tory garden, first aid, etc., this column is a triffe neglected but then you know how it is, so 'scuse' please.

And speaking of a garden, reminds me that Abe Rhinehart asked some fellow if you have to cook potatoes that are raised in a hot house. Will someone please enlighten him? And be sure to tell him that French fried potatoes aren't raised in France.

Did you folks back on Market St., hear the quartet serenading one of the boys the other morning at 2:30? How'd they do anyhow? The boys will be boys, so don't be cross if they disturb you.

Here's one about an absentminded G-Man who held his machine gun on his lap and fired his sercetary.-The dope!

A very understanding spouse on E. Donegal St., says that "Men are like children. They prefer blondes because they're afraid of the dark". -Wish my wife thought so.

And here's another one about an absent-minded Governor who pardoned a chorus girl and kept a prifamily argument in the west end entry to Roy Richwine, owner o of Florin last night and just before they got a glimpse of me she holher hubby countered: "That's your speedy oval next Sunday May 3rd. lered: "You've got me crazy." And own fault, you're always giving me a piece of your mind."

We've been told that a women's bridge club is a place where the absent members get all the slams. ----Methinks I'll stick to pinochle or I'd probably end up with a grand slam.

There are still a few shy girls left-they are usually shy ten years when you ask them their age.

They tell me I made a big mistake when I didn't publish the nershitz, Dave Randolph, Everett names of the air raid wardens who Saylor, Danny Gross, Walt Adner completed their first aid courses recently.
