Meeting Held Here For The General Hospital's Building Campaign

Special gift solicitation in Lancaster General Hospital's building fund campaign for $728,500 was under way throughout the county this week following an organization meeting of county leaders in the office of the Schock Independent Oil Company here.

Alfred C. Alspach, Chairman of Section 2, which comprises the northwest area of the county, presided at the meeting and stressed the need which has impelled General Hospital to seek funds for additional buildings. He said:
