THE EDITOR'S VOICE

There is nothing quite as busy as idle curiosity. . . . We find that no matter how half-baked an idea may be, you will always find a lot of smart folks falling for it. . . . Memorial Day Tuesday was very quiet here. The only activity was an abundant display of American flags everywhere, the Legions' decoration of departed heroes' graves in the various cemeteries and the citizenry remembering loved ones by placing an abundance of flowers on their graves. That was sufficient at a time like this. . . .

TRY A SALAD
Many of us never have to be urged to eat our salad, for we like our green stuff that way and not just because we are getting those highly touted vitamins, either. Mainly a salad is something very special and when it is even put into a salad, surely its station is elevated above many other foods. The art of salad making is one that has left pert words flying, especially with regard to the dressing used on same. The Spaniards use this proverb that might carry weight to our readers, "A miser for vinegar and a spendthrift for oil." There is the school of garlic users who apply the tomato abundantly, those persons who insist that a touch of sugar gives dressing added flavor and others who cry against such sacrilege. Spring greens offer us a wide range and with an eye to health and another to taste, if ever our gourmet's taste is to be satisfied, these are now our "salad days."

THE FIFTH DRIVE
From June 12-26 we subscribe to the nation's fifth war loan drive. The goal is $16 billion and that is $2 billion higher than the fourth drive for bonds. Since war expenses for the first three months of 1944 were over $23 billion, it gives us an idea of how much is needed to keep going. From all indications of the money being spent today for non-essentials, the bond drive should be over subscribed, if those spenders get wise. If money is to be circulated, for what better purpose than in a government bond, to protect the lives of our sons and the destiny of our country? War demands much of all of us. But chops over there are more anxious to get back home to chicken on Sunday with the family, a chance to hunt the corner drugstore, an opportunity to yell at the baseball umpire, a trip to a favorite fishing spot. Give them a chance by helping to buy their ticket back home, with your purchase of a war bond. . . .

TAKE IT OFF—PUT IT ON
After getting what you want, you don't seem to want it, appears to be a bit true where butcher shops have reported that housewives are not rushing to get more meat, due to the lifting of ration points. It has taken the nation's housewives some time to get straightened on their kitchen bookkeeping, with regard to red and blue and green stamps. The shifting around from no cheese and no butter, to extras in pork, plenty of fish, maybe or not chicken because of no roast beef, has kept our cooks marking time with pencils, ration and recipe books. It meant careful consideration of points and loss of cost and a strain on how to stretch so little over so long a ration period. Now we are looking at the cost and paying less attention to the points, for due to a record-breaking production of livestock on farms and ranches, in spite of demands of the army, of lend-lease, meat is back again! But enjoy it while you may for one never knows what tomorrow's restriction might be. . . .

OMITTED BY ERROR
The name of Tony's Bowling Alley and Grill was erroneously omitted from the list of business places extending congratulations to the graduates. Mr. Tronio wishes the best of success to this group now entering many new fields of education, work and service. . . .
