Play Cast Announced

On April 4 and 5, the East Hempstars Corinne Hollinger as Penelope Link, a seemingly plain and unattractive blonde girl of twenty and Scott Nissley as Peter Wetherill, a studious and intelligent man of twenty-three, but rather shy and retiring. The story itself is a slight but none the less amusing little thing which speeds along furiously at a mile-a-minute, laugha-second pace. The action begins immediately with the rising of the first curtain, and from that moment forward the play gains further interest, finally developing as a better-than-average play despite its story fault.

Ably supporting Corinne and Mrs. Alicia Link, Penny's stepof eighteen, Alice Jane Herr; Miss Winona Wetherill, the implacable Karl, Mrs. Weitzer and Children, foe of kissing an Aunt of Peter, Loretta, Raymond, Mrs. Ralph Norma Landis; Mrs. Ada Jones, Myers and daughter, Phyllis, Mrs | Penny's Aunt from Nevada, a loud Yackley and son, Paul, Mrs. Bless- woman with a golden heart, Eula ing and daughter, Orlene, Mrs. Levi Mae Bender; T.
