May Get New 4-Laner Lancaster In The Spring

G. Graybill Diehm Is Named For $10,500 Post By Gov. Jas. Duff

GOP Chairman and County Commissioner, G. Graybill Diehm, of Lancaster, Friday was named by Gov. James H. Duff to a $10,500 post of chairman of the Common-

90

90 a 150

wn

ud

better

210

6 180

SS

for

ZINE

2

100

190

29c

150

270

G. GRAYBILL DIEHM wealth's new Tax Equalization Board with authority to set up a new yardstick for education sub-

Created by the 1947 session of the State Legislature the board was given broad powers to deter (Turn to Page 2)

Asks Court to Confirm Building Lot Sale

another borough resident to sell him a building lot.

George Rice asks the Court to turned later to rob, compel Earl S. and Barbara Snyder to sell him the lot for $500. He contends that they previously entered into an agreement, but that later the Snyders broke it.

Then, he says, on April 3, 1947 try Day School, 120 N. Lime St., Robert Gephart, Robert Connor, they requested a written memor- which netted him $7, and the theft Henry Zerphey, Donald Leedom, ty-three, Bainbridge, was recomandum. He complied with their of $35 in cash from Mabel Hagen Benjamin Hess, Paul McGarvey, Snyder returned a $5 down pay- Police said Habecker also admitted ment and cancelled the agreement. Rice says he wants to build a home on the lot in order to be near his daughter and son-in-law. MANHEIM YOUTH JAILED

29 From West Green Tree Church Aided

Pennsylvania, Washington and Virginia shared in the work of heim, on Monday, processing relief goods at the Haley, accompanied by a juve-Saturday, November 15, young people and adults falling in to of the United States.

Door to door collections in Mifflin County, Pa., Chestnut Hill, Pa., SO SAIETH THE COURT and Richmond, Va., and its ten surrounding counties, on November 14, 15 and 16, have been won-(Turn to Page 5)

THE LANDISVILLE LIONS HEAR FOUR HS PUPILS

Four members of the public Landisville Fire Hall.

They were Jack Longenecker, Theresa Mohler, Ann Shenck and Lee Forney. Also guests at the meeting were officials of Marietta and Mountville Lions clubs.

HALTED NEAR SALUNGA AWAITED ANGLE IRONS

Last week the Lancaster Iron Dexter, N. Y. Being too large to accessories. haul by train it was sent over the highways by tractor-trailer. The be appreciated. first day out it was halted a short distance west of Salunga until HUNTED BEAR - NO LUCK special angle irons could be proor any day after dark.

Harrisburg, there is every indi cation that Route 230, from Lanaster to Harrisburg, thru here, is be given further consideration Announcement of the new proect indicated that the State exects to continue the process of eliminating bad curves and narrow roadways on dangerous hills on the Harrisburg Pike until a complete new road can be built. Finishing touches are being com-oleted on the construction of a third lane on three hills between Elizabethtown and Middletown. This job was started in September after Governor James H. Duff ordered the start of immediate work to improve the road.

(Turn to page 3)

Dedicated Memorial To War's Service Men

The East Hempfield Twp. area War II servicemen.

Lt. Gov. Daniel B. Strickler adlressed 600 persons at the dedi-

Strickler's speech in the East Hempfield High School auditorium Thaver, Landisville, presented the honor plaques and Donald L. Mease, a veteran, accepted. Members of the Boy and

(Turn to Page 2)

LOCAL YOUTH IS JAILED ON BURGLARY CHARGES

Joseph Nissley Habecker, twenon a series of burglary and larceny charges following a hearing Tuesday afternoon before Alderman J Edward Wetzel. City and State Police allege Habecker, while emthe County Court House to compel ployed as a painter's helper made mental pictures of the interior of places where he worked and re-

Prosecution was brought by Cpl. V. E. Simpson, of the State Police and City Detective Frank Matt $60 from the home of Martha M. Morris as assistant chief. Rice states that first he made an Kauffman, 890 Pleasure Road; two oral agreement with the Snyders. burglaries at the Lancaster Counrequest, he says, but later Mrs. and Violet Hass at 539 Locust St. Leroy Hess and Harold Heisey, on two largery charges breaking into and looting a greenhouse and school near Mt. Joy.

