

Will Report For Duty Next Monday

The following is a list of the men who will be inducted into the service of the United States Army on October 20, 1941. Peter Rudyk, 222 S. Main Street, Manheim.

WILL SELL 14 BABY BEEVES AND 15 FAT HOGS

The Mount Joy 4-H Clubs will sell at public sale on Friday evening, Oct. 17 at eight o'clock at the Mt. Joy Community Exhibit, their baby bees and fat hogs.

County Draft Board No. 1 Classifies

Harvey Oliver Penwell, Jr. Marietta Claude Geise Meckley, Hershey Homer Z. Ginder, Etown R3 Richard Eugene Deitz, Marietta Ralph E. Zerphey Etown

TEN BOOKIES HAVE APPLIED FOR PAROLES

Applications for paroles for ten of the 21 bookmakers sent to jail September 19 were filed with the Lancaster County Court Monday.

Ushers Were Entertained Thurs. Nite

The Ushers' League of St. Mark's United Brethren church met at the home of Charles Latchford, Thursday evening.

A membership committee was appointed consisting of Lester Hostetter, Robert Hostetter and Lloyd Myers. The group decided to send the church paper and church Bulletin to the boys at camp.

ARREST AUTO DRIVER ON CRUELTY CHARGE

Harry Nissley, Manheim R. 2, charged with cruelty to animals, was arrested by Constable Cunningham and posted bail Wednesday for a hearing before Alderman Broome.

MOST UP-TO-THE-MINUTE WEEKLY IN LANCASTER COUNTY The Mount Joy Bulletin

VOL. XLI, NO. 20

Mount Joy, Pa., Thursday Morning, October 16, 1941

$1.50 a Year in Advance

School Patrol Leaders Named By Our School

Members of the Mount Joy School Patrol for the 1941-42 term were announced last week. Captain of the patrol is Richard Mumper and his lieutenant is Charles Eshleman.

The personnel for the outside patrol follows: Isabel Zink, David Loewen, Jacquelyn Hendrix, Eva Reigle, Dorothy Young, George Weber, Phyllis Peifer, Josephine Arndt, Edward Soldner, Robert Landvater, John Crider, Norman Garber, Clarence Weldon, Earl Leedom, Martha Gibbons, Shirley Weber, David Morris, Robert Beamen-derfer, Esther Weldon, John New-corn, Florence Kaylor, Marian Bard, Charlotte Bennett, Marian Brubaker, Patty Kepple, Laura Stark, Patty Tyndall, Betty Miller, Charles Halgren, Roy Wagner, Clyde Coen, Lester Myers, Bruce Myers, Robert Halgren, Charles Eshleman, Richard Mumper, Shirley Shirk, Hiram Strickler, Bernell Young, Charles Piersol, Helen Booth, Marian Peifer, Jack Eberly, Billy Stoler, Betty Gutschall, Frank Hassinger, Henry Zerphey, Marshall Dussinger, Richard Sheetz.

Collision Of Airplanes Kills Two

A man and a girl were killed at 5:05 p. m., Sunday, when their airplane bumped another in mid-air, then plummeted 200 feet into a plowed field just west of Hawk Field, known as the Elizabethtown Airport, along the Conewago Creek.

The pilot of the second plane miraculously righted his craft and landed safely on the airport runway. It was the second fatal plane crash in this area within a week, but the first collision of planes ever reported from a nearby airport.

ABRAM K. FLORY IS NOW A LIFE MEMBER

Abram K. Flory, Manheim R. 2, has been elected a life member of the National Ayrshire Breeders' Association by the unanimous vote of the directors at a recent board meeting, headquarters of the organization at Brandon, Vt., announced Sunday.

THE LEEDOMS GAVE A DOUBLE BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Leedom, East Main street, entertained to a double birthday dinner on Sunday, in honor of Mr. Leedom and his mother, Mrs. Harry Leedom.

GOES TO WICHITA FALLS

Ellas F. Lindemuth, of town, who enlisted in the Air Corps, has been assigned from the New Cumberland Reception Center to the Air Base at Wichita Falls, Texas.

