while avoiding a collision with an auto in Landisville, at the intersection of Church Street, and the Harrisburg pike, at 6 a.m. Monday. Thirty-five other passengers on the bus escaped injury.

The injured, Mary Kato, thirty-seven, 1019 Ohio Ave., Trenton, N. J., and Catherine Wible, twenty, Butler Rd., Pa., a student at Millersville State Teachers College, were treated by Dr. J. T. Herr, Landisville, for bruises of the head.

The impact tore a gaping three-foot hole in the left rear side of the bus, which was disabled. Passengers were transferred to another bus at the scene.

Robert Parker, thirty-two, Philadelphia, operator of the bus, known as the Harrisburg-Philadelphia Express, told State Police-Stauffer's Lanco store, Landisville, headed east on the Harrisburg pike, an unidentified motorist pulled out of Church street in front of his vehicle and headed west. Parker applied his brakes and swerved to avoid hitting the auto but the bus went into a skid and the left rear side of the bus hit the pole on the left side of the pike.

No one was injured in a two-car collision on an ice-coated hill on the Harrisburg pike, one mile west of Elizabethtown at 3 a.m. Saturday morning.

Auto-Truck Crash

A truck-auto crash on the Harrisburg pike, one mile east of Elizabethtown, investigated by State Policeman Bateman at 12:15 p.m. Friday also was blamed on icy roads.

According to Bateman, Arthur S. Hollinger, thirty-two, Bainbridge, was coming out of the Old Church road when his car skidded through a stop sign and was struck by a panel truck, operated west on the Harrisburg pike by Carl K. Lora, twenty-seven, Saundersburg. Damage to the truck was estimated at $300 and the auto at $50, police said. No one was injured.

We Want to Serve
You in 1948!

We are your home-town hardware store—an independent retail organization not affiliated with any "chain". We know that the only way in which we can get your business is by deserving it! We realize that we must either sink or swim through the quality of our merchandise—the fairness of our price—and the friendliness of our service. Other things being equal, we think most hometown folks like to deal with a home-town merchant. After all, it's a lot more pleasant doing business with people you know as friends. Drop in the next time you are in need of a hardware item. Not because we are entitled to your business—but because our merchandise and prices and service justify your patronage!
