.

The Intramural Committee sponsoring the affair included: Dr. Robert L. Adams, Miss Mary Strickler, Miss Grace Henderson and Mr. John Hart. The admission to the party is $15. An abundance of games and refreshments will be enjoyed by all.
