EDITORIAL

Politicians often remind people of fellows bluffing in a poker game.

Today, after paying for the week's groceries, there isn't anyone here in Mount Joy who doesn't know which side of the bread the butter is on.

Fred Allen, Edgar Bergen, and others are certainly raging war against the give away programs. And why shouldn't they? Anybody that can give away $30,000 worth of anything is giving the commercial salesmen a kick in the pants when it comes to listen-in-ers.

Slowly, but surely we're finding out the origin of many of our labor troubles. Herbert J. Nichols, an International organizer of the United Electric Workers (CIO) was listed as a communist. Nichols hailed from Lancaster and the charges were made at the Stevens House Monday night.

WE HAD IT COMING!
A famous Britain says that England has reached its all-time low, in the opinion of the majority of nations. We can't say as to this, but we do know that Britons have changed their opinion and attitude about Americans. Citizens, who have recently visited there, assure us there is a decided difference and — in our favor! There are probably a lot of the British who would debate this, but, on the whole, we are favored. The idea of a generation or so ago, that Americans were principally gangsters, Indians, cowboys, were crude money-grabbing citizens, has altered. It is said, where we used to be ridiculed for our "American speech", returning visitors from England, say that many Britons are imitating our manner of speaking. So it appears that we are credited for progress in economy, culture and position. As a local man says, "It's about time."

OCTOBER 12TH
To the English he is known as Columbus, to the Italians as Colombo, the Spaniards as Colon. There is much confusion in history regarding this famous name. Christopher Columbus, the son of a wool gatherer in Genoa, Italy, was a Catholic, but has been recorded in some histories as the child of converted Jews. Some historians believe he visited the New World before October 1492, that he was on a previous voyage to America with Danish sailors. It is said he didn't set sail for America, but was seeking a trade route to India, to prove the world is round. Most states celebrate October 12 as Columbus Day, but it is observed as Landing Day in Wisconsin, Discovery Day in North Dakota, Fraternal Day in Alabama. Whatever history we follow, we continue to pay tribute to the trail blazer of 1492, and are grateful we were found, when we were found, in this part of the round earth.

MORE THAN MEETS THE EYE, TAXPAYER

Surprising how ignorant some of us are, on the subject of taxes. We pay them, count the cost, grumble, but don't fully understand them. The Commerce Department reports the total tax paid to Federal, State and Local government, for the fiscal year, amounts to $362 for every man, woman and child, in the USA. A man checks his last tax bill, finds he paid less than the $362 for each member of his family, and figures the difference was met by somebody else, perhaps big business, perhaps real estate.

There are hidden taxes, we overlook. When we buy clothing, pay rent, purchase groceries, we pay indirect tax. The income, sales, gasoline, cigarette tax we recognize, but forget the tax we pay for bus ride, phone call, electricity and water. The more one buys, the more tax is paid. When prices rise, taxes increase. So, if you add your tangible tax, plus the indirect tax, you may find you come closer to the $362 a person, than you realized.

MAYBE IT'S JUST HABIT

During the war when clothing manufacturers were making cuffless trousers, there was also difficulty in buying suits with vests. Came the return to cuffs, but what happened to the vests? Double breasted suits can carry along but the single-breasted suit needs the vest, the conservative buyer believes. Or, perhaps it has just become a habit. A certain line of men's suits, today advertises them as "vestless", indicating this is fashionable.

Some men don't feel well-dressed without a vest, find the vest affords them more warmth in winter and, best of all, makes wonderful storage space for checkbooks, glasses, watch, pencils, pen, note-books, and so forth. Free and easy may be the vestless look, sort of a nonchalance, but we are of the school of thought that feels a fellow can't ever be a man of distinction unless his suit includes the vest.

LO, THE POOR NICKEL

Along with the five-cent cigar has gone the nickel bus ride and even many newspapers. Big cities have had to raise the fare due to higher operating costs. In the old days when the towns were smaller and travel didn't cover the distances, the five-cent bus fare gave the transit company a pretty profit. Now buses travel three times as far, and up goes costs. Privately owned lines can hold out with a nickel fare for awhile perhaps, but they will gradually up the rate too. In small towns, street cars are disappearing with buses and trolley coaches replacing them. Styles change in transportation and the street car looks antiquated along side the streamlined vehicles. But, if you want style, you are going to have to pay for it, and what is stylish at five-cents? The cost of laying and buying rails for the street cars, means that company owners will have you wearing last year's hat for some years to come. But, in many cases, you aren't going to get last year's ride, for the same money. There is still the way out, that is walking, and many a citizen likes to feel the wind and the rain in his hair.

