

OWL LAFFS

A WISE OWL

Last Wednesday night we received a phone call asking us to place the following classified ad in our paper: LOST, STRAYED or STOLEN: A local hotel man, somewhere around Stumps Ball Park.

About three hours later we were told to cancel the ad, that their man had been found. And here is what happened:

Last Wednesday night Jim Krall took Chet Armstrong to see the Midget Ball Game at Lancaster, and when the game ended Chet was nowhere to be found.

About two hours later, after driving around the streets searching for Chet, Jim decided to return home. He did just that, and when he got there, he found that Chet had gone for the car after the game, but somehow got lost in the crowd and found himself at Shirks Motor Freight Yard.

Never start an argument at the dinner table. The diner who is not hungry is sure to win.

The reason no woman ever married the man in the moon is because he only makes a quarter a week, gets full once a month and stays out all night. He is a bad bet.

A nearby couple were being heard in the divorce court, when the tearful wife explained:

We were happy for over a year Your Honor, and then — then the baby came.

The judge asked: Boy or girl? The lady replied: Girl — she was a blonde and moved in next door.

The average husband is one who lays down the law to his wife and then accepts all her amendments. I OUGHTA KNOW!

A Florin young lady explained: Yes, I broke my engagement. My feelings are changed completely from what they were when I had accepted him.

Her new boy friend inquired: But why do you still wear the ring? She answered: Oh, my feelings toward the ring are just the same.

A very amusing incident happened while we were out motoring on Sunday —

Joe, a truck driver, stopped very suddenly on the highway. The car behind crashed into the truck and the owner of the passenger car was furious.

The investigating officer asked: Why didn't you hold out your hand? Joe replied: Well, if he could not see the truck, how in heavens name could he see my hand.

Sandwich Spread: What some people get from eating between meals.

Every day a certain henna head walks right down Main St., in a bathing suit. Why? Because she says, that is the only time she gets whistled at, since the new look came in and she stopped wearing short skirts.

Martin: What would you do if I kissed you? Millie: I would yell.

The scene changes. It is the next morning. On the way to

Softball Playoff Starts Next Monday Evening

At a meeting of the local Softball League called by President Earl Myers, held Wednesday night at the Fire House, it was decided that the winners of the first four positions in the league race will start the playoffs Monday evening, August 16 on the Park diamond, there will be series of three games, if necessary, in the semi-finals, the teams finishing in first and third positions, will play Monday and Wednesday evenings, and the second and fourth place teams will play Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

The scheduled time for each game to start will be 6:30 p. m. First and second positions will not be determined until after tomorrow evening (Friday) when the Merchants and Florin oppose each other in their final game, the winner being the first place team and the loser, the second place team.

Through an agreement of the teams managers the Seller team took third place and the VFW team fourth.

MIDGETS WON EASILY AT COLUMBIA MONDAY NITE

Hank Hallgren and his Midgets went to Columbia Monday evening and won easily 5 to 0. At the end of the third frame Hank trotted out an entire new infield with the exception of Benny Brown and they went on to hold Columbia scoreless. The losers had four hits. Our lads had five, Brown and Estock leading with two apiece.

In the Millersville-Etown game, the former won 1 to 0.

REG'LAR FELLERS

THE LOW DOWN At Mount Gretna

The First Year, a farce comedy dealing with the trials and tribulations of a young couple, is the next to closing production on the summer schedule at the Gretna Playhouse which is opening a weeks stay on Thursday night August 12th.

This hilarious comedy from the pen of Frank Craven promises to be one of the funniest shows of the season. It is a well written play and under the able direction of Charles F. Coghan will be given the same high type of production which has made the summer theatre at Mt. Gretna one of the most popular in Eastern Pa.