FRACTURED HIS ARM

Mr. Winfield "Bricky" Fenstermacher fractured his arm while on duty the other day. He is employed at George Brown's Sons Inc.

LICENSE RESTORED

Irving Fritz, of town, had his driver's license restored by the State Board of Motor Vehicles.

PROSECUTED AT LANCASTER

Christian K. Herr, Mount Joy, R. 1, was prosecuted at Lancaster for driving too fast for conditions.

TROLLEYS TO GO

The Traction company at Lancaster will replace all its trolley cars with buses April 1, 1942.

Realty Sales Around Here During Week

W. HEMPFIELD FARM BRINGS $280 PER ACRE Rural real estate continues to sell at rather advanced prices throughout this section, the demand and market being better than during the past few years.

$280 Per Acre A 26-acre farm in West Hempfield township, one mile east of Mountville, brought $280 an acre, when sold at Public sale Thursday afternoon by Oliver Winters, of Columbia R2. Improvements include a 2 1/2 story brick house with ten rooms, new barn and tobacco shed to hang six acres, and running water at house and barn.

Rapho Farm Withdrawn A 98-acre farm in Rapho township, two miles northwest of Manheim, was withdrawn at $102 an acre when offered at public sale Thursday afternoon by C. C. Good, of Union Square.

Farm Withdrawn An offer of $4,825 was refused for a farm of 37 acres located one mile west of Elstonsville along the road leading from Elizabethtown to Mt. Gretna when offered by Amos B. Moyer at public sale Saturday afternoon.

Posy Patch Sold The Posy Patch, along the old Harrisburg Pike, a mile West of Salunga, was sold by Engle & Ham-bright for Miss Iva J. Godstalk to Joseph Asso, of New York City, who will occupy it as a residence.

ADULT SEWING CLASS MEETS MONDAY NIGHT

The adult sewing class will hold its first meeting in room 12, the Home Economics department in the Mt. Joy High School on Monday evening, Oct. 20 at 7:00 P. M.

REV. HALL DAUTEL

Rev. Hall Dautel, noted organist and pianist, will direct the music in the annual convention of the Lancaster County Christian Endeavor Union, to be held in Trinity Evangelical Congregational Church, Lititz, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, October 23, 24 and 25.

FINDS FREAK TOMATO

A freak yellow tomato of the beefsteak variety, found recently by Mrs. Jacob Musselman in her garden at Landisville, resembles a sunflower, with numerous small tomatoes radiating from the base of a large tomato.

A Good Attendance At Our Farm-Town Meeting Tues.

The efforts of the Mount Joy Joy Chamber of Commerce to unite urban and rural neighbors was rewarded Tuesday evening by the attendance of about four hundred townfolk and farmers at a meeting sponsored by the group in the high school auditorium.

The program opened with the audience singing "The Star Spangled Banner" accompanied by the high school band under the direction of H. B. Baughey.

CHURCH SCHOOL WORKERS RALLY, FRIDAY, OCT. 17

A Rally of Church School Workers of District Number 3, will be held in the Church of God, Elizabethtown, on Friday, October 17, 7:30 p. m. There will be divisional conferences of an informal nature led by the Superintendents of the various departments of the District.

The Fair At Maytown a Big Success

Hazel Bizler, a student of the East Donegal Township high school, was the winner of the grand prize for the highest number of winning exhibits at the fourth annual East Donegal fair held Friday at the High school at Maytown.

Miss Bizler, who was also last year's grand prize winner, completed a total of forty-four points. Second prize was awarded to Anna Mae Longenecker and third to Ella Martin.

Approximately three hundred and seventy exhibit prizes were awarded to exhibitors after nearly twelve hundred exhibits were judged Friday morning.

Another Letter of Appreciation

Recently we published a note of appreciation from some of the boys who passed through town on their way to maneuvers in North Carolina.

Appending is another letter received by Mr. Joe Withers, manager of our local state liquor store, from one of the military police stationed in the east end. Mr. Withers was among the local folks who donated "smokes" to the boys.

Oct. 12, 1941 I got your card and it was good to hear from you and I certainly remember you well. You really can't know how much I appreciated all (Turn to Page 7)

CHURCH CONGREGATION HOLDS ANNUAL BANQUET

The members of Reich's Evangelical Church and Sunday school held their annual banquet recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Roland near Donegal Springs.

