Large Truck Wheel Ran Thru Fence At Reed's House

Early Monday morning a very unusual accident occurred here and fortunately no one was on the sidewalk at the time. A large wheel presumably off a dual wheel truck, left the truck in front of the postoffice. The wheel jumped over the curb, rolled across the sidewalk thru the hedge in front of the postoffice lawn, crashed thru the picket fence at the C. E. Reed property, banged against the house and then rolled back along the building where it stopped as though some one had leaned it against the house. The only damage was the broken fence and the black tire mark on the house. A State Policeman removed the wheel about noon that same day.
