Excitement As Flames Leap Out of Ground

Local Folks Visit Okla-Iowa Friends

Due to physical incapacitation of Pastor Summy the material for this article was not ready for the last week's edition. Many have asked for a running account of our trip to Oklahoma where five of us from Mount Joy were visiting several weeks ago in the homes of Pastor Lupold and his family and Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Kaplan formerly of this place. Those in the party making the trip were Mr. Ezra Wolgemuth, Miss Elizabeth Shelly, Mr. and Mrs. Miller Wolgemuth and the writer of this article, Pastor Summy.

We left Mt. Joy on Thursday evening of June 17th at 8:30 p.m. heading west to Harrisburg and the Super Highway with the State of Oklahoma as our destination. We stopped once on the Highway for refreshment for car and for body. Arriving at the western terminus of the highway we entered Wilkinsburg near midnight to be greeted by a myriad of light twinkling their silent welcome to us from Pittsburgh in the valley below. Continuing in a southwesterly direction from Pittsburgh we crossed the panhandle of West Virginia and began thinking of Cambridge and Columbus, Ohio which were before us on the (Turn to Page 5)

The flames started when Oliver Ebersole was lighting a lantern. Friendship Fire Company responded and extinguished the fire.
