time 45 dolls were entered. Marion Klein and Sandra Gordon won prizes for the dolls which looked most real. John Weaver had the largest doll while Lydia Weaver had the smallest. Vivian Gable won a prize for the funniest doll and Nancy Wachstetter had the largest family. Sandra Siehman had the prettiest doll while Marion Gerlitze had the most unusual. Eleanor Zieke's doll won the best dressed while Jane Smiths doll was most originally dressed. Mrs. Fred Gehman and two daughters Fredine and Zeldia acted as judges for the contest.

In Maytown the prizes for the pet show were won by Jerry Henderson for the eldest pet, and Shirley Flowers won the prize for the youngest. Beatrice Warner won the prize for the smallest pet with her gold fish, while Bob Marzoff won the prize for the largest pet. Mary Ann Felty won a prize for the most unusual pet, a Hamster, a rodent like animal from Europe or Asia.

Both playgrounds have been working on crafts and will continue to do so until the end of the season. Those crafts made by both Florin and Maytown children will be on exhibition at the Florin Carnival on July 31, 1949 on the Florin Hall Grounds.

The schedule of events for the following two weeks at both playgrounds will be:

FLORIN

ROSE COLORED GLASSES

We really don't have any to sell, but there seems to be an over-supply of them on all sides. Many people think they see such a rosy future that they don't even bother to save. We know, though, that the time to prepare for lean years is in the years of plenty. Hope for the best, but prepare for the worst... save... save... save...
