

American Legion Carnival at PRR Station Next Friday and Saturday, August 6 and 7

One Detour Off; Another On By-Passing Florin Coming East

Local Aviators On Breakfast Flight

Several local aviation enthusiasts took part in a breakfast flight last Sunday morning during which forty planes and about 100 pilots and passengers stopped at nearby Donegal Airport for iced fruit juice, a part of the menu.

Starting at the Lancaster Municipal Airport the flight came to Donegal Airport and then to the Gertz Airfield near Mountville and to New Holland and ended at the old airport on the Manheim Pike.

Those who participated from this vicinity are: Mr. Lloyd Nissly, Mt. Joy RD; Charles Bailey, this boro; Mr. Phares Landis and daughters, Jean and Mrs. Lloyd Nissly; Vernon Kinsey of Florin and Stephan Landis of E-town.

The eastern 100 miles of the Dream Highway will cost $87,000,000.

The Farm Women Convention At Landisville Sat.

The Lancaster County Society of Farm Women have made the plans to hold their 31st annual meeting on Saturday July 31, on the Landisville Camp Meeting grounds.

The morning session will open at 10 o'clock with Mrs. W. Scott Heisey, Society No. 8 as song leader. Devotions will be in charge of Mrs. Neil Clark, of Society No. 1. At the business session which will follow, reports will be given by Mrs. Abner H. Risser, Society No. 8, Bainbridge; Secretary, Mrs. E. E. Shreiner, Society No. 7, Paradise, tress, and Mrs. Anne Rohrer Zook, Society No. 5, Manheim, president. Mrs. Robert Humphreys, East Petersburg, will sing a solo, and a one act play, "Sisters Under The Skin" will be presented by the Society No. 15.

Following the noon recess, the afternoon session is scheduled to begin at 2:00 pm with greetings by Mrs. Richard Edwards the State President of Farm Women.

Miss Rebecca Sheaffer, Instructor of English, Millersville State Teachers College, will be guest speaker for the occasion. Marimba selections will be played by Miss Pauline Brooks, Mt. Joy and a ladies quartet will sing.

The program committee comprises Mrs. Mark Herr, chairman, Society No. 19; Mrs. Donald Weickel, Society No. 15; Mrs. Frank Lichty, Society No. 7; Mrs. Graybill Longenecker, Society No. 5; and Mrs. Samuel Simmons of Society No. 8 and Mrs. Ernest Shaub, Society No. 17.

Lion Midgets in Final With Ephrata Tues.

The back row includes, left to right; manager Clayton Newcomer, Jerry Shupp, Donald Germer, Donald Martin, Ben Brown, Ken Engle, John Bowman, Gary Ellis and coach Hank Hallgren. In the front row are Bob Hetrick, Ben Clinger, Jerry Estock, Bill Beaston, Don Fogie, Bill Zimmerman, Al Myers and Tommy Germer.

The Hank Hallgren coached, Clayton Newcomer managed and Heavy Gembling, Lee Ellis tutored Midget base ball team, sponsored by the Mount Joy Lions Club, just "mowed 'em down" right and left and are now up there for the final game with Ephrata at Lancaster next Tuesday evening. The boys won the final elimination game from Willow Street at Lancaster last evening.

MOST UP-TO-THE-MINUTE WEEKLY IN LANCASTER COUNTY

The Mount Joy Bulletin

VOL. XLVIII, NO. 9

Mount Joy, Pa., Thursday Afternoon, July 29, 1948

$2.00 a Year in Advance

Weddings Thruout Our Community During Past Week

Betty Louise Wartel
Victor K. Zerphey
Miss Betty Louise Wartel, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Wartel, Landisville and Victor K. Zerphey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Zerphey, Manheim St., were married at 2 pm Saturday in St. Marks United Brethren Church here. The Rev. Ezra H. Ranck officiated.

Mrs. Emory Charles, Jr., was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Wartel, the brides sister, and Miss Peggy Zerphey, sister of the bridegroom. Peggy Ann Broich, niece of the bride was flower girl.

Emory Charles, Jr., served as best man and Norman Wartel and Harold Kling were ushers. A reception for 75 guests was held at Bakers Diner, E-town, after which the couple left on a short wedding trip. The bride is employed by the Hamilton Watch Co. and the bridegroom is employed by O. J. Kling, Florin. The couple will live in Florin.

Erma K. Snyder
Levi R. Mummau, Jr.
Miss Erma K. Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ammon H. Snyder, E-town RI, and Levi R. Mummau, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Levi R. Mummau, E-town RI, were married in the First Church of God, E-town. The Rev. J. O. Weigle officiated.

