Escape to Home

By MIRIAM GILBERT McClure Syndicate. WNU Features.

E CROSSED to the other side of Vine street so that the light from the lamp post wouldn't shine on his face. He glanced around furtively, his head low. The walk from the train depot to the center of town hadn't been bad, but now he had to cross Main street in order Someone passed him and Tommy pulled up his coat collar. He won-dered how he could slip past the theater. He decided to stroll casualy. A sudden shout startled him. Tommy, Tommy Mitchell," the blond cashier called.

Panic-stricken, Tommy started to

This wasn't the way he wanted to come home. But they had invited trouble. They shouldn't have left him alone when they changed trains at Chicago. They had told him to hide in the shadows to avoid the crowd. It was easy then to jump back on the westbound train as it pulled out. They would be after him pretty soon, but in the meantime-

He swung open the front door. What would Ma say when she saw him? He tiptoed in and stood quietly in the kitchen doorway. Ma had her back to him and was stirring a cake batter. Alice's baby was The baby looked up and spied Tom-my. "Ganma, Ganma," he prattled. She turned around still mixing.

"Tommy, my Tommy!" He rushed forward as the howl slipped from her hands. She clung to him, her hands running up and down his sleeve. "Why didn't you let us know somehow that you were

He decided to stroll casually.

"I don't know how long I can stay, Ma, you see-"Here, take off your things. Alice is upstairs."

"Skipper's sure gotten big." Tommy swung the baby up in his arms. "He was just a handful of pink flesh and blue eyes when I last saw him."

"Baby looks like Rick, doesn't he?" Ma said softly. "That's Alice's only consolation. Go up and say hello to her. I'll fix something for you to eat." Her fingers presssed deep into his arms. "You're thin as a scarecrow. "Where's Dad?"

"Dad closed the garage. Ted was mechanic to replace him. Ted's in the Pacific now," she added quiet-

"In the Pacific." Tommy ground out the words.

"I'm sorry, Tommy. Go up and

He started up the steps, then turned back. "Ma, for tonight and maybe tomorrow, don't let any strangers in the house."

"I understand, Tommy. I'm proud of you no matter what." He awoke with a start. His fingers touched the wall unbelievingly.

Rose-colored wallpaper. He was in his own room. He had spent one night at home. Alice was sitting in the rocker.

"It's after eleven. Dad waited for you to get up, then went to the garage. He wants to talk to you.

He looked at her, then swallowed. "They sent someone after me." She nodded. "Tommy, for Rick's sake and mine, go downstairs. People have to know the truth. Much as you hate it, tell them every.

"I'll be down in a few minutes." As soon as Ma heard him coming, she ran to him. "I couldn't chase him away, Tommy, He told me all about you, more than the newspapers did." "It's all right, Ma." He turned to the man and sighed. "Hello, Mac-Carthy. Did you use bloodhounds to trace me?"

"No, just common sense. I figured you were homesick. Don't you realize you're the first man who escaped from the Jap prison camp on Corregidor? Now the others on the island are free but you're still the important one. It's as if you paved the way for them." He nod-"We should have let you come home first but the people needed to hear your story right away. That's why we booked you solid for bond rallies and lectures." "I won't run away again, MacCarthy. I needed one smell of home to make me mad all over again at what the Japs made me and mine lose." He swung around to MacCar thy. "O. K., what's the day's sched-

An unprecedented compact was drawn up and signed by all members of the large aristocracy of Ragusa, now Dubrovnik, Yugoslavia when it was annexed to Austria in 1814 and lost its status as a sovereign state. Consequently, these proud people were so humiliated that they entered into an agreement to die out by not having children. Therefore, their sons remained single, their daughters entered con vents, and eventually the entire Ragusan nobility, with the exception of two families, achieved extinction.

State Highway Aid

New Jersey was the first state to take a definite step in the matter of state co-operation in building roads, and with the passage of a state-aid law in the state in 1891, a new era in road building was begun. The control of state-aid funds was first vested in the president of the state board of agriculture, but in 1894 an act creating the office of commissioner of highways was

But there are other wrong ideas, which are definitely harmful to public confidence in and understanding of industry. One such idea is the current "guessing" about profits made by large business organizations. Many people are apt to grossly exaggerate the money made b

Wages and materials consur nearly all of every dollar Harvester takes in from sales. Future Prices on I H Products

It is plain that price relief will be needed to meet the increased wage and material costs which we must carry.

We regret this necessity. We prefer to lower prices, when possible, rather than raise them and we know our customers prefer to have us do that. We had hoped to be able to "hold the line," at least.

But we do not see how we can avoid operating at a loss if our prices continue to remain at their esent frozen levels. We will NOT "cut corners" on any of our products, because QUALITY IS THE FOUNDATION OF OUR

BUSINESS. Our customers can be certain that we will seek no more than a moderate profit, both because of our policies and because we have approximately 300 competitors ighting us vigorously for your business. Our request for price relief will be no more than is necessary to insure continued service to our customers, continued work for our employees, and a reasonable return for our stockholder
