26th Annual Community Show Opened Today

No folks, you're wrong, Barnum & Bailey's big circus isn't coming to town. Those large tents you Died From Inhaling see on Henry street will shelter a far more interesting show than Barnum ever dreamed of.

This is the week of Mount Joy's Farm Show but our sponsors have always thought that title a bit common so we "put on the dog" and call it a Community Exhibit; which is exactly what it is. Almost everything grown thruout this community will be on display from a tiny squash to a mammoth pumpkin, corn, tobacco, hogs, choice beeves, lambs, school work, canned goods, fancy work, etc., etc.

We will decide just who is the Champion corn husker in the county and that isn't the only championship to be decided during our show.

We will find out just who is who on quoit beds as that championship too will be decided.

Also to be determined is whose youngster built the fastest scooter, who has the best horse, double team, and many other "bests."

Don't miss our big show this week or you'll re-