TO AWAIT A HEARING

Lon H. Haley, II, nineteen, Manheim, was arrested by State Police Thursday on charges of malicious mischief and jailed in default of bail for a hearing before Justice of the Peace L. W. Musser, Man-

Church World Service Center, nile, painted an inscription in letters 20 inches high on a barn on the farm of Andrew Hackman, help send on the clothing, bedding, Manheim R2, on Oct. 31, according shoes, etc., received from all parts to police. The inscription read, "Nosey? Yes," police said.

Arthur H. Brown, 114 Columbia Ave., this boro, was ordered to Flam M. Bomberger, assistant Elizabethtown, $18 weekly for support of three children.

James H. Riedel, 502 Rockland subject of banking as part of the St., Lancaster, was ordered to pay class's observance of American his former wife, Martha Miller, Education Week. speaking class at E. Hempfield Salunga, $5 weekly for support of Twp, High School gave talks at one child. He was $425 behind in SALUNGA GARAGE WORKER the meeting of the Landisville payments but it was agreed that HAD 2 FINGERS MASHED Lions Club Tuesday night at the this would be erased if future payments are made.

CPEN FOR BUSINESS

Mr. Wallace Zerphey has open- hand, on Saturday morning. ed his service station at 130 East Main Street, and is ready to serve you with a complete line of Sin- the general hospital at Lancaster. clair products

"Wally" will service, wash or LOST HIS LICENSE polish your car, offers battery ser-Works shipped a 40-ton tank to vice, Goodyear tires, also other

A share of your patronage will

Bill Bair, Jerry Sheetz, Raver cured It required a special permit Miller, Elwood Nentwig and Jetter to ship by highway and the tank Grove spent Sunday to Tuesday at may not travel Saturdays, Sun- Slate Run in Lycoming County, permission to raise rents, were hunting for bear

LEGION AND AUXILIARY

t the home of Mrs. Henry Haines

Mrs. Marvin Foltz, who was the delegate at the County Council in Manheim Twp., Mrs. Ray Neis on

Rehabitation, Mrs. Haines on

Americanism, and Mrs. Irvin Nei-ported that the membership quote

Thursday evening, Dec. 4th,

the Legion asd the Auxiliary in

Brief News Of

The Day From

The Penna, R. R. paid $40,000 for killing a man rather than argue

To date thirty-two persons were killed on the highways in Lancas-

At Detroit nine men and two of their wives are held for conduct-

Robert T. Copenhaver, fifty-nine, operator of a large dairy parked at Lancaster, and stole between $700 and $800 worth of the Broadleaf and Havana variety,

A York taxi company discharged a driver for negligence. All other cab drivers in the city quit and there has been no cab service furnishings and jewelry.

at 70 to 75 cents per pound.

MAN RECOMMITTED TO

JAIL ON LARCENY COUNTS

Following a hearing before Jus tice of the Peace J. B. Herr, Lititz,

Thursday night, Roy Raber, twen-mitted to prison in default of bail

ing a new and used car racket.

Local Dailies

the case in Federal court.

ter county by automobiles.

hanged himself.

the Maytown High School.

of 96 was reached.

Package Fund

Between West of Salunga The Mount Joy Bulletin

VOL. XLVII, NO. 25

Mount Joy, Pa., Thursday Afternoon, November 20, 1947

$2.00 a Year in Advance

Struck By a Truck After Alighting From School Bus Thursday

of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Peifer, Lancaster R1, was seriously injured at 3:40 p.m. Thursday when he was struck by a truck after alighting from a school bus on a township road one mile northeast of Landisville.

The child who had attended Education Week exercises at the East Hempfield Twp. Schools with two cousins, was admitted to the Lancaster General Hospital with a fractured skull and a severe lacer- there will be a joint meeting of ation of the forehead.

