

OWL LAFFS The Tennis Court

—BY— A WISE OWL

I have been doing a lot of fishing down at Safe Harbor lately, and I'm now convinced that fishermen are very honest people. — If you'd see the size of some of those salmon they hook, land and lock at longingly, then toss back to the river, you'd know what I mean. — It sure is a temptation not to wait til July 1st.

John Miller says: The best way to get a lasting finish on your car is try and beat the train to the crossing.

Two girls in front of Gorrecht's Jewelry Store looking longingly at the diamonds said: "I think he loves me but he never comes right out with anything I can put on my finger."

A simple countryman saw a gaudy parrot on the roof of his cottage. He climbed up to capture it. The parrot looked at him and said sharply, "What do you want?"

The countryman touched his cap "Beg pardon sir, I thought you were a bird."

Dick aged three, did not like soap and water. One day his mother was trying to reason with him. "Surely you want to be a clean little boy, don't you?" "Yes, but can't you just dust me?" tearfully replied Dick.

Met Dumb Dora for the first time in weeks and she told me she always thought a drydock was a thirsty physician.

The trouble with helping someone else up the ladder is so often you get kicked in the face.

A little advice to the newlyweds: Despite the high cost of travel, crowded hotels and the boredom of spending several days in a town in which you know only one person, every man should accompany his bride on the honeymoon. It may be the last vacation he ever gets.

When Noah sailed the ocean blue, He had his troubles like me and you Days and days he driv his ark Before he saw a place to park.

Heard at Sloan's: Sally asked, "What's your idea of a simple wedding?" Joan answered, "One that costs only twice as much as the family can afford."

A farmer whose clock had run down was sending his boy to town to get the correct time. "But Pa, I can't bring the correct time. I have no watch." "What do you want a watch for?" said the farmer. "If you can't remember, write it down on a piece of paper."

Some men who would not think of talking with their mouths full insist on talking with their head empty. One look at some of the brassiere ads is enough to convince us that honesty is no longer the bust policy.

We had an air mail message from Buck Ridge Lodge in Perry Co. It read: George Mumper, please come up and feed your dog. He is lying on the front porch half starved. His ribs look like the teeth on a coarse comb.

WANTED: Someone to show Charlie Roth how to remove the spring of a window shade without letting the spring unwind. Also how to handle a broken lamp shade without cutting one's fingers.

That is all I can manage now. Why? Cause it is Circus Day! A WISE OWL

GRETTA PLAYHOUSE OPENS SUMMER SEASON TONIGHT

Barry Macolum, famous Irish actor, plays the role of Mr. DePenna in "You Can't Take It With You," riotous comedy which opens the summer season at the Gretna Playhouse, Mt. Gretna, Pa., Thursday night, June 10th.

The veteran performer has played with all the great names in the past quarter of a century both on stage and screen.

"You Can't Take It With You," opening play on the Mt. Gretna stage, is the Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman comedy which went on to become a smash hit in the movies after a successful run on Broadway.

This Thursday evening a benefit game of softball will be played on the Boro Park diamond here between the Mount Joy All-Stars, (the pick of our town league), vs. Marietta T. C. Depot. The game is scheduled for 6:30 p. m. The proceeds are for the benefit of an injured official.

Zula Alma Humphreys

Almos Shelly

The marriage of Miss Zula Alma Humphreys, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Humphreys, Big Island, Va., to Almos Shelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shelly from this boro, took place Sunday at 3:30 pm in Calvary Bible Church here. The Rev. C. I. Summy, pastor of the church officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Richard Ogden and she wore a white satin gown made on princess lines with a train.

Her fingertip veil fell from a wreath of flowers and she carried an arm bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Audrey Byers, as maid of honor. She wore a pink gown with satin bodice and full marquisette skirt and a headband of pink flowers. She carried a colonial bouquet of red and white carnations.

The bridesmaid, Miss Betty Shelly, sister of the bridegroom, wore a blue taffeta gown trimmed with pleated lace and a blue headband. Her colonial bouquet was of pink carnations. The flower girl was Londa Jane Boyd, who wore a white dotted Swiss frock and carried a basket of pink rosebuds and blue bachelor buttons.

Rufus Shelly served as best man for his brother and the ushers were John Henry Brubaker and Jessie Gingrich.

Mrs. John Henry Brubaker had played the wedding music and the soloists were Miss Margaret Clinton and Ezra Wolgemuth.

After a reception at the home of the bride the couple left on a wedding trip to Virginia.

The bride is a graduate of the Philadelphia School of the Bible and the bridegroom is a graduate of the Bible Institute of Pa. They are candidates of the Ceylon and India General Mission, awaiting appointment to India.