Mrs. Merle Breneman, Mr. Joy R2, attended the bride as matron of honor. Miss Rachel Mummau, E-town RI, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Martha Yeagley, E-town RD, were bridesmaids. Merle Breneman, Mt. Joy R2, had served as best man for the bridegroom. Ushers were Robert Mummau, E-town RI, brother of the bridegroom and Gerald Hassler, Judy Ann Grove, Mt. Joy R2 was flower girl.

Elizabeth Arlene Leonard
Wayne Donald Ginder
The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Arlene Leonard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Leonard, Jr., 133 Frank St., and Wayne Donald Ginder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ginder, Cooper Ave., Landisville, was solemnized in Donegal Presbyterian Church at 10 am Saturday. The Rev. Thomas A. McGregor officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Mrs. Earl Grenaway, Lewistown, cousin of the bride, as matron of honor. Miss Ruth Runkle, Huntington, cousin of the bride served as bridesmaid.

The best man was Chester Schoenberger, Lancaster RI. Harold Hostetter, Annville and Robert Randler, of this boro were ushers.

Activities of Our Police Officers

Chief of Police Park Neiss reported the following motor violations during the past week:

Lee G. Pickle, Middletown, Pa., stop sign violation. Paid fine and costs at a hearing before Burgess Tom Brown.

Richard Manrix, Detroit, Mich., passing without highway clear of 500 feet. Paid fine and costs before Justice of the Peace James E. Hockenberry.

Jacob S. Lindemuth, Columbia RD1 and John A. Johnson, Harrisburg, both stop sign violations. Both will be summoned for hearings before Burgess Brown.

Richard Hamm, Harrisburg for passing over the white line. Will be summoned for a hearing before Squire Hockenberry.

SALE WELL ATTENDED
The public sale of household goods of Mrs. Lillie Backenstoe, South Market street, was well attended Saturday. C. S. Frank was the auctioneer and Claud Zeller the clerk.

TWO MEN KILLED A 44 INCH RATTLE SNAKE

George Floyd, Bainbridge RD1, and Ezra Hoover, Rheems, spent last weekend at Sinnemahoning. Mr. Hoover caught a number of fish, and Mr. Floyd reported seeing a number of deer and one fawn, while hiking in the mountains.

On their way home Sunday evening while descending Snowshoe Mountain in their auto, Hoover noticed a snake at the side of the road, and succeeded in killing it with the car.

Upon investigation, the reptile proved to be a large rattler, and it measured 44 inches in length and had 14 rattles. Hoover had brought the snake home and he says he will have it mounted.

Hiestand Family In Ninth Reunion

The Hiestand Clan had their 9th reunion on Sunday, July 25, at Kaufman's Park, Manheim.

Mrs. George McFarland was in charge of the program. Group singing was led by Irvin Hiestand. Scripture reading by Simon Hiestand, devotion by Rev. Sayre, recitation Joyce Hiestand Song by Joyce Druceker; accordion selections by Richard Williams; recitation by Janet Hiestand and duets by Raymond Hiestand and Gordon Miller; Song by Roger Hiestand; recitations by Dennis McFarland and Cecile Endicott; Song by Clark Bashore; Duet by John and Joel Hiestand; Talk by Paul Bashore.

Gifts were presented to the oldest member Simon Hiestand and to the youngest member who was Douglas McFarland and folks who came the longest distance to Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Sayre from Richmond, N. J.

The games for the children were (Turn to page 2)

SS Workers Hold Second Meeting

The second quarterly meeting of the Sunday School Workers Conference was held Monday evening in the Presbyterian Sunday School room. There were four representatives from the Church of God, five from the United Brethren, four from the Methodist, three from the Evangelical, nine from the Presbyterian, and no representatives from the Calvary, Episcopal or the Lutheran churches.

The scripture was read by Mr. Bailey, Superintendent of the Presbyterian Sunday School, followed by a prayer. Following this, there was a piano solo by Miss Peggy Garber.

The speaker for the evening was Mr. Henry Bucher of the Elizabethtown College, who spoke on "Sun" (Turn to page 5)

DEER LEAPED THRU A GLASS DOOR AT COLUMBIA

Very unusual was the sight of a doe deer leisurely meandering on Union street at Columbia last Thursday. The animal became frightened, leaped thru a glass door at Miss Sarah Warden's China shop, third and Union streets, almost wrecking the interior.

The animal, badly cut and bleeding was killed by a policeman's club.

HENRY O. NEILL WAS APPOINTED A J. OF P.

Henry O. Neill, Florin Hotel, was appointed by Gov. James H. Duff, Thursday as justice of the peace for Mount Joy Twp.

O'Neill was elected to office at the last election but due to a technicality did not lift his commission. He is employed in the office of the J. E. Baker stone quarry, Bainbridge RI.

