

Girl Scouts Hostesses To Mothers

On Monday evening the Girl Scouts entertained their mothers and several members of the Scout Committee at a Christmas Party in the Legion Home.

After each Scout introduced her mother, a very entertaining program was presented. It included group singing by the Scouts, accordion numbers by Vera Eby, xylophone selections by Pauline Edwards and a violin solo by Anita Warta. A very appropriate play was presented by Joanne Brown, Pauline Edwards, Janice Zink and Rachael Garber. The play stressed the fact that regardless of how much wealth, rank or honor are sacrificed for love of a mother, the profits of this love far exceed any reward one might receive from worldly things. The singing of Christmas Carols by the entire group was followed by dainty refreshments of hot chocolate and cookies. Each Scout served her mother.

Mrs. George Brown presented the new members, who had passed their Tenderfoot test, with their pins and Jean Zimmerman received her Second Class pin. She is the only Second Class Scout in the troop.

Everyone present received a Christmas tree favor made by the Scouts.

About fifty-five people were present.

Miss Elizabeth Heilig, Miss Pauline Heilig and Miss Mildred Zink, Pollyann and assistants, deserve and need credit for the work they are doing with this group.

CHRISTMAS...

Forget all your cares and worries... this day is for fun! 'Tis the Season to be Jolly" and also friendly, happy, joyous and kind.

What fun it is to look at the Christmas tree... to see in its myriad lights and gleamings, reflections of activities that make Christmas the most enjoyable day of the year.

You see mounds of presents, of wrappings, of eager faces - you see a group on the floor that turns out to be Dad and Son, enjoying the Christmas train. You see smiles and gladness, laughter, fun in which every one joins. Relax and enjoy yourself... have a MERRY CHRISTMAS!

'tis THE SEASON TO BE JOLLY

God Rest You Merry, Gentlemen

I.
God rest you merrie, gentlemen,
Let nothing you dismay,
Remember Christ our Saviour
Was born on Christmas Day,
To save us all from Satan's pow'r
When we were gone astray;

REFRAIN:

O tidings of comfort and joy,
Comfort and joy,
O tidings of comfort and joy!

II

From God our Heav'nly Father,
A blessed Angel came;
And unto certain Shepherds
Brought tidings of the same:
How that in Bethlehem was born
The Son of God by Name.

REFRAIN:

III

Now to the Lord sing praises,
All you within this place,
And with true love and brotherhood
Each other now embrace;
This holy tide of Christmas
All other does deface.

REFRAIN:

Traditional English Carol.

WILL YOU PLEASE HELP FILL THOSE CHRISTMAS BASKETS?

The Christmas Season is rapidly approaching and plans are being made to again distribute baskets to the less fortunate citizens of our community.

Prior to last year, each church and organization did this charitable work individually with the result that a number of duplications occurred.

Last year a general committee was organized to take charge of this work collectively for the community and this arrangement worked out very satisfactorily. A committee has been appointed from the Chamber of Commerce to have charge of the work this year and they solicit your co-operation.

Donations of groceries, vegetables, and fruits will be received at the American Legion Home (today), Thursday, December 21st, after 9:00 A. M.
