

CHRISTMAS 1943

- Again comes the Christmas season with its opportunity to exchange greetings and good wishes with our friends.
- This year, with so many of our kinsmen in far-away places, Christmas brings a portion of sadness to many homes as well as the customary good cheer.
- That fact makes it all the more necessary for those of us who remain at home to cleave to one another and strengthen the ties that bind us together.
- We will be doing our boys and girls in the armed forces the kind of service they most appreciate if we keep a stiff upper lip, smile and wish one another a —
