THE EDITOR'S VOICE

No country roadside mail-box looks dingy to the farmer who is expecting a government check.

The fellow who knows that he doesn't know is smarter than the one who doesn't but thinks he does.

Folks who say that all men are fools are forgetting that some men still remain bachelors!

Those Sixteens, former pupils of the Soldiers' Orphanage here, will trek back home for their fifty-fourth reunion Saturday, June 21. We always welcome them back and know they will have their usual good time.

WHY NOT GIVE HIM A BIT?

Big corporations and industries, big business and enterprises engaged in big production and plans for big defense work! Everything is done on a mammoth scale it appears to the reader who covers front page news. Maybe something should be done to put the small business man in this big business picture.

WHY DOESN'T PRESIDENT ACT?

We can't quite understand the labor situation thruout the country. To us it looks anything but fair, particularly on the part of the soldier and sailor. To begin with Uncle Sam takes the selectees, no matter who they are, how important a position they hold or what they earn and gives them $21 per month.

YOU CAN HELP HERE

Years ago, history tells us, a man chose a wife who was a skilled hand at herb growing, in mixing potions to allay the ills of the body and the mind, to cure broken promises, broken bones and broken hearts. Especially in our country has this custom of growing herbs, disappeared.

FATHER'S DAY NEXT SUNDAY

We have worked on so many of the Ten Commandments and altered them to suit our own tastes that to find one that is left unscathed and unchanged, is a victory. Coveting what belongs to the neighbor is practiced even by whole nations. Thievery is entered into by once-honored governments so that the individual who steals looks amateurish.

As we celebrate our annual Father's Day on Sunday, June 15, consider the manhood of tomorrow from the training received from the manhood honored today.