Hospital attendants early Friday aid he was in a serious condition State Policeman Oreszko said that the driver of the school bus. dedicated its memorials to World Robert Getz, Lancaster R8, tolo him he pulled off the road (Turn to Page 4)

A MUSICAL PROGRAM AT TUESTAY'S ROTARY

Music had the floor at Tuesday highlighted the program during Rotary meeting and the program which 214 men and women from was directed by Mr. Willard Newthat area were honored, John K. ton, Music Supervisor of our schools. A trio consisting of Nancy Myers, Helen Booth, and Barbara Ranck, and accompanied by Nancy Brooks sang "Thanks Be To God" and "I Passed By Your Window." A soprano solo, "The Lord's Pray er" was given by Nancy Myers, and a piano solo, "Golliwogs Cakewalk" and "Praelubium" by Barty, of town, was jailed for court bara Ranck, Mr. R. R. Bickner was a guest of Clarence Schock, with visiting Rotarians Jim Campbell of Hanover, Jess Snavely of Lancaster and Frank McFerran of Lititz.

Mount Joy Schools Form A Fire Patrol

chief of the Mount Joy school fire who charged him with the theft of patrol for the term with Victor

Other members of the patrol include: Jack Eberle, Clark Derr, second floor.

Richard Sheetz, George Germer, Norman Linton, Everett Metzler, Robert Shank, Lowell Sumpman, Glenn Bailey, James Brandt, John Ressler, Robert Divet, Edward Pennell, Robert Kramer, Karl Max, Glenn Shupp, Elwood Rice, and James Hornafius, first floor. Elton Bomberger, Health Room, Donald Starr and Richard Taylor. boy's shower; Betty Mark and Mary Fitzkee, girls' shower, Rich-Tyndall, William Garber and Lee Ranck will have charge of the doors. Donald Young and Rose Neiss will patrol the auditorium.

A Bainbridge Resident MR. E. M. BOMBERGER SPOKE MR. E. M. BOMBERGER SPOKE IS Crushed To Death Thursday morning, Nov. 13, Mr.

Russel "Jo" Cooper, Salunga

employed at Spahr's Garage, Manheim, had the misfortune of smashing two fingers on the right

Last week the State withdrew number of drivers licenses, seven teen of which were from this locality. Among them was A. S.

Martin, Bainbridge R1, as an im-

Eighty-four percent of the landlords in the county, who asked

RENTS WILL BE HIKED

given the go-ahead signal.

competent driver.

A 25-year-old Bainbridge man employed on a pipe line construcpay his wife, Sue, 336 E. High St., cashier of the First National Bank tion job near Joliet, Ill., was crushspoke to the members of the ed to death at 10 a.m. Friday by a Eighth Grade math class on the 20-foot section of pipe which fell into a trench where he was workcompany said.

The man, Russell Charles Keck, mer Keck, was killed instantly, according to spokesmen for the Whittacker Construction Company, (Turn to Page 4)

STRUCK A PARKED CAR

Dr. Brenner administered first Naomi Huber, of Lancaster, aid and he was then admitted to ould not manipulate a turn and truck a parked car owned by Eli Mumma, of Landisville. She said she struck the vehicle when she took the corner too wide.

One Day Earlier

As our publication day falls or a holiday next week, The Bulletin will be published a day earlier. Advertisers and correspondents please bear this in mind.

JOINT MEETING OF AMERICAN Mortuary American Legion Auxiliary of Record In Donegal Unit 809, Maytown, met Maytown Reports were given by This Section

at Elizabethtown yesterday.

the oldest woman in the county to man membership chairman, re- hold a fishing license, died Mon- association president, and Walter

Donations for Christmas were Hospital where he had been a will be in charge of the area meetgiven to Coatesville, Perry Point and Valley Forge Hospitals, also patient since Thursday. an extra donation for Christmas

Mrs. William Dommel

Mrs. Rhoda Mae Dommel, thirtynine, wife of William Dommel Florin, died at 4:20 p.m. Wednes day in the Lancaster General Hospital. She was a daughter of the late Reuben and Minnia Metzger Nentwig, and a member of the Evangelical United Brethren Church of Florin. Besides her hus band, she is survived by two children: Wilma Jane and William Carlton Dommel, both at home Also these brothers and sisters survive: Minnie, wife of Paris Henry, Millersville RD; Anna, wife of Raymond Heisey, and Martin Nentwig, both of Rheems; and Howard Nentwig, Manheim

The funeral will be held from the Sheetz funeral home here Sat-(Turn to page 3)

THE TOMES, AT MAYTOWN MADE A LUCKY ESCAPE

farm near Stewartstown, York Co., Mr. and Mrs. John Tome, May town, escaped injury when a coa A thief broke a window in a car oil stove exploded while they were is the kitchen of their home. A neighbor, Harold Engle, prevented a serious fire when he rushed into Three major firms are buying the house and carried the blazing tobacco thruout Connecticut, of stove outside.

