

OWL LAFFS

A WISE OWL

If you folks are having a lot of trouble keeping a stiff upper lip in these trying times, put a little starch in your morning coffee. That should do the trick...

You know, the way some people express themselves is most confusing. A lady from Marietta R. D. took her son to a local doctor for treatment and when they entered she explained: "It's his head, doctor. He's had it on and off ever since he was born."

Speaking of doctors, a grade school girl was sent to her physician to be treated for a cold. When she returned home her mother inquired: "Mary, did the doctor treat you?" And Mary replied: "No, mother, he charged me two dollars."

There is a preacher in our midst who should have his salary raised for making the following announcement from his pulpit: "Fellow members, the janitor and I will hold our regular prayer meeting next Wednesday evening as usual."

Another minister told me he does not mind members of his congregation pulling out their watches on him when he's preaching, but it gets his goat to have them put the darn thing up to their ears to hear if they're going...

This isn't local but it may give you a topic for discussion...

A surgeon, an architect and a politician were arguing as to whose profession was the oldest. Said the surgeon: "Eve was made from Adam's rib, and that surely was a surgical operation."

Have you heard the sad case of the actor who fell off a ship passing a lighthouse. He drowned, poor thing, swimming circles round the thing to keep in the spotlight...

Went to Barnum and Bailey's circus in Philadelphia last week, and after the show started, a very heavy man was maneuvering through our aisle to get to his seat...

Which reminds me, Shave Engle told me he's had a lot of disappointments in his life, but some stand out over the years like the one that came to him when he was a boy...

Jim and Art, while playing a twosome, sliced their drives into the rough, and went in search of the truck and goes off. Much later in balls. They searched for a long time without success...

TALENTED YOUNG ACTOR IN "PAPA IS ALL" AT GRETNA

Wait until you've seen Frank Sawyer, (above), talented young actor with the Gretna Playhouse cast in the Theatre Guild's famous Penna. Dutch comedy drama, "Papa Is All."

This stage production, which has become a great favorite as "Tillie the Mennonite Maid," opens tonight, Thursday, June 28th, for one week on the stage of the Gretna Playhouse in what promises to be one of the highlights of the season for it is about a Lancaster County Mennonite family.

'Doc' Shoop Now Heads

(From page 1) Railroad Company. Mr. Tompkins, who is from Lancaster, was introduced to the club by Sam Dock, ticket agent at Mt. Joy and also a member of the club.

Mr. Tompkins said that Columbia holds the record for the greatest number of railroad cars passing at a given point in a given period of time. This record was previously held near Chicago, when 14,000 cars passed a given point in twenty-four hours.

Mr. Tompkins finished his talk with some information on the new types of locomotives being used on the P. R. R. One in particular was the new steam turbine locomotive, now being used from Harrisburg to Chicago, built by the Baldwin Locomotive works.