AN EXPENSIVE BIRD

John T. Clark Jr., of Lancaster, paid $25 fine and costs for shooting a mole ringneck pheasant out of season.

PAROLE CONTINUED

The parole application of Irvin L. Zink, this borough, was continued until his minimum term will have expired, Friday, December 5.

We Welcome You To Our Farm Show This Week Which Starts Today; Many New Features This Year; Lancaster Co. Corn Husking Championship

$600 DAMAGES ASKED AS RESULT OF CRASH

Damages of $600 are sought by Lloyd H. Fry, of Salunga, from Russell Pfautz, Shartlesville, as the result of an accident on July 24, 1941, on the Fruitville pike.

According to Charles W. Eaby, who filed the suit, Fry was driving a truck loaded with bread for Keim's Modern Bakery, Columbia, and was traveling toward Lancaster when it was struck by an automobile, owned by Pfautz and traveling west on the road from the Manheim Pike.

Eaby said Fry suffered a gash on the left side of his face requiring eight sutures had two fractured ribs and a cut right leg.

LUTHER LEAGUES TO HOLD STUNT NIGHT

The Leagues of the Lancaster Conference Luther League will hold a Stunt Night on October 16 at 7:45 in Christ Lutheran Church, Elizabethtown, the Rev. Frank Croman, pastor.

The program has been arranged by H. Martin Lausch of Ephrata, who is chairman of the Fellowship Committee of the Conference.

Each league will present a short stunt and prizes will be awarded. Group singing will be led by the Rev. George B. Ammon of the Brickerville Parish.

AUTOISTS PROSECUTED BY CHIEF ZERPHEY

Chief of Police Elmer Zerphey, prosecuted the following drivers during the week:

Cyril Harrison, Pittsburgh, driving 48 mi. p. h. He plead guilty before Squire Hendrix and paid $10.00 fine and $2.25 costs.

J. W. Rowe, Philadelphia, improper passing, and Lester G. Brennenen, Middletown, 45 mi. p. h. Both will be summoned for a hearing before Justice of the Peace, Arthur Hendrix.

AMOS FORRY HOME

Amos G. Forry, of Manheim R2, is one of the first conscientious objectors from Lancaster county to be discharged from the work camps because of the 28-year-legislation. Forry left for the Grottoes, camp on June 25.

TRUCK DRIVER DIED

James Victoria, 30, of South River, N. J., who figured in a truck accident at Salunga, an account of which appeared in last week's Bulletin, died at St. Joseph's Hospital. Concussion of the brain caused his death.

RUMMAGE SALE

On Friday and Saturday, Oct. 24 and 25th, the Ladies Bible Class of the Lutheran Church will hold a Rummage sale in the Parish House.

HOW DO YOU LIKE IT?

Kind reader you are now glancing over the largest newspaper of any regular edition ever published in Mount Joy. It contains sixteen pages of local news and advertising.

We urgently request our readers to read it carefully, particularly the advertising. We have every wide-awake and enterprising merchant represented in our columns throughout this entire community.

When it comes to real, honest, consistent and resulting advertising, people use the BULLETIN.

A copy of this week's BULLETIN will go into every home throughout this locality by mail.

SEEKING APPEAL IN THE DRAHN CASE

The court directed Attorney Paul A. Mueller to communicate with the heirs of Clarence Drahn, late of this borough, in order to determine whether they wish to file a brief in the case where the Wincroft Store Company and the Pennsylvania Manufacturers Association Casualty Insurance Company seeks an appeal from decision of the Workman's Compensation Board.

Basis for the company's contention is that it should not have to pay the entire burial expenses for Drahn but that the occupational disease fund should be brought into use.

WILL SERVE DINNERS AND SUPPERS

The Ladies Bible Class of the Lutheran church, will serve dinners and suppers at the Parish House, during the Community Exhibit, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The menu will consist of soups, sandwiches, home-made pies, coffee, soft drinks.

