Farmer Routed Four Men With Shot Gun

State Police are investigating report received from Elam Shenk thirty-five, Elizabethtown R3, who said he routed four men from his farm with shotgun blasts at 10:30 p.m. the other night and believed he may have wounded one of them. Shenk said he and his wife. Hilda, were returning from a prayer meeting held near Milton Grove when they became suspicious of an auto bearing four men which was parked near his farm, along the Colebrook-Mount Gretna Road.

Shenk said he jotted down the license number of the car. He said he saw the four men get out of the car and start to walk across the fields toward the farmhouse. Driving to the house, Shenk obtaied a 12-gauge single-barrel shotgun and called out to the men, ordering them to stop and get off his property. He said that when they kept on walking toward the house, he fired into the air. When they continued to come toward the house, Shenk said he reloaded the shotgun and fired again-this time at a lower range. He told police the four men then ran back to their car, parked some 700 feet

According to Shenk the men drove away, but as they passed of the men shouted: "Those shots Hall Monday evening, for the appeared toward Mount Gretna. The license tags on the car, police of Lebanon R4.