Everything That Happened At Florin Recently

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Grimm of Mechanicsburg, were visiting with Mrs. Annie Wittel.

Mr. J. B. Hershey returned to New York City Sunday after spending his vacation with his parents.

Mr. Earl Gerlitzki witnessed the double-header base ball game at Philadelphia last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Breneman, Mr. Samuel Becker Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Becker Jr. and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kolp were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Becker.

(Turn to page 3)

COMPLETELY SAWED OFF BUT IT WOULDN'T FALL

Employs of Contractor Swanger, who is building the West end of the new highway between here and Lancaster, had an unusual experience Saturday.

A large oak tree nearly three feet in diameter on the Metzler tract, had to be removed. Workmen sawed it completely off near the ground and it wouldn't fall, nature had it so perfectly balanced.

Finally they tied a rope near its top and about a dozen men pulled it down.

ROTARY LUNCHEON

At the Rotary luncheon on Tuesday, Mr. George Broske and Mrs. James Eshleman gave a report of the playground activities. The attendance at the grounds has decreased in the last few weeks and it is the desire of the supt. to invite the children to come out and participate in the daily programs.

Four traveling Rotarians were in attendance at the meeting: G. A. Betzer, Frank S. Miller, Chester Campbell and J. Wilbur Douglas.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hinkle, West Main St., entertained on Sunday to a double birthday dinner in honor of Mr. Harold S. Oberdeer and Mrs. Samuel Ireley.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ireley and son, Jerry, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Oberdeer and daughter Barbara Ann of Middletown and Mrs. B. S. Folly of Mt. Joy RI.

SCREW DRIVER USED TO ATTACK AND STAB MAN

Harry Dyer, sixty-four, Manheim R2, was stabbed by two unidentified assailants near Manheim, according to State Police.

Dyer said he was attacked and stabbed with a screw driver. Nine sutures were used to close wounds on his face and scalp. He was admitted to the General Hospital.

Cpl. James J. Haggerty took charge of the investigation. State Police said they have only meager details of the alleged attack.

THE GARBER REUNION AT LITITZ SPRING JULY 31

The fourth reunion of the Garber family will be held Saturday, July 31st, at Lititz Springs Park, Lititz.

A very interesting program including music, addresses, and a business meeting will start at 1:30 P. M. (D.S.T.).

Invitations have been mailed to approximately one hundred and eighty heads of families in ten states. If any Garbers in Lancaster County have been missed they are to consider themselves invited.

Those invited are to bring box lunches to be served in picnic tables available in the park.

Clarence Garber, Lancaster R6 is President and Miss Helen Garber, Elizabethtown RI is Secretary of the Organization.

Florin - Maytown Playground News

Children of the Florin Hall playground participated in a flower show on Tuesday, July 27th. Winners for the contest were Marion Klein, 1st prize; Darlene Gerlitzki, 2nd prize and Tina Espesito, 3rd prize for the most beautiful bouquets.

In the miniature class, Lydia Weaver received a prize for the smallest bouquet, while Vivian Gable received a prize for the most unusual. Morris Weaver won a prize for the cleverest arrangement. Prizes were also given for the most unusual plants.

Andy Landis won a prize for a plant called Angel Wings, while Carol Ginder won the prize for a Moses in the Bushes plant.

The feature event for the week in Maytown was a doll show on Tuesday with prizes awarded to Mary Ann Felty, for the smallest doll and to Stephen Doles for the largest.

Theresa Shuman received a prize for the best dressed doll, while Joan Shuman's doll was life like. Cynthia Brandt had the funniest doll and Audrey Singer's dolls were most unusual. Mary Ann Felty also had the largest doll family and Peggy Housel the youngest doll, Patsy Lyons received a prize for the cutest animal doll; Helen Felty for the oldest doll which is 60 yrs. old.

Swimming parties have been planned for both playgrounds on Thursday at which time the groups go to Twin Oaks.

McNaughton Family Held Fourth Reunion

The fourth annual McNaughton reunion was held at Hershey Park on Sunday, July 25.

Games were played and refreshments served to the following: Mr. and Mr. Ralph McNaughton and children, Marie and Harold of Elizabethtown; Mr. and Mrs. Fred McNaughton and sons Fred and Douglas; Bonnie McLane of Bainbridge; Mr. and Mrs. William Eyde and children, William, Lorraine, Barbara and Robert of Bainbridge RI; Mrs. Florence McNaughton of Palmyra; Mrs. Elizabeth Cover, Mrs. Sara Zink, Terry Lee Zink, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pennell and sons, Ray and Edward; Miss Doris Zink, Mrs. Melva Zink, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barninger Jr. and daughters, Jane, all of Mount Joy and Miss Betty Doup of Newport News, Va.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Elizabeth Cover, Sandra Kay McNaughton, Jane Barninger, Mr. Charles Barninger and Mrs. Melva Zink. Gifts were awarded to each of the children. New officers were elected for the following year.

