Ketterling, pastor of Maytown Evangelical church, was in charge of the devotions. Loretta Wittel, of the Elizabethtown United Brethren church, presided at the business meeting and the games and refreshments were supervised by members from the Landisville Church of God. About sixty people attended the social representing the Endeavors of Landisville, Rechs, Maytown, Elizabethtown and the local church. Distinguished visitors present included: Herman Brackbill, of Kinzer, president of the Lancaster County Christian Endeavors; Clarence Nelson, of New Holland, editor of the Christian Endeavor paper, the "Garden Spot;" and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Muehling, of Rohrerstown. Mr. Muehling is chairman of the extension committee of the societies.

Local Affairs
 Manheim will hold its initial blackout next Monday. It cost $3,006.69 to guard the Columbia bridge for 15 days. The rationing of retired tires will begin in the county Feb. 23. A 17-year-old Lancaster lad has confessed to stealing three bicycles. Four of the nine motorists cited for hearings at Lancaster, did not appear.

The school teachers of Lancaster City have asked for an increase in salaries. The road from Manheim to White Oak, a distance of 2 1/2 miles, is being rebuilt. A number of Tumbling clubs have been organized at the Elizabethtown High school. Ezra Barry, 62, Hopeland, missing for several days, was found dead near his home. Grand Duchess Charlotte of Luxembourg, purchased a 247-acre dairy farm in Bucks county. 400 chicks were burned when an overheated brooder stove set fire to the building at Brownstown.

Columbia's tax collector reported to the School Board that there is $11,717.00 outstanding of the 1941 duplicate. A county painter, who didn't earn enough to pay income tax, gave $5 toward buying rivets for a bomber. Chester Nicholas, 11, Columbia, took a drink of cider, laid down, fell asleep and was found after 200 people hunted him nearly all night. Thirteen men were arrested when a dice game at the Seventh Ward Club, Lancaster was raided Sunday.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED
 Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Thelma Rutt Miller, of Mount Joy, RD2, to Private Ammon B. Shenenberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shenenberger, of Manheim RD2. Mr. Shenenberger is stationed at Fort Meyer, Va.
