Metzler-Ginder

The marriage of Sadie M. Ginder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Ginder of Mastersonville, and John G. Metzler, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Walter Metzler of Elizabethtown, took place at the parsonage of the Church of God at Lisburn Cumberland county at nine o'clock, yesterday morning. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. H. Heiges. The couple were unattended.

A reception and dinner was held for the couple after the ceremony, at the home of the bridegroom. They will reside at 6 East High street Elizabethtown.

Derr-Palmer

The marriage of Miss Anna E. Palmer, daughter of H. K. Palmer, of Lancaster, and Walter H. Derr, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. S. Derr, West Main Street, took place Saturday afternoon at St. Paul's Reformed church, Numidia, Pa., in the presence of the immediate families. Rev. Carl Trexler, a fraternity brother of the bridegroom, and pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a three-piece tweed suit and a corsage of orchids. She was given away by her father and her only attendant was her niece, Barbara Ann Stumpf, who wore blue silk and carried a colonial bouquet of roses and pompons. The bridegroom was attended by Richard F. Palmer, the bride's brother. After a wedding dinner at Shartlesville, Mr. and Mrs. Derr left on a short trip and on their return will make their home in Frederick, Md.

Wolgemuth-Geib

Miss Orpha B. Geib, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elias W. Geib, of Elizabethtown R. D. 3, and Abner M. Wolgemuth, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wolgemuth, of town, were married at Chiques Church of the Brethren on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. The Rev. Samuel Eshelman, officiated. Miss Martha C. Wolgemuth, sister of the bridegroom, was maid-of-honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Florence B. Geib, sister of the bride, and Miss Arlene Heisey, cousin of the bride. Hedi Shelley, another cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

The best man was J. Musser Wolgemuth, brother of the bridegroom, and Paul Engle, Arthur Wolgemuth, Leroy Walters and Clarence Eberly were the ushers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a gown of azure blue satin designed Princess style with a heart shape collar and she carried a white Bible.

The maid-of-honor wore a gown of coral rose crepe made on Princess lines and carried yellow pompons. The bridesmaids chose gowns of rust colored crepe with bolero jackets and short puffed sleeves. They carried yellow and bronze pompons. The flower girl was dressed in a yellow gown made Princess style and carried a basket of bronze and yellow pompons.

Preceding the ceremony, the Apollo Four quartet sang several selections.

Mrs. Geib, mother of the bride, wore a gown of real blue crepe and Mrs. Wolgemuth, mother of the bridegroom, chose black crepe.

Following the ceremony, a dinner was held for members of the immediate families and bridal party, after which the couple left on a wedding trip to Florida and upon their return will reside near Florin.

The bride is a graduate of the Manheim High school, class of 1933, and the St. Joseph's Hospital, Training School for Nurses, class of 1936. She has been associated with the hospital for the past two years. The bridegroom attended Grantham college, and is associated with his brother in business at Florin.

and Miss Mary Fretz, who were later married. The newlyweds spent their honeymoon at Baltimore and Washington and upon their return were at home to friends at Hillside Farm, where they have resided the past fifty years.

The Stricklers have ten children, six grandchildren and one great grand-child. Mrs. Strickler is seventy-three years of age and Mr. Strickler seventy-two.

The former was always a "homebody" and confined her activities to her family and home.

Mr. Strickler was always an ardent horse fancier having owned several race horses that participated in races at county fair tracks. Until a few weeks ago he was the proud owner of "Leon" a five gaited saddle horse that had won ribbons at a number of horse shows. The owner astride this favorite mount was a very familiar spectacle to folks in this community. Mr. Strickler served as Supervisor of Rapho Twp. for some time and is now County Committeeman for that township.

Open House will be held from two to six P. M. on Sunday, at their home Hillside farm, when their hosts of friends and acquaintances will have an opportunity to "drop-in."

Our heartiest congratulations to these folks, on their golden anniversary, may they have many more years of happiness.
