

OWL LAFFS BOWLING

A WISE OWL

About half of the men around the country are envious of Wm. B. Bronstein and the other half would like to know how he does it at today's high prices. There are two towns in California, Upland and Covina, only 20 miles apart—just about the distance between Mount Joy and York.

That guy, Bronstein has a wife and three children in each town.

Saw a truck go up Main street yesterday with the following sign in a conspicuous place in the rear: It read: I stop at all railroad crossings, behind school buses and for blondes.

Well, pretty soon now comes Community Exhibit time! But it's not like it used to be. Remember when they used to give yardsticks as souvenirs and you'd walk along the street and when the girls as they passed?—More fun!

A nearby family had just changed washwomen and had gotten the completed laundry, when the lady of the house complained: "The new washer woman has stolen two of our towels."

Her hubby asked: "Which ones?" And she replied: "The ones we got from the hotel in New York."

"What is a vacuum?" a local teacher asked.

The student answered: "I have it in my head but I can't explain it." — Guess who.

"I can trace my ancestry back to an Irish king," boasted a Senior girl.

"Sure, that's easy. What chance has the dead man to defend himself?" countered a classmate.

The fellas say that: "Experience is what you have left after you've completely forgotten the girl's name." — Could be!

At breakfast a Florin man was on the defensive.

"Well," he said to his wife, "you can't say I made any noise coming home last night."

"No," agreed his Missus, "but the three men carrying you did."

The old-fashioned girl who darned her husband's socks now has a married daughter who socks her darned husband.

Song title: "Since I've lost my glasses—I wonder who's kissing me now?"

A hill-billy decided to see what all the ruckus was about at these snooty hotels in the Poconos, so he drove to one of them last weekend, and as he took the pen handed him by the hotel clerk, he signed the register with an X. With a thoughtful look on his face, he hesitated, then drew a circle around the X.

"A lot of people sign with an X," said the clerk, "but that's the first time I've ever seen it circled."

"Tain't nothing so dad-darned odd about it," retorted the hayseed; "when I'm out for a wild time I don't use my right name."

Which reminds us that after taking a poll we learned that — A vacation is a succession of 2's. It consists of 2 weeks, which are 2 short. Afterwards you are 2 tired 2 return 2 work and 2 broke not 2.

And now from our poet's corner: Last night when all the stars were lit,

Fa went out to stroll a bit. When Fa came home, Ma had a fit. The stars were gone, and Fa was lit.

The city folks out for a Sunday drive spotted an old man working in a corn field and stopped to absorb his quaint rusticity.

"Good morning," Mrs. City Folks said brightly. "Lovely day."

"Yep," replied the old man, squirting terbacny juice into a furrow, "but there's rain coming.

BOY SCOUTS FIELD MEET AT COVE SATURDAY, SEPT. 25

Fifteen scouts of Troop 39, met in the scout room on Monday evening.

The program for the evening was based on a review of the Scouts projects that the Mount Joy Troop will be in charge of at the Field Meet, which will be held at the Cove this Saturday, Sept. 25th. The projects are Nature love, fire by flint or steel, and standing broad jumps. The parents of scouts are invited to see them in action.

Last Saturday afternoon ten scouts met at the room for purpose of cleaning up dirt and debris so the rooms can be painted.

The Fall program of the Troop is being planned and it is hoped all boys interested in becoming Scouts will come to the meeting each Monday evening.

Earthquakes occur on the average of every 14 hours, a major earthquake every 6 1/2 days.

"Cracky," "Wonderful," said Mr. City Folks; "what folklore tells you that? Could it be red sky at morning, farmer take warning? Do you feel it in your corns? Or can you tell it by the way the ants are acting?"

"None," the ancient man of the soil replied, "I read it in my Sunday paper." — Simple enough.

You know, most men flirt with the women they would not marry, and marry the women who would not flirt with them.

This could be very confusing. Directions on a Nursing Bottle: "When the baby is done drinking it should be washed and laid in a cool place. If the baby does not thrive on fresh milk it should be boiled." — The bottle or the baby?

A fella in the east end says the reason he swears so much is because it's the only way he can talk without thinking.

A WISE OWL

REG'LAR FELLERS

THE LOW DOWN

HICKORY GROVE

You know, our hired hands down there on the wide and wandering Potomac keep talking high prices and how heaven and earth must be moved to lower same. And all this goes on just as though these same gents had no finger in the pie of bringing on the dilemma.

They been chief cooks there for year—have helped most in fozzling the soup. And now, instead of doing what they ought to do—admit their error or guilt, or whatever you choose to call it—they point elsewhere.

What should they do, says Henry. Let 'em consult, I says that old Virginian, Harry Byrd, sub-- and pay heed. He can point out exactly where to operate. Our ailment is "Economic gout," brought on by too much Govt. in our diet.

One million more folks than ever before needed to run the Govt. in peace times, is now interfering with our digestion--we are clear off our feed. By eliminating an excess load of one million from our back, we can shave around 6000 million bucks per year from taxes.

Six thousand million bucks off our bent back, per year, should sure help everybody's budget--and tranquility--and it sounds like a powerful sensible, horse-sense procedure.

Alright then, says Henry, if it is going to take a major kind of operation, like you say, why not have it soon, and before more complications and even higher prices set in--answer me that. You are seeing the light, I says.

Yours with the low d-wn, JIMMY