E. Hempfield Enrollment Announced

The enrollment of the East Hempfield Township schools for the 1941-42 term has been announced by Arthur A. Hackman, supervising principal, as follows: East Petersburg Elementary school, Grades 1-8, is 248 pupils; Rohrerstown Elementary schools, Grades 1-8, is 141 pupils; Landisville Elementary school, Grades 1-8, is 239 pupils; East Hempfield Township High school has an enrollment of 259 pupils in Grades 9 to 12. There are 83 beginners enrolled in Grade 1 in the township. The total enrollment in the township schools including the Elementary schools and High school is 887.

New teachers in the township schools are Miss Lillian Getzler, Grade 3, and Miss Margaret Esben-shade, Grade 7, in the Landisville Elementary school; Miss Anne E. Peifer, Grades 5-6, in the Rohrerstown Elementary school; Leroy Nissley, History and Mathematics in the High school; Donald Mease is the new music supervisor.

SHERIDAN'S GARAGE TO OPEN MONDAY

A new garage, equipped to handle all kinds of service work will be open on Monday, October 20, in the former Greenawald garage on West Main St. This garage will be opened by U. Sheridan Angstadt and will be known as Sheridan's Garage.

A plaque in memory of H. M. Stauffer, deceased, secretary of the club for the past thirty years, was hung.

President Toppin appointed a committee to plan for a "Ladies Night." The committee includes Arthur Mayer, chairman; John Greiner and S. P. Nissley, I. Morris, Clayton Newcomer, Henry Carpenter, Clyde Nissley and Donald Somer will prepare the program for the next meeting.

INSPECTED BRIDGE

The County Commissioners Tuesday inspected the new railroad crossing bridge at Florin and were well pleased with its progress.

CANDIDATE WITHDRAWN

John Bowman, Democratic candidate for school director here, has withdrawn.

BANKER GETS DIPLOMA

At a meeting of the Lancaster Chapter of Bankers, Lineus Longenecker, of the Union National Bank here, was presented with his diploma.

EVANS PROPERTY SOLD

C. S. Frank, auctioneer, sold the John S. Evans, property on Marietta Avenue, at public sale on Saturday to Harry H. Krall for $2300.

AUXILIARY MEETS TONIGHT

The Ladies Auxiliary of Friendly Fire Co. will hold their regular October meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock, in the Fire House basement.

SEE MOUNT JOY FROM THE AIR

Here's your opportunity to see Mt Joy from the air.

Messrs. Jesse Jones of Lancaster and Chas. Brandt of town, are sponsoring the local Rides.

The Penna Board of Aeronautics have approved the field on the John Melhorn farm on the Marietta Pike. Look for the ad on another page.

Numbered envelopes for your contribution will be distributed Monday, October 20th to each home. You will receive a receipt for your envelope. The number of each envelope will be published.

In order that each citizen of Mt. Joy may be fully informed, the Association herewith publishes in detail, all trust funds established for Mount Joy Borough.

Local Affairs In General Briefly Told

The Green Shay's liquor license was suspended for 100 days. In a campaign for the Columbia Hospital, $9,600 was pledged.

A new fire alarm system will be installed at St. Joseph's Hospital. Peter De Karst, 44, of Lancaster, was arrested for speeding twice in three weeks.

Mrs. Mamie Weaver, of Calvert, was struck and killed by a motorist near Columbia.

Suitable Pillars are to be erected at the entrance to Long Park on the Harrisburg pike.

The State Liquor Control Board has suspended the license of Red Rose Post at Columbia for 45 days.

Dr. Theodore August Distler, dean of Lafayette College, was chosen president of F. & M. College at Lancaster.

The Canning factory and the Chocolate Company at Lititz closed their plants last week in order to conserve water.

Dr. B. F. Frackenthal Jr., 90, president of the Board of Trustees at F. & M. College, was killed in an auto accident.

ELM TREE SCHOOLS' 13th ANNUAL REUNION

The thirteenth annual reunion of the Elm Tree School will be held Friday evening, October 24th.

