Honor Guard Keeps Watch Over Shrine

ONCE a year—on Memorial VOL. XXXVIII NO. 52 focus on a tomb in Arlington National Cemetery in Washington, D. C., on which is inscribed: "Here rests in honored glory an American soldier known but to God." That known but to God." That Parade—Exercises—Band Concerts—Carnival Slogan Prize constantly remembered, the United States Army maintains a perpetual vigil over the tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

On guard at all times is one soldier. The sentry detail includes three shifts of four men each. Each shift is on duty 12 hours, then is off duty 24. This sentry marches 30 paces a minute, keeps the post for While waiting to go on duty, this private answers the questions of two sightseers. He and the 11 others of his detail will serve for 15 days, then be replaced by new sentries.

During bad weather guards use the sentry box instead of marching back and forth before the tomb. At all other times regulations provide that sentries shall stand guard of reverence and commemoration. Each year, in this way, many visiting dignitaries pay their grateful respects to America's heroic Unknown

We Honor Those Who Died to Defend a Noble Cause

The man who fights and dies for a cause which, in his own mind, is right....he has died a valorous death. For he has defended his beliefs in the hope that they might continue. We honor these men next Tuesday. They are men who make great nations. They died so that we might live in peace. And those who fought and risked their lives in the agony of war have a dreaded memory of it. They have charged us with the difficult task of the Brinsers Mennonite church, maintaining peace among ourselves and our neighbors. We must fight with weapons of peace to fulfill our trust.