THEY CALLED IT BREAKFAST

The National Association of Retail Grocers tell us that today's housewife can't cook the way grandma did, in spite of all the conveniences in the modern kitchen to make the job an easier one. They do add that present day meals, with the exception of breakfast, are better - balanced, better planned. With the fancy cook books, the exchange of recipes of favorite dishes, you would figure the culinary art would have far out-distanced grandma's efforts. There is going to be some argument on this subject.

A survey shows, that except in the farming areas and the Middle South, our morning breakfast would make grandma ashamed of us and grandma weak from hunger. A piece of toast, glass of fruit juice, cup of coffee, all hastily gulped, wouldn't have been a starter in the old days. Adding an egg and strip of bacon wouldn't help much. Then, breakfast was the most important meal of the day. It started folks off with energy to do a whole of a job. Ask an old timer, and he will describe platters crowded with ham, eggs, hot biscuits, mush and pudding, fried potatoes, country butter, home-made jam and jelly, pots of coffee, thick cream and very often, pie. There were pork chops, side meat, fish, all accompanied by potatoes, of course.

We live differently, dashing thru breakfast to catch a bus, a train, getting autos out of garages, finding parking space. Breakfast is not taken leisurely. A heavy meal, in all the rush, would cause indigestion, you say. And also, what about the box tops on cereal cartons, for prizes, if we listened to grandma?

MAKE NEW LAWN NOW

Fall is the best time to start the new lawn, says A. E. Cooper, extension agronomist of the Pennsylvania State College. A good lawn requires topsoil, at least 4 inches thick and preferably 6 inches. Fill in the rough grade with subsoil up to within 6 inches of the grade desired and then fill with topsoil.

Experiments conducted by a New York laboratory showed that the Ivory Tine Panama made by the Frank H. Lee Company reflected 93% of the sun's heat rays.

Week's Best Recipe

Quick Apple Strudel: 2 c sifted flour, 3 t baking powder, 1-2 t salt, 2 T sugar, 4 T shortening, 2-3 to 3-4 c milk, 3 c chopped apple, 1-2 c sugar, 1 t cinnamon, confectioner's sugar, chopped nuts. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Cut in shortening and add milk to make soft dough. Turn on floured board, knead gently. Roll out 1-4 inch thick. Brush with melted margarine, cover with chopped apple. Sprinkle sugar, cinnamon, over apple. Roll jelly-roll style and form in semi-circle on greased baking sheet. Bake in moderate oven 20-25 min. While warm, frost with white frosting made by beating confectioner's sugar with little hot water until smooth, flavor with vanilla. Sprinkle chopped nuts over frosting. Yield: 12 one-inch slices.

For Luncheons

Serve company this easily prepared dish. Put halves of hard-boiled eggs on bottom of greased casserole. Cover with canned mushroom soup, top with crumbled potato chips. Bake 20 minutes in moderate oven. Use same method for tuna fish casserole. Put layer of potato chips on bottom, one-half of can of sardines or broken tuna meat as second layer, one-half can of cream of mushroom soup as next layer. Repeat process ending with topping of crumbled potato chips. Bake same length of time.

Children's Clothes

A tip from extension clothing specialist at Iowa State College, is to cover clothes for youngsters who out-grow them so rapidly. Buy a snowsuit one year, a coat the next. Be sure there is plenty of room in the garment. See that shoulder line is loose enough for freedom of movement, yet fits to stay in place. Plan clothing with similar type fastening for children to learn how to fasten and unfasten their garments. Elastic should not go more than half way around and not be so tight it leaves red marks on the skin.

Inspirational

A merry heart doeth good like a medicine. —Proverbs 17:22.

Nickel produced from old mine near Gap, Pennsylvania, was at one time exported to all industrial nations, leading to many of the developments that gave the metal universal use in mechanical arts.

Ephrata will get voting machines this week.

SAVE WHEAT FROM LOSS

Winter wheat can now be sown safely in nearly all sections of Pennsylvania without danger of loss caused by the Hessian fly. According to J. O. Pepper, extension entomologist of the Pennsylvania State College, fly-free dates are grouped around the last of September and the first of October.

Pennsylvania, now one of the greatest game and fish states in the nation, was practically a "shot-out" state in 1895.
