

WORK SUSPENDED ON MOUNT GREINA PRISON

Governor James said Wednesday work has been suspended on the State's maximum security prison at Mt. Gretna pending a final decision on whether to continue its construction.

James said a decision would be reached by the General State authority board at its meeting this week. The Governor is chairman of the board.

The former Earle administration launched the project, planning an escape-proof prison to quarter

Pennsylvania's hardened criminals James in his budget message, recommended that it not be completed in order to save money.

200 CHICKS DIE IN BROODER HOUSE FIRE

Two hundred baby chicks were suffocated when fire started around the stove in a brooder house of Earl B. Krodol, Harrisburg pike, west of Florin, shortly before 6 a. m., Saturday. The Friendship Fire company was summoned and they saved about 800 chicks.

VAN'S DINER OPENS NEW SERVICENTER

Less than two months ago, Mr. "Bob" Vanderslice opened the most modern diner in this vicinity.

Now he has open to the public an up-to-the minute Esso Servicenter. The very newest and modern equipment has been installed for lubricating and crank case service. Mr. Vanderslice and his assistants spent three months of extensive work to give the motoring public the most modern lubricating facilities available.

The personnel of the service station completed a lubrication specialist course before going into service.

The "rocker car system", the very latest in lubrication, is applied, this gives the same effect in distribution as twenty miles of driving.

The station is equipped with entire glass front in the form of overhead doors. A huge drive on pit makes it possible for the customer to observe the work being done on his car at all times.

Facilities also include gas strainer cleaning equipment, motor oil, batteries, and Atlas tires and carrying a twelve months guarantee are being offered at an amazing price. Bowes tire and tube sealant repairing is another facility offered to motorists.

All these high quality products, modern equipment and fine personnel make Van's Servicenter the "tops" for motor service.

Why not give them a try?

At the committee meeting Tuesday evening in the American Legion home W. E. Nitrauer, chairman of the music committee, announced that the Lebanon Valley College girls' band will again play in the morning and the afternoon. In addition, the Middletown, Hershey and Palmyra drum corps have been secured for the parade.

Replies from several school bands have been received and at least seven are expected to be in the line of march competing for two hundred dollars in prize money. The chairman named Robert G. Hostetter, C. Casper Kreider and Miss Elizabeth Heilig on his committee.

Ray Myers, reporting for the invitation committee, announced that thirty invitations had been sent to neighboring fire companies and that a number of companies are expected to compete for the $200 in prize money being offered in this division. The prizes will be awarded as follows: for the best appearance, $60, $30 and $20; for the most men in line, $50; and for fire company auxiliaries, $25 and $15. Paul Hipple and Charles Eshleman were named on this committee.

Other committees named at the meeting Tuesday were: program committee, Clyde Eshleman, W. E. Nitrauer, Clyde E. Gerberich and Ralph Eshleman; parade committee, Frank Germer, chairman, H. O. J. Neil; traffic and parade route committee, Clarence Schock, chairman, Ray Myers, Clyde E. Gerberich, Frank Germer and Thomas Brown; publicity, W. G. Diffenderfer, chairman, John E. Schroll, Roy B. Sheetz and Lester Mumma.

The next meeting of the general committee will be held in the American Legion home, Tuesday evening, May 2, at seven-thirty.

Bradley was given a hearing before Justice Hendrix Monday and in default of a $10 fine and $2.25 costs was committed to the county jail for three days.

Norman Clark, 49, of Columbia, died Friday.

FEWER FARM FAILURES REPORTED LAST YEAR

Bankruptcies among Pennsylvania farmers for the year ending June 30, 1938 decreased nearly 36 percent from 1937. There were only 73 bankruptcies in this State in 1938 compared with 114 during the previous year.

The United States as a whole shows a 27 percent decrease from the fiscal year 1936-37. There were 1,799 farm failures reported in 1938 compared with 2,479 in 1937.

Farmer bankruptcies during that time decreased in each of the major geographic regions of the country. There were small increases, however, in a few states, including Connecticut, New York, Nebraska, West Virginia, South Carolina, Georgia, Wyoming, Arizona, Utah and Nevada. There was no change in Rhode Island, Indiana and New Mexico. All other states showed declines, the largest occurring in Alabama, with a drop from 126 in 1937 to 38 in 1938.

LOYD KLINE SPOKE TO USHERS' LEAGUE

Lloyd Kline, of Lancaster, former president of the Ushers' League of St. Mark's United Brethren church here, addressed the group at a meeting Thursday evening at the home of Norman Sprecher, on Delta Street.

Plans for the banquet for the women of the church, Tuesday April 25, in the church basement were discussed. Entertainment consisted of vocal solo by Warren Bentzel and a piano duet by Mrs. Norman Sprecher and Mrs. Arthur Sprecher.

P. P. & L. ADS AID LOCAL DEALERS

By making Mt. Joyans conscious of the value of electricity in relieving the many burdens of home-making, the Pennsylvania Power and Light Company has achieved much good though its constant advertising campaign in papers in the territory it serves, an official revealed today.

The P. P. & L. ad, which appears regularly in the Mount Joy Bulletin, serves as constant reminder that your local electrical dealer is ever at your service to supply you with appliances or advice, as the case may be, to aid in bettering life in 1939's modern electrified home.

Local Affairs In General Briefly Told

A Willow Street home was robbed of $50 in cash Sunday.

Lancaster will have its first Spring circus April 25.
