goes into its pre-campaign week with a number of solicitors still needed in Lancaster county for the opening on March 1.

Goal for Lancaster's share of the $75,000,000 national fund is $96,400. The "kick-off" dinner for campaign workers is scheduled for March 1, at the Hotel Brunswick.

Hugh Hartman, New Holland, county chairman, in announcing divisional chairmen and district leaders, said that a number of volunteer solicitors are still needed to make possible a complete coverage of rural districts.

The following appointments have been made by Hartman:

Eastern division, the Rev. Geo. W. Wilt, New Holland, chairman; East Lampeter Twp., Frank Weaver, Bird-in-hand; Paradise Twp., (Turn to Page 2)

Twenty Schools In DAR Contests

Twenty local high schools are participating in the annual contests sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution as part of that organization's work with youth.

All of the twenty schools are entering contestants in the annual Good Citizenship competition and three of the schools conduct the essay contests.

In recognition for the local pupils competing in the contest, Donegal Chapter will entertain the "Good Citizens" from the 18 schools at the chapter meeting on May 13 when each will be awarded a pin and certificate.

The schools represented in the Donegal sponsored contest are: Lititz.
