

OWL LAFFS

A WISE OWL

Have you picked out your prize winning apples, cabbage and pumpkins for the farm show next week? I had a lot of trouble with the things I was going to exhibit. My wife took the grapes and made luttler, the squirrels got at the corn ears, frost spoiled my dahlias and the cabbage rotted. Darned if I'm not down right disgusted.

Maybe this happened at Krall's, but mind you, I'm not sayin' it did or didn't.

The housewife went into the luttler shop late one afternoon just before closing time to buy some meat. A strange man followed her into the shop and stood about while she was at the counter. Suddenly she screamed and the man turned and ran out of the store right into the arms of a passing policeman. (Was it Mike?) Later the strange man was identified as a hold-up man.

"Mrs. Jones, if you hadn't screamed, I would certainly have been robbed," declared the butcher gratefully, "but how did you know he was a bandit?"

"I didn't know," protested Mrs. Jones. "I screamed when you told me what the roast was going to cost."

After interviewing several applicants, I've come to the conclusion that a stenographer is a girl you pay to learn to spell while she's looking for a husband.

Hear two service men boasting about their prospective branches of the service and this was the conversation:

Sailor: "The Navy is building an aircraft carrier so large that we'll have to enlarge the ocean before it can turn around."
Pilot: "That's nothing, the Air Force is building a plane so large we'll have to borrow air from Mars before we can fly it." — A trifle elastic, m' thinks.

The following poetry could have been written by numerous patrons of the "one-foot-on-the-rail" places. But, to assure them domestic peace, I'll not mention any names, you guess.

From Life's book of tears and laughter
I've gained a bit of lore;
I'd rather have a morning after,
Than never had a night before.

Miser was telling a crowd of fellows about his last fishing expedition and of the one that got away.

"It was at least that long," gestured the man, stretching his hands apart. "I never saw such a fish."

"That I believe," came a comment from one of his listeners. — Is that nice, to doubt the man?

When a Salunga young man proposed to a local red head, she declined saying: "It's sweet of you, but the answer is 'no.' But, I'll always admire your good taste."

A wisp of a man from hereabouts bought a ferocious tiger at an auction, out-bidding several circus people. "What are you planning to do with this man-eating beast?" he was asked by a wild animal trainer. "Going to compete with us?" "Oh, no," replied the little man, "not at all. It's only that my wife died last week and I'm lonesome."

Since we can't live without our income, let's learn to live within it.

You know, even if you were to run up on a bargain nowadays, chances are the owner would want more than it's worth.

CARD PARTY OCTOBER 20

The Ladies Auxiliary of Walter S. Ebersole Post No. 185, will sponsor a card party on Wednesday, October 20th, at 8 o'clock at the Fire House. Pinochle, 500 and Bridge will be played with two prizes to each table and door prizes.

LOCAL SOCCER TEAM UPSET DOPE; DEFEATED N. HOLLAND

Mt. Joy came through with a hard-earned 1-0 victory Friday over New Holland in the County High Soccer League to upset the loop's defending champions.

In another contest, West Lampeter and East Hempfield battled to a 1-1 deadlock. Sheaffer scored for Lampeter and Sauder tallied for Hempfield, both goals coming in the second period. Two overtime periods were played in an effort to break the deadlock.

It was a last period goal by McCue that gave Mt. Joy its triumph over New Holland.

PWC APPROVES ISSUANCE OF TELEPHONE CO. STOCK

The Public Utility Commission Wednesday approved the issuance of $75,000 par value common capital stock by the Columbia Telephone Company, Columbia, Lancaster Co. The company, which provides telephone service in Columbia, Elizabethtown, Marietta and Mount Joy, said the proceeds of the stock would be used for completion of plant additions and purchase of additional equipment in Columbia and Mount Joy.

DONEGAL AIRPORT NEWS

Alvin Reist and son, Henry of Route 1, and Norman Sprecher of town flew to Mt. Pocono on Sunday, where they attended a get together of pilots and their friends. John Hawthorne, instructor, Lewis Sauter, a student went on a cross country flight to Lake Susquehanna and Mt. Pocono. Carl Minnich, another student made a solo flight to the same places.

FISHERMAN'S PARADISE WILL SOON BE BUT A MEMORY

Kerbaugh's Lake, located between Columbia and Chickies Rock will be filled in to end flood hazards.

The lake was formed when the low grade line of the Pennsylvania Railroad was built. During periods of high water, the lake overflows and floods the Marietta highway and low grade lines of the PRR.

ATTENTION FIREMEN

Kindly return ticket stubs to Harry Hendrix, 33 East Main St. Mt. Joy, not later than Tuesday, Oct. 12th.

REG'AR FELLERS

All Aboard For Soap Box Derby

The "Soap Box Derby" that is held in conjunction with The Mt. Joy Community Exhibit, will be held again this year. The time for this event will be Saturday afternoon, October 16, beginning at 1 p. m.

We would like to have more boys and girls interested in this event, and hope that you will build that racer over the week end, and then enter it in the race on the 16th. It's open to boys and girls alike, the rules are very simple and the prize money good.

Here Are The Rules

Open to boys and girls 12 years or under.
Cars may be built by any person, and you may spend up to $5.00 on its building.

Cars must be steered by a central mechanism, such as steering wheel or similar object.
Wheels may not exceed 12 inches.

The race will be run on the Market Street hill, past the tennis courts, on a marked course. Each car will be started by an official pusher to a given distance, and then allowed to proceed on its own power.

These rules are very simple, easy to follow, and will permit any boy or girl to enter the race.

Here Are The Prizes

First prize - $10.00 - second - $7.00 - third - $3.00.
A consolation prize of $1.00 will be given to all entries that do not qualify for one of the prizes.

That's the hole story. Now how about going out and building that derby racer for the "Soap Box Derby." For further particulars, contact Joe Shaeffer, 327 West Donegal Street, Phone 67-W.

$3,975.00 for the lowly jeep to $20,000.00 for the most modern equipment. Oren Roanoke Corp., Roanoke, Va.; American LaFrance, Philadelphia; W. S. Darley Co., The American Equipment Co., Seagraves, of Columbus, O., a manufacturer at Elmira, N. Y. and several other dealers presented bids.

Chairman Eicherly called a special meeting of Council to be held in the Council Chamber next Monday evening at 7:30, at which time the bids will be tabulated. The committee from the Fire Co. will be asked to attend. An effort will be made at this meeting to arrange for the purchase of a pumper.

Request Refused

Bruce Brown, who owns the brick property southwest corner of New Haven and David streets, said he was having sewer trouble and asked permission to run the water from his laundry into the boro's sewers. Permission was refused as it would be a violation of an ordinance. Mr. Brown was very much dissatisfied and stated he would report the present boro sewage question to the State authorities. Also that if nothing was done relative to the situation that he may as well sell his house and move out of town.

President Eicherly stated that the Boro supervisor will be asked to inspect the conditions and see if there is a leaky water main thereabouts. In a communication from Paul