The Maytown Fire Co. responded to a call. Only the stove wa damaged, firemen reported.

Mrs. S. Simmons Heads Farm Women Society

Warfel with twenty-four members, admittance of three new members and several visitors.

Police charged Raber, who had of Mrs. Jay Greider.

been rooming for several months The following officers were Frank Hassinger, George Fitzkee, in Lititz, with the theft of a gold elected: President, Mrs. Samue watch removed from a room ad- Simmons; Vice President, Miss joining his. Police claim that they Ruth Eby; Corresponding Secrerecovered a shirt and a box of tary, Mrs. Alvin Riest; Recording candy belonging to Ralph Miller, Secretary, Mrs. David Witmer; Lititz, also the owner of the watch, Treasurer, Mrs. Levi Nissley. and a suitcase filled with women's Donations were given to wearing apparel. Borough officials Friendship Train. A Christmas said that this has been identified gift to a family in Holland and the as the suitcase stolen from an au- Crispus Attucts Center. Mrs. Robert Forney of Elizatempbile parked at the rear of the Pennsylvania Power and Light Co. bethtown, gave many ideas on ard Martin, Eugene Bender, Jack building about a month ago. It decorations for the Christmas was the property of Harry Adams. Holidays. Miss Yvonne Cook, Lancaster

County's Home Extension leader gave an interesting talk on colors for the home and suitability of colors to the persons temper and

WAS TAKEN ILL WHILE ATTENDING DUQUESNE II.

Mr. J. Statler Kuhn, local Real Estate broker, who has been attending Duquesne University, at ing, officials of the construction Pittsburgh, collapsed in a restaurant in that city. He was taken to a hospital where examination disson of Charles E. and Edna Bal- closed he had suffered a stomach hemorrhage due to ulcers. His condition is reported as satis-

Week's Birth Record

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shank, Maytown, a son Sunday at the St. Joseph's Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Garber, AMERICAN LEGION SMOKER Elizabethtown R1, a son, at 10:55 a.m. Thursday, at the Lancaster General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ober, 203 W. Main St., a son, at 11:37 p.m. annual Christmas party. Friday, at the Lancaster General Hospital.

LETTERS GRANTED

tors for Elmer M. Bernhard.

MANUFACTURERS' ASSN. TO MEET HERE NOV. 21

Clyde E. Gerberich, a past president of the Lancaster Manufacturers' Association, will be the princ ipal speaker at the second regional meeting to be held by that organ-Clayton R. Groff, seventy-nine, ization on Friday, Nov. 21. The meeting will be held at Hostetter's Mrs. Caroline E. Mahler, ninety, Dining Hall, here, at 6:30 p.m. Gerberich will join D. R. Long,

C. Miller, association secretary, in David E. Good, seventy-nine, of discussing local production prob-Elizabethtown, died in St. Joseph's lems, Ira L. Risser, Elizabethtown, Officials said the meeting is being held especially for manufacturers of Lititz, Manheim, Landisville, Florin, Mount Joy and Eliza-

The Affairs At Florin For Past Week

Mr. and Mrs. H. Roy Nissly returned home after spending a two was killed and later found. week's vacation in Cuba and Florida

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leedom, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Witmer and Miss Elizabeth Hess were Saturday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elam Hess.

Mrs. R. W. Roberts of Mechancsburg spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Hershey.

