

OWL LAFFS

A WISE OWL

There's two mighty sad boys in town this week. Their pal, Johnny Miller went to Washington, D. C. to work and now "Sixty" and "Curley" don't know who they're going to blame for keeping them out 'til all hours of the morning.

And what I'd like to know is who the heck is going to wind the alarm clock when Johnny's gone. It's really a predicament.

If any of you boys are having trouble getting up enough nerve to propose to your girl, your worries are over, cause "Chet" has opened a new sideline. He gets a big kick out of playing John Alden and with Jimmy Strickler his assistant they really get results. At least Chet did a mighty fine job in behalf of the iceman.

I have a riddle I'd like to ask you readers. Here 'tis - What is it that I could do last year, you could do last year and a little bird could do last year, but that I can't do this year and you can't do this year but a little bird can do this year? - Are you thinkin' hard, Do you give up? O. K., I'll tell you. - "Make a small deposit on a new automobile."

If you're complaining about anything, stop right now and read the troubles of one of our local eighth graders. He had never had such a tough time in his life. First he got angina pectoris, followed by arteriosclerosis. Just as he was recovering from these he got pneumonia, followed by pulmonary phthisis and tuberculosis. Somehow he got over them in time to get appendicitis, to say nothing of pyorrhea. All in all, he never saw how he pulled through. It was the hardest spelling test he'd ever had.

A Frenchman in Africa with the American forces was relating his experiences in studying the English language when he said: "When I first discovered that if I was quick, I was fast; that if I was tied, I was fast; if I spent to freely, I was fast; and that not to eat was to fast, I was discouraged. But when I came across the sentence: 'The first one won one-dollar prize' I gave up trying."

They're telling the story about the time Mussolini was stranded in a small town due to the breakdown of his motor. He went into the local cinema. His picture came onto the screen. Everybody rose, but he remained seated. The proprietor of the place touched him on the shoulder and said: "I feel that way, too. But you had better stand up. It is safer."

The Bright Young Thing entered the clothier's shop and approached the counter. "I want to get a Christmas present for an old gentleman," she said. "Yes, mam," replied the clerk. "Something nice in ties?" "No, he has a beard," the girl explained. "Hmm," the clerk murmured, thoughtfully. "Perhaps a fancy vest might be suitable?" "No, it's a long beard," came back the answer. The clerk sighed wearily. "Well, how about carpet slippers?"

Here's the pay-off on the absent-minded club member gag. A Florin man went Xmas shopping and had his pocket picked. He complained to a policeman who took him to the police court. The captain asked: "But didn't you feel the thief's hand going into your pocket?" And the man absent-mindedly answered: "Yes, but I thought it was my own."

THAT'S A LOT OF VENISON

The state of Maine has had its banner deer season, 22,301 having been reported killed by hunters. That's nearly 100 more than the previous high in 1940. The 2,676,120 pounds of meat is valued at nearly $1,000,000.00.

IRONVILLE

Hazel Forno, a student at Lebanon Valley College, is home for the holidays. Glenn Kauffman, was visiting at Washington, D. C. Sunday. Wilbur Rettew, was hunting for deer in Huntington county several days. Luther Ulrich and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Harry, enjoyed their annual vacation, hunting deer in Fulton county, without success. The following Sunday school classes of the Ironville U. B. S. will hold their class meetings this week. Tuesday evening, the Merry Maids, Edna Forrey, teacher, will meet at the home of Mrs. Thelma Montgomery. The Orange Blossom class, Mrs. Paul Metzger, teacher, will meet at the home of Mrs. Metzger. The Women's Bible class will meet in the church basement with Mrs. Lydia Staley, teacher. On Wednesday evening, the Loyal Sons' class, Paul Metzger, teacher, will meet at the garage of Luther Ulrich. On Thursday evening the Board of Christian Education, will meet in the church basement at 7:30. All officers and teachers of the various church organizations, are requested to attend. After the meeting a Christmas party will be held. The C. E. society will serve refreshments. The committee consists of Luther Ulrich, Charles Gingrich and Drew Mummaw. C. E. was held on Sunday evening, with Wilbur Albright, leader. He conducted a backward and forward meeting. Mrs. Harold Albright, sang a solo, Alvin Mummaw, read the scripture, Carolyn Mummaw discussed the lesson and had the following give short talks: Mrs. George Forno, Mrs. Lydia Staley, Mrs. Wilbur Rettew, Jacob Kauffman, Frances Mummaw, and Luther Ulrich.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

I see where the War Production Board is clamping down on things we don't need and which interferes with supplies, like copper, etc. that is needed for bullets. It is about time says Henry. And the dams and power-houses not needed make a list as long as your arm. And furthermore, he says, most of 'em were out in the sag brush. A jack-rabbit, I says, should not have much use for electric lights, trying to keep Henry wound up. When he is wound up he talks without frills. Josephus, he says, the buddies of this nation who are making a drive for Socialism and a nice lifetime job, are the gents in the wood pile. And put this in your pipe, he says, and smoke it—if those Bureau Boys ever get a firm grip on the electric business, they are gonna branch out. Do you think we will ever have Govt. barbers, I says, and if so, how about guys without excess hair, I says. Can the Socialists grow hair? On a dome like yours, he says, they could grow anything—and he headed for home. —Yours with the low down
