"Miser" Lindemuth was practic ing surf casting back on Barbara St., but wasn't very pleased with the results. -His line got M tangled in the telephone wires. "Jug Head" says when he gets good at it he can go along trout fishing with him.

Then there's fishing de luxe! J. Roy Eshleman wanted to go fishing but didn't want to miss the baseball game, so he took a radio along. He never did hear the game. The batteries went dead on the ----'Stuff!

A chap on Manheim street spent H an afternoon at Lancaster recently and among other things he "took in" a movie. When he saw two professional women wrestlers in action he openly remarked: "Now wouldn't that be nice to come home to?"

A lady at this end of Florin put out two rows of early cabbage and put white caps over them to protect them from the frost. A fellow down the road apiece, seeing these, asked: "When does Camp Meeting start?"

Just to show you those con traptions the women call hats aren't always hats, here's what happened according to a fellow at FISHING CONTEST RULES Kinderhook. When he was overseas, he visited Paris. There in a 5 and 10 he bought his girl a ridiculous lampshade for a quarter Mailed it to her and told her it was an exclusive Paris creation. She wore it proudly and in return sent him a box of goodies every week.

They say clothes make the man, but with a woman they just serve to show how she's been made.

Followed a dame driving a car down from Harrisburg and on a straight stretch of road she starts flinging her hand out the window, up then down, over and across, zigged and zagged, until she had me just about nuts trying to figure what she was gonna do, so I'd know if it was safe to pass her. Finally she stopped and I stopped too asking: "Lady, were you signalling all those didos the last two miles, just to stop here?" "Oh, no," she sweetly replied, "I was drying my nail polish."

One of our Senior boys says that what this country really needs is a lipstick that will stay on the person it was originally meant for.

Sitting in a diner last night heard a truck driver complain to the cock about the lousy meal he had been served: "Look," said the cook, "I've been cookin' for ten years." And the trucker cracked: "You oughta be just about done by now." ---- So before the hash flew, I made a hasty exit.

There's a blonde in the west ward who's in quite a pickle. She met a Bainbridge, Md., sailor during our Home Coming celebration last year and they have been corresponding for sometime. Now he's in Pacific waters and wrote and asked her for a lock of her send a representative to this meet-Bires ss hair, but she can't remember what color it was last year.