Mrs. Frank Breneman of Elizabethtown and Mrs. Robert Brene-Rawlinsville called on Mrs. N. E. an auto accident. Hershey on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Samuel Shelley and Mr. RAPHO TOWNSHIP FARM

Donald Eichler spent Tuesday at WAS WITHDRAWN AT SALE Lancaster. Mrs. Elmer Schlegelmilch, Mr.

end at Huntington Co. Mrs. Emma Peifer spent several (Turn to page 4)

A SOCIAL WELFARE AGENCY WILL BE FORMED HERE

Our Borough will have a social velfare agency that corresponds to Lancaster's welfare federation. Fifteen prominent citizens applied for a charter of incorporation HUNTING TRIP TO MD. n Common Pleas Court this week. naintaining, promoting, and coor-Mt Joy Borough and vicinity"

Names of incorporators were listed as John A. Bachman, Joseph T. M. Breneman, Thomas J. B. Brown, Clyde E. Gerberich, Lester Hostetter, Mrs. Arthur C. Mayer, Lester Mumma, Mrs. Clarence S. Newcomer, Clarence Schock, Walter G. Sloan, Paul K. Stehman, Paul L. Stoner, W. L. Tyndall, Christ Walters, and Harry G. Wal-

STARR'S GROCERY STORE HERE CHANGES OWNERS

Mr. and Mrs O. L. Starr have sold their grocery store business on North Barbara Street, to Mr. friends. Huber Oberholtzer and daughter, Esther, who will take possession is spending some time with Mr. December 1st.

The Oberholtzers will continue Daisy Mowrer. the business at the same stand, saving leased the store room from daughter, Susie, of Harrisburg, the Starr's.

NO ACTUAL CONSTRUCTION IN IMMEDIATE FUTURE

While a survey on Route 441 beplanned, no actual construction is Hospital in Philadelphia. foreseen in the immediate future, according to a letter received by LANDISVILLE FIRM the borough's Planning Commis- GETS A TRADE NAME sion today from Lt.-Gov. Daniel B. Strickler. Marietta is continuing Hill

Friday evening, November 21st,

smoker in the Fire House. Pro- time to time at Landisville. ceeds to be used for the childrens

SUES FOR A DIVORCE

Libel in divorce: Beulah M. Eva Parret, Elizabethtown, and er, Main St., Mount Joy, Desertion, were attending church services in March 5, 1947.

Local Affairs In General Briefly Told

A 1942 automobile sold at public sale at Lancaster for $1,575.00.

The first real snow of this season fell here Saturday, Nov. 15. Raymond H. Fox, aged three, o near Ephrata, choked to death on

At Quarryville the citizens dedicated a beautiful Memorial Park last Sunday Over at Columbia 800 persons have not as yet paid their 1946 per Clarence Ashton, 46, a native of Columbia, was killed in an ac- Bailey, Treasurer and Wm. Tyncident at Detroit.

A spelling bee will be held in the high school auditorium at Manheim Nov. 22. A four point buck deer was struck and killed by a motorist near Brickerville. Monroe Miller, sixty-six, night watchman at a Lititz factory, fell,

"Tiny" the pet dog of Elmer Heisey was killed last Wednesday at Florin by an automobile. The Manheim High School has used in the teaching safe-driving Mrs. Anna Selfridge, a nurse at the Masonic Homes. Elizabethtown was injured in an auto crash in received its dual control car to be Lebanon county. Harry Labezius, 82, Pequea R1 was killed and his two sons aged man and daughter, Barbara of 41 and 49 were badly injured in

A farm located near Ruhl's Church on the road leading from Edw. Henderson spent the week Route 72 to Union Square, and composed of 70 acres and 120 perches, was withdrawn when bidlays at Mount Joy, with Mr. and ding reached $114 an acre at a car garage and chicken house. El-

A VERY SUCCESSFUL

Messrs. John Messinger, Phila- Auto Mishaps delphia; "Chie" Beyer, Lansdov Paul Halloway and T. Sawyer, of dinating the social welfare needs of Pine Hill, N. J.; Jno. W. Eshelman Jr., Lancaster, and Jno. E. Schroll. of town, spent several day at their (except the latter) hunting and fishing lodge, the former Walter Chrysler hunting lodge, at Todd's Point. Md They were very successful, bagging a large number of ducks and the season's limit of

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brinser moved to Elizabethtown on Mon

Mrs. Frank Brian spent several days at Baltimore, Md. visiting Mrs. Lottie Murr, of Lancaste and Mrs. Albert Myers and Mrs. Mrs. Dorothy L. Dickson and made a brief visit to the editor's 62 LICENSES REVOKED nome last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Billow of North Jacob st. visited their