An interesting program has been planned as follows:

Song by audience; Daniel E. Brubaker, chorister; Opening Devotion, Rev. J. B. Brubaker; Address by the president, Levi Brubaker; Address of Welcome, Jerome Brubaker; Exercise by the school; Reading, Lois Brubaker; Address, Prof. Rufus Eby; Short Talks, Harry Trout; Benj. Myers, Paris Hostetter; Mrs. Ray Geib and David Eby; The Ambassador Quartette, of Elizabethtown will render several selections; and the Kriner family of near Chickies church will furnish instrumental music.

The Affairs At Florin For Past Week

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCauley spent Monday evening in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Raymond Zink, of Hershey, visited Harry Keener and family on Monday.

Mrs. Roy Moose and Mrs. Charles Schroll, of Elizabethtown, called on Mrs. N. E. Hershey on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Smith and daughter, Connie Lou, of Ironville, visited Albert Pike and family on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Melhorn and grandson, Billie Joe, spent Sunday (Turn to Page 3)

SEE MOUNT JOY FROM THE AIR

Here's your opportunity to see Mt Joy from the air.

Messrs. Jesse Jones of Lancaster and Chas. Brandt of town, are sponsoring the local Rides.

The Penna Board of Aeronautics have approved the field on the John Melhorn farm on the Marietta Pike. Look for the ad on another page.

EVANS PROPERTY SOLD

C. S. Frank, auctioneer, sold the John S. Evans, property on Marietta Avenue, at public sale on Saturday to Harry H. Krall for $2300.

FRACTURED HIS ARM

Mr. Winfield "Bricky" Fenstermacher fractured his arm while on duty the other day. He is employed at George Brown's Sons Inc.

LICENSE RESTORED

Irving Fritz, of town, had his driver's license restored by the State Board of Motor Vehicles.

PROSECUTED AT LANCASTER

Christian K. Herr, Mount Joy, R. 1, was prosecuted at Lancaster for driving too fast for conditions.

TROLLEYS TO GO

The Traction company at Lancaster will replace all its trolley cars with buses April 1, 1942.

Mother Mateer

Died Aged 90 Years

Mrs. Elizabeth Mateer died at the home of her son Samuel at 205 East Main street at 1:05 Wednesday morning after an illness of six months, aged 90 years. She was the (Turn to page 8)

Richland Club Enrolled Ten New Members

The Richland Club met Monday and admitted ten new members. They are S. A. Horton, Joseph B. Hershey, Carl Germer, Charles Roth, George Shatto, Thomas J. B. Brown, III, Elmer Forwood, Dr. R. M. Thome, Harry G. Walters and Joe Weidman.

A plaque in memory of H. M. Stauffer, deceased, secretary of the club for the past thirty years, was hung.

President Toppin appointed a committee to plan for a "Ladies Night." The committee includes Arthur Mayer, chairman; John Greiner and S. P. Nissley, I. Morris, Clayton Newcomer, Henry Carpenter, Clyde Nissley and Donald Somer will prepare the program for the next meeting.

INSPECTED BRIDGE

The County Commissioners Tuesday inspected the new railroad crossing bridge at Florin and were well pleased with its progress.

CANDIDATE WITHDRAWN

John Bowman, Democratic candidate for school director here, has withdrawn.

BANKER GETS DIPLOMA

At a meeting of the Lancaster Chapter of Bankers, Lineus Longenecker, of the Union National Bank here, was presented with his diploma.

EVANS PROPERTY SOLD

C. S. Frank, auctioneer, sold the John S. Evans, property on Marietta Avenue, at public sale on Saturday to Harry H. Krall for $2300.

AUXILIARY MEETS TONIGHT

The Ladies Auxiliary of Friendly Fire Co. will hold their regular October meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock, in the Fire House basement.

SEE MOUNT JOY FROM THE AIR

Here's your opportunity to see Mt Joy from the air.

Messrs. Jesse Jones of Lancaster and Chas. Brandt of town, are sponsoring the local Rides.

The Penna Board of Aeronautics have approved the field on the John Melhorn farm on the Marietta Pike. Look for the ad on another page.

Numbered envelopes for your contribution will be distributed Monday, October 20th to each home. You will receive a receipt for your envelope. The number of each envelope will be published.

In order that each citizen of Mt. Joy may be fully informed, the Association herewith publishes in detail, all trust funds established for Mount Joy Borough.