

The Fifth Column Worker

By H. I. PHILLIPS

HE TAKES all America has to offer with a smile and awaits a chance to return the favor with a machine gun.

HE COILS in the flag, hides in the quartet singing the national anthem and crouches behind the Bill of Rights.

HE ACCEPTS your invitation to dinner and makes a mental blueprint of your home so he can return and snatch the silver.

HE LETS you help him on with his coat while he plans to steal your shirt.

HE LETS you pay his golf fee while he figures out how much powder it would take to blow up the clubhouse.

HE BECOMES your week-end house guest and spends most of the time estimating how good a target for bombers the children's bedroom would make.

HE APPLAUDS America First programs and laughs himself to sleep over the fact his face didn't betray him.

HE STANDS when "The Star-Spangled Banner" is played, but eases his conscience by assuring himself that he was tired of sitting, anyhow.

HE LOOKS like a man, but performs like a rattlesnake.

HE SHAKES your hand while his wandering eye measures you for a knife in the back.

HE IS THE SKUNK that walks like a man, the hyena that waltzes like a patriot and the rat that masquerades as a human being.

HE EXPRESSES astonishment at the genius of American industry, but puts in plenty of time reporting back to the enemy on weak spots for attack.

HE NOT ONLY BITES the hand that feeds him, but eats the other hand for dessert.

HE SAYS, "It can't happen here," while planning to help the enemy do it.

HE IS THE KIND of rodent who would accept help from the good Samaritan, ask the Samaritan to wait for him in the corner drug store and then bomb the drug store.

HE REVERES evil for good, thinks the doublecross is the noblest work of man and eats with his knife because he never wants to have to depend on a fork when the time comes to stab his host.

of the Lancaster County chapter. Miss Bentley spoke on "Children and the Red Cross" at the meeting, which was held in the Church of God, Landisville.

Alumni Officers

Robert Horst was elected president of the East Hempfield Township High School Alumni Association at the annual banquet. Other officers are: Vice president, Phares Stehman; secretary, Miss Ethel Steinkopf and treasurer, Howard Klins.

The program included invocation by Rev. A. E. Cooper; followed by address of welcome, by the president Kenneth Brubaker. Prof. Arthur A. Hackman presented the class of 1940 to the association. The toastmaster was Phares Stehman.

Songs were led by George Shenk.

It was decided that the association would purchase a picture for the High School and have foot lights installed on the stage.

Toasts were given by Rev. A. E. Cooper, John Swarr, David Graybill and G. Earhart, of the school board, also by Prof. Hackman, Amos Herr and Miss Mary Caroline Greider, of the school faculty; John Herr, George Shenk, Mrs. Warren Augst and Faust Hoffman.

One mistaken idea of efficiency is that it is only a search for the little short cuts in business, in industry, and in life. Personal Efficiency is fuller living. It means much more than mere short cuts, but the short cuts are often helpful.
