Following the election of the directors they will organize by electing the officers.

To date the secretary has thirtyfour applications and was informed that fifteen additional were signed. An effort is being made to start the organization with one hundred members.

All those who have not been approached to date and desire to join, are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

A Petition To Clear Local Property

A petition for the release of a property in Mt. Joy township from lien of a mortgage written in 1844 was presented to court by B. J.

"I think I've had more of those petitions in the last two months than I've had in my whole time of practice," Myers remarked.

The property is owned by Abram H. and Minnie S. Young. The mortgage was given by Samuel Meckley to Peter Horst for $7,146.81 on April 2, 1844 on property containing thirteen acres and three perches. The matter is to be heard July 7.

Two mortgages were ordered recorded as paid. These were on the properties of Francis C. and Jane K. THE LANDIS REUNION

AT LANDISVILLE

SUNDAY, June 18, brings local observance of the twenty-ninth annual Father's Day, a custom originated at Spokane, Wash., in 1910 by Mrs. John Bruce Dodd, now director of a funeral home. She started it in tribute to her father, a G.A.R. veteran named William J. Smart. Most fathers aren't illustrious, but they're Dad to someone and nothing else counts. Some fathers are famous in their own right. Others, strangely, grow in stature partly through notoriety achieved through their children. Here are five

Fishermen Had Unusual Experience

Several fishing parties from here had very unpleasant experiences on recent trips. Here they are:

Marooned Four Hours Last Sunday a fishing party from town spent the day at Rehoboth

Out on the bay in row boats, a strong wind and rain storm blew them five miles from the shore and they were marooned on the open water for four hours.

Those in the party were: Mr. and Mrs. James Sheaffer, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Barnhart, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Kramer, all of town; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Graeff, of Millersville; Mr. and Mrs. John Mensinger, of Lancaster, and Hugo Hoppensteel.

Blown Out To Sea A number of 'ocal residents had very narrow escape while on a fishing trip to Bowers Beach last Saturday.

While out on the bay a terrific wind and rain storm blew them off their course and several hours elapsed before they were able to get ashore. Their catch netted 128 fish before the storm broke.

Those in the crowd were Roscoe Hassinger, William Way, and son William, Jr., Londy Zurin, Elam Groff, Harry Beamesderfer, Norman Spricher, Calvin Kramer and Abe Mumma, all of town; David Hassinger, of Maytown and Clyde Way of Lancaster.