The next reunion will be held the last Sunday in July at Elizabethtown Park.

THERE GOES HER PROFIT

Mrs. Anna Hauck, thirty-seven, Elizabethtown RI, pleaded guilty to selling fire crackers and was fined $200 and costs.

The Local News For The Past Week Very Briefly Told

The present car inspection period ends Saturday, July 31.

The Derr family reunion will be held at Long's Park Sunday.

Elizabethtown has extended its boro limit to include five additional acres.

125 persons attended the Hersh family reunion at Williamson Park Sunday.

Sixty dollars worth of tools were stolen from the shed of the Millersville Memorial Church.

The Lititz Farm Show, skipped last year, will resume this year on Sept. 30, and Oct. 1 and 2.

Bonita Lefever, four, Brownstown is at St. Joseph's Hospital. She was bitten by a snake at Safe Harbor.

A new shoe factory at Columbia was authorized by the State Tuesday. It will be a $100,000 corporation.

Edward Hammond, 37, Columbia was arrested for stealing 49 dozen eggs and 39 pounds of lard from parked autos.

BUSINESS AND PLEASURE BY AIR

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Sam Balsbaugh, Mr. Alvin J. Reist and Mr. Norman Sprecher all of this boro, chartered a four passenger plane and flew to Ocean City where they spent the day.

Mr. Lester Hostetter, teller at the Union National Mt. Joy Bank and Mr. Phares Landis of the Donegal Airport flew to Wilkes Barre recently, the former for a disability checkup at the Veterans' Administration and the latter on a business trip.

Week's Birth Record

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heaps, 207 Marietta Ave., this boro, a daughter at 9:40 am Sunday at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Landis Landisville, a son at 8:20 am on Saturday at the Lancaster Osteopathic Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Shank, Manheim R2, a son Monday at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford M. Boll, Lititz RD3, a son on July 12th at the Lancaster General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Heisey Mt. Joy R2, a daughter on Tuesday at the Lancaster General Hospital.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Robert A. Rye, this boro and Martha J. Miller, Salunga.

Mortuary Record Throughout This Entire Locality

Robert H. Myers, 63, at Manheim. Mrs. Fianne B. Buch, 85, at Manheim.

Elwood Gochaur, forty-six, Manheim RI.

Mrs. Agnes S. Zerphey, seventy-four, at Manheim.

Clinton Kaylor, eighty-four, at Elizabethtown R. D. Sunday.

Mrs. Laura J. Farmer, sixty-eight, at Lancaster Junction, Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Millard Weaver, 69, of E-town at the Lancaster General Hospital Friday.

Margie, wife of Paul Bricker, at Elizabethtown, aged fifty. Gladys, wife of Roy Springer of Maytown is a daughter.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. Rueben Aspers and son of Upland, Calif., visited Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Zercher, Marietta Ave. on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shoalts and three children of Wellandport, Ontario, Canada are spending the week here.

Mrs. Lillian Backenstoe will spend two weeks with her brother at Harrisburg and will then make her future home with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Moore, at Lansdowne.

The Rev. and Mrs. Carlton M. Jones, of St. Lukes Episcopal Church and Miss Joyce Ellis left Friday for Boston, Mass., where they will spend some time.

Miss Ruby Fuller, of Ickesburg RD returned home Tuesday after spending the week here with Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Darrenkamp and family. Miss Jean Darrenkamp and Mr. and Mrs. John Fuller who will return to town on Sunday.

Week end visitors at Methodist Parsonage: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barnes, Mrs. Antoinette Bruno and Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Hall, all of Williamsport, visited the latter's daughter and son in law, The Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Mort.

Deeds Recorded

A. M., Orpha G., J. Musser and Ruth E. Wolgemuth, East Donegal Twp., to Lester P. and Thelma J. Eshelman, Florin, lot in East Donegal Twp.

Joseph R. and Florence A. Bixler, Florin, to Howard H. and Thelma R. Sulrey, Manheim, lot in Florin.

Leonard H. and Hazel I. Johnson, Mount Joy, to Thomas and Marion R. Mariner, Mount Joy, lot with a house, barn, and other improvements, Longenecker Road, Mount Joy, $14,000.

MAN KILLED AT CROSSING

Benjamin F. Leakway, Manheim RI, was killed instantly when a Penn. R. R. train struck his auto at Shreiner's crossing, west of Lancaster. This is the fourth person killed there in eight years. His auto was completely demolished.

Rev. Francis R. Daugherty resigned as pastor of Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church at Columbia.