A WISE OWL

Sunday night was a wakeful nite for some residents of the East end of Florin due to an expected blessed event. After several hours of tention "Kitty" finally became the mother of six little mouse catchers. Congratulations.

"Can you tell me why fire engines are always red?" I heard a fire house chair holder downer ask. And the fellow sitting next to him explained: "Well fire engines have four wheels and eight men. Four and eight are twelve. Twelve inches make a foot. A foot is a ruler. Queen Elizabeth was a ruler. The Queen Elizabeth sails the seven seas. Seas have fish. Fish have fins. The Finns fought the Russians. The Russians are Red. Fire engines are always rushin'. Therefore, fire engines are always red. I hope this answers your question."

I'm going to make a resolution not to drink any more, a Westender announced to his wife. Not to drink any more! What's the use of that? You couldn't possibly drink any more, his wife exclaimed.

About the time you learn to make the most of life—the most of it is gone.

With the base ball season on in full, here's an item we couldn't miss. The base ball game between Drytown and Kinderhook, which was played in a certain cow pasture, was temporarily delayed in the second inning when Gus Holmquist slid into what he thought was third base.

Both wedding and hunting licenses entitle the holder to only one deer. Our office Jim says that's an unfair sports law.

This is one about a gambler who died. The funeral was well attended by his professional friends. In the eulogy the speaker asserted: Spike is not dead. He only sleeps. From the rear of the chapel came the interrupting words, "I got 100 says he's dead."

Love makes the world go 'round but you can get the same results by swallowing a good portion of chewing tobacco.

Sunday night a roadster skidded around the corner, jumped into the air, knocked down three pedestrians, a lamp post, collided with three cars, ran thru a stone wall, mutilated a garden, crashed upon the porch of a house and came to a stop in the living room. A girl climbing out of the wreckage exclaimed: "Boy! That's what I call a kiss."

Go and never darken my door again said the old woman to the little pup.

Elmer told us this one: The courtroom was crowded as the judge finished his lecture to the defendant in a divorce case. So, I've decided to give your wife $50 per month.

The husband's face lit up as he smiled and said: "That's fine Judge and I'll try and slip her a couple of bucks now and then myself."

The difference between a dress-tie and a nose is that one is worn without a collar.

It sounds like a dirty dig but keep your eyes open and see for yourself. A lot of our women have stopped saving fat for the Government and are adding it to themselves.

Take a tip from radio advertising Never admit you're fat. Just say you came in the large economy size.

Marlin gave us this one: Willie on the railroad track. The engine gave a squeal;

William Ellis, who suffered a fractured hip while umpiring a League softball game here two weeks ago received approximately $63 Thursday evening at the collection from an estimated 300 fans at a benefit softball game between the All-Stars of the Mt. Joy league and the Marietta T. C. Depot. League officials decided to stage the game to aid Ellis, who presently is confined to General Hospital in Lancaster. There is no better way to boost your business than by local newspaper advertising.

The engineer just took a spade and scraped him off the wheel.

One reason romance lasted longer in the gay nineties was that a wife looked the same after washing her face.

No one can say that Tommy Germer, the Midgets second baseman, doesn't keep his eye on the ball. That beautiful shiner proves it.

The after-dinner speaker had talked for 15 minutes.

After partaking of such a meal I feel that if I had eaten any more I would be unable to talk.

From the far end of the table came an order to a waiter: "Bring him a sandwich."

Just remember it is better to remain silent and thought dumb than to speak and remove all doubt.