Jesse Snavely, Jr., Landisville; FRACTURED HIS ANKLE J. William Snavely, 716 N. Marits effort to eliminate Chickies shall St.; James and Jere Snavely, fered a fractured left ankle while both of Landisville to use the playing soccer at school Tuesday, name Snavely Lumber Co. for and was treated at the General buying and selling lumber and Hospital. such other allied activities as may the American Legion will hold a be mutually agreed upon from HAD FINGER AMPUTATED

THIEVES ROB PARSONAGE

Rev. and Mrs. Ralph T. Baily, pas- Hospital. tor of the Kinderhook Evangelical Felker, Florin, vs. Lloyd G. Felk- Congregational Church, while they 26-A. FARM BRINGS $10,420 and $17 in cash.

70th Anniversary of Casiphia Lodge Here

Casiphia Lodge No. 551, Free and Accepted Masons of Mount Joy, will celebrate their seventieth anniversary on Thursday evening at 7:00 p.m. at Hostetter's Banquet Hall where a turkey dinner will be served More than 100 members and visitors from Mount Joy, Florn, Landisville, Elizabethtown, Columbia, Marietta, Lancaster, Manheim, Ephrata and Harrisburg and other communities will be The officers are O. K. Snyder, Worshipful Master: George H. Shenck, Senior Warden; Fred H. Koser, Junior Warden; Maurice N.

dall, Secretary. Dr. D. L. Biemesderfer, dent of Millersville State Teachers' College will be the principal speaker, O. K. Snyder will deliver the address of welcome; Edgar L. Eshleman, history of the lodge, and Ralph F. Esnleman will be the song leader. The Stewards are C. Raymond Gilbert and Paul Hipple.

Donegal Presbyterian Men's Club Meeting

The Donegal Presbyterian Men's Club held their annual Clam Bake and Oyster Supper Thursday evening, November 13, 1947, at 7 p.m. at the Church House at Donegal Springs, Fifty-two men and boys were present, including visitors from the Mount Joy Presbyterian Men's Club. Mr. Samuel Simmons. Instructor in Vocational Agricul ture at the Maytown High School spoke briefly and introduced the prize winners in the F. F A Judging Contest which he conducted under the sponsorship of the egal Men's Club at the Masonic Homes at Elizabethtown on Octopublic sale held Thursday after- ber 7. They were as follows: Lester noon by Jacob R. Myer. The farm Hawthorne, first, $10.00; Franklin also includes a frame dwelling Fair, second, $7.00; Harry Hershey, house, barn, new cement silo, three Jr., third, $5.00; Arthur Sieguist, fourth, $4.00; Curtis Sieguist, fifth, mer V. Spahr was the auctioneer. $3.00; Richard Humbert, sixth,

(Turn to page 3)

Kenneth H. White, 19, Washington Boro, and his brother, Ira M. White, Jr., 20, were injured when the driver fell asleep and their car struck a pole, knocking it off.

Lady Was Injured Parthene Hess, forty-two, Elizabethtown R3, suffered a bruised forehead and chipped tooth when the car in which she was riding, driven by Paul Hess, Jr., twenty, Elizəbethtown R3, and an auto operated by Herman A. Warfel, thirty-nine, Lancaster R3, collided at Lemon and Prince Sts., Lancaster, ### at 12:30 p.m. Saturday. ARTHUR SWEIGART WAS HONORED BY ROTARY CLUB Arthur Sweigart, Senior at East Donegal Twp. High School, Maytown, was selected as "Boy of the Month" by the Maytown-Eainbridge Rotary Club, in recognition of his outstanding work in voca# tional agriculture.

During the week ending Oct. 31. the Bureau of Highway Safety withdrew the cards of 513 drivers. daughter Eleanor, on Sunday. She Of this number 62 were revoked tween Marietta and Columbia is is under treatment at the Graduats and 451 suspended. Operating privileges were restored to 305. Withdrawals were 132 more than the preceding week.

David Snavely, Landisville, suf-

John McDonald, forty-five, Washington Boro, lost his right middle finger on a plane at work Tuesday Thieves entered the home of the He was treated at the General

Harry N. Sauder, near Rohrers-Howard Bernhard, Florin, execu- Married Feb. 27, 1947; separated Columbia, and stole between $15 town, sold his 26-acre farm to to Raymond Miller for $10,420.