The subscription lists of three other newspapers, the Mount Joy Star and News, the Landisville Vigil and the Florin News were merged with the Bulletin, which makes this paper's circulation practically double that of the average weekly.

Entered at the Postoffice at Mount Joy, Pa., as second-class mail matter under the Act of March 3, 1879.

THE EDITOR'S VOICE

Since fish kill mosquitos, it may not be a bad idea to take a bowl of gold fish with us when we go out to weed the victory garden.

You hear folks expressing so frequently, "Money Talks." Evidently it has a language all its own, composed of but two words. At least that's the only thing it has ever said to us—SO LONG!

Here's a tip from the man of experience. The fellow who uses horse sense will get much farther with anything he undertakes than the chap who totes a rabbit's foot in his pocket.

STAYING HOME?

Are you one of those who will have no vacation this year? Many folks will not have much time away from their work in defense and relief and any productive labor that is tied in with the war effort. But this does not mean there are not certain beauties of nature to be found near here in the country, moments of pure relaxation to be had in your own yard, simple pleasures to bring renewed interest in life inside your home. Snatch a few hours of peace along some stream, treasure a few hours in the shade of a tree with a calming book. Take advantage of leisure hours instead of moaning over the loss of leisure weeks or months that used to be.

CONSIDER HIM!

In the trend of complaining of food cost, produce limitations, black markets, coupon difficulties, we sort of forget a person who needs consideration in all of this regimentation and who seldom gets anything but a sigh of impatience for all his troubles. That's the fellow in the neighborhood grocery store who stands back of the counter with more worries over coupons, supplies, markets and prices than you have. He will tell you that he is having his troubles and he is probably right when he says there are more to come. When we step to the counter and grumble because there isn't any of this, wonder why a shortage of that, question price, seek point answers, remember that his headache is worse than yours and he isn't any happier because he can't carry on 'business as usual' than you are!

GARDNER'S NIGHTMARE

The victory gardener is in the process of de-weeding same, trying to separate radishes, onions, tomatoes from the vile green things that always do better in a vegetable bed than amidst flowers! In Ohio soil 968 kinds of weeds and weed seeds thrive, but maybe around here conditions won't be so conducive for luxuriant growth to warrant a hardy crop of them. It is well for the innocent gardener to become acquainted with the more virile types of weeds and be prepared to attack as they defiantly poke their evil heads among the peas and beans. An unsuspecting gardener may be fooled by some of the innocent weeds and think his cucumbers and corn are beginning to take hold nicely! Since weeds cost this country three billion dollars a year, maybe he better get educated.

NO LETTING UP

Our routing of the enemy in certain battle areas is heartening to every one, as it is the proof that after long months of preparation we are progressing in the fight with a definite advance. The indirect part we played in many branches of defense work was a warning up for the important role to come. We are actively participating in the actual business of war on each front, carrying the fury to the door of the enemy. We suffered our reverses which taught us lessons not too late and which pointed out the danger that COULD happen here. We took our Pearl Harbor and Wake Island and through these sad experiences gained in wisdom at the cost of precious lives. It was a sore challenge to strength of character and courage and national morale, but now we are on our way! North Africa paved the way. We do not intend to slow down, we are planning for what is ahead. To taste of victory, remember, is not to participate in a full meal—we have had a taste. This must not make us overly confident and feel that the end is in sight, the war as good as won and victory at hand. Council has warned us otherwise and all of us know that we can't let up for one instant. To relax one minute in the united defense effort might lead to disaster. The idea is to keep production going with more determination and to press the fight the harder. Yes, we ARE gaining, we ARE moving forward, we ARE on the way.

TO FATHER

He will act unappreciative and maybe a bit nonchalant when you remind him that next Sunday is HIS day! He'll probably mention that it is a lot of foolishness and the scheme of somebody to sell something. Let him suffer for in his heart he really likes the concern. Don't tell us that any father would not cherish a note from a son or daughter away from home that reads, "Here is to you, Dad! Thanks for making it possible for me to be a member of this family, to have Mother, to know that you are for me and with me always." Sure he would love it. We joke a lot about Father's Day, not keeping the occasion as solemn and sentimental as Mother's. It isn't disrespect but because Fathers hate fuss and emotional display, as a rule. But no man is immune to heart-felt compliments and deeply rooted respect from his family and it sounds good to him when they tell him so. The name of Father alone withstands jests and ribs, wisecracks and general kidding. He may be the breadwinner, the fellow who pays the bills, the other half and so on, but over all of this he is distinguished for one reason if no other—he is Father. He started before your ideal when he built you boats and sling-shots and kites. He worked at his business to provide for family needs, to save for education and vacations that he didn't have at your age. When you link the name of Father with the one of Mother, you have a combination that is unbeatable. Here in town we gladly devote one day a year to reminding Fathers of our pride in them. We feel this way about them every day of the year.

IT MUST ALWAYS BE SO

Reports drift back from the fighting fronts which indicate that some of the men in the service believe the government alone has been responsible for production achievements on the home front. Apparently they feel that the government has turned out the record-breaking number of tanks, guns and planes, and therefore it should take over industry, lock, stock and barrel after the war. Erroneous information of this character should be dispelled, even though it is held by only a small minority, for it is upon just such fallacies that the demagogue hinges his appeal.

Private industry is producing the equipment with which to win the war. Private industry is producing nearly seven thousand planes a month. Private industry in this country has done in two years what the dictatorships took a decade to accomplish in the way of preparation for mechanized war. Private industry has built ships—millions of tons of them—faster than they ever built before.

Government regulates the flow of strategic materials and takes over the finished goods. In between these acts of government, the great bulk of the war effort is being carried on by civilians. The natural resource industries, oil, mining, timber, and electric power, are the starting point in a vast assembly line that terminates on the battlefield. Private enterprise and private citizens keep the line moving. That is the fundamental difference between this country and dictatorships. On the other side of no-man's-land the initiative comes from government. Here the initiative comes from the individual. It must always be so in a free country.
