

WHY NO?

One load of paratroops could do a lot of damage—and wouldn't your trigger finger itch?

When you are in the woods your pipe heel or cigarette butt is likely to cause as much damage as a load of paratroops.

Make sure your ashes are out, make sure your campfire is out before you leave. Remember, every forest fire this year will waste thousands of man hours of war work—will delay victory.

The Corn Club One hundred and thirty-seven boys and girls, out of 184 enrolled a year ago, completed their full work as members of the 4-H Corn Club which is sponsored by the Lancaster Chamber of Commerce and received certificates of merit at the 15th annual Round-up here on Saturday.

Each was required to plant, cultivate and harvest a special half-acre plot of corn last year, prepare a report on the crop and finally exhibit a ten-ear sample of the best corn at the annual Roundup. Nearly 1,400 ears were on display.

Paul Eugene Hollinger, of Manheim R2, captured first prize of $5 as the best judge of corn and potatoes at the contest held in the morning, prior to the noon luncheon and afternoon program.

Second prize of $4 went to Jeanne Hess, Mt. Joy R1; third prize, $3, to Robert Hess, Strausburg R1; and fourth, $2, to Dorothy Hostetter, Manheim R2. Dollar awards went to other contest winners who placed in the following order:

- 5, Ralph Snyder, Manheim R2; 6, Alfred Wanner, Honey Brook R1; 7, Vernon Leiminger, Denver R2; 8, Kathleen Hostetter, Manheim R2; 9, Charles Martin, Navon; 10, Ella Martin, Mt. Joy R1; 11, Helen Hess, Bainbridge; 12, Edna Rohrer, Lancaster R4; 13, Rhelda Eshleman, Marietta R1; 14, Harry Ressler, Ephrata R1; and 15, Norma Patterson, Kirkwood.
